We, the Warrior Staff of 1945, wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Hickcox for his guidance in the publishing of this annual.

We would also like to express our gratitude to Pearl Taber for her artistic work in making the designs used on the cover and throughout the book.

Our appreciation is also given to those students who gave their time and effort to the realization of this annual.

The Student Council consists of the President, the Vice President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer of the Associated Student Body, the president and student council representatives from each class and a representative from each active club.

The Student Council of the Associated Student Body has operated this year under the constitution which was revised last year. This revision was accomplished as a project of the council during 1943-1944.

The work this year has been largely of a routine nature. Members of the council worked on a city-wide committee for the teen-age canteen project and a project to keep our campus looking neat and clean which thus far has proven to be a success.

Senior Class Play

The 1945 Senior Class play, "The Bargain Bride," a rollicking three-act farce, was presented in the high school gymnasium, on April 24, 1945 to a capacity crowd.

The scene of action was the apartment of two college youths, who were having considerable difficulty in straightening out the dilemmas in their private lives. To straighten out the difficulties of being married within eight hours in order to save a fortune, and for a boy to become a lady in even less time to win a $5,000 award, took the combined efforts of the eleven members of the cast and the director, Miss Schiltz.

Senior Class History

When school opened September, 1942, 122 freshmen enrolled. After being properly initiated they settled down to become members of Lebanon High School. With Miss Phibbs as their class advisor they chose the following officers: President, Jack Hyder; vice-president, Cedric Wallace; secretary, Carroll Penfold; treasurer, Bob Bouman; class representative, Bob Fisher. This year proved to be an excellent one with good participation in social activities.

The following year the Sophomores took an active part in athletics, band, glee and school clubs. Under the advisorship of Miss Ender they elected their class officers. They were: President, Don Davidson; vice-president, Bill Miller; secretary, Margaret Smith; treasurer, Curtis Coe; sergeant-at-arms, Erwin Wilkinson; class representative, Ramona Iverson.

From the beginning the Junior year was designated to be an outstanding one. Under the able leadership of class advisors, Mrs. Wilshire and Mr. Butler, President Bill Peden, Vice-president Tony Solberg, Secretary Janet Durst, Treasurer Carroll Penfold, Sergeant-at-arms Richard Bartels and Class Representative Cedric Wallace the year was very successful. After raising money the necessary funds they sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, under the chairmanship of Janet Durst. The theme, Dreamboat, was effectively carried out and music was provided by a band from Camp Adair. The grand march was led by Queen Ann and her court of six princesses. This year, as in previous years, found outstanding athletes, excellent choral groups and grand representation in all school activities.

On September 25, 1944, 87 seniors began their last year, secretly a little sad but with equal enthusiasm. They got off to a good start with advisors, Miss Schiltz and Mr. Brenner, and by electing: Bob Olds, president; Douglas Smith, vice-president; Betty Southwick, secretary; Izetta Richards, treasurer; Bill Peden, sergeant-at-arms; Don Ellis, class representative.

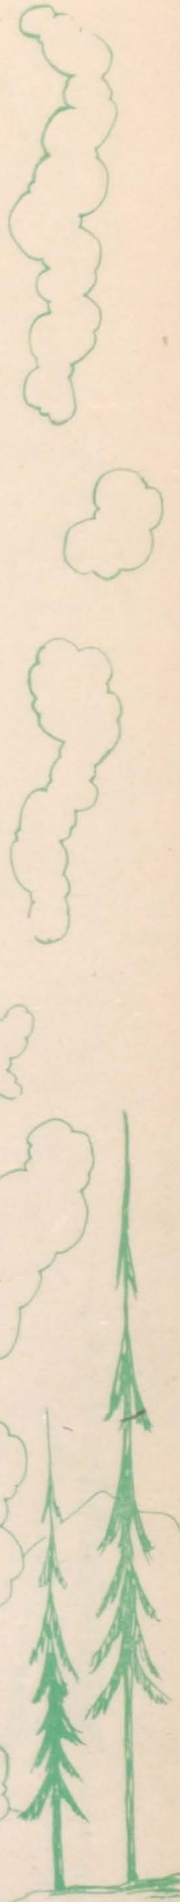

As a result of fine class cooperation, several successful dances were given, the best being the Christmas dance.

The Senior play, "Bargain Bride," presented April 24, was a fast-moving, hilarious play. It was capably directed by Miss Schiltz.

May 11, Queen Betty II and her court of six princesses, Lorraine Baker, Izetta Richards, Betty Irvine, Helen Fiala, Ruth Ford, and Phyllis Miller reigned over the May Day celebration.

Baccalaureate took place on June 3 and commencement on June 6 with 93 graduating—ten of whom are in the service.

It is with considerable thought to the future and a backward glance at the past four years the seniors, half-regretfully, leave Lebanon High for success in the future world.

Junior Class

DAVID POWELL
 President

The Junior Class was fortunate this year in having two interested teacher advisors, Mrs. Wilshire and Miss Brown. Under their guidance the following officers were selected at an election held the first of the year: President, David Powell; vice-president, Jean Beach; secretary, Donna Underwood; treasurer, Jess Ingram; student council representative, Paul McCracken. Other juniors on the Student Council were: Joan Voegelein, Dennis Marvin, Larry Christian, Norman Weekly and Lynn Hamilton.

In basketball this year two juniors placed on the Tri-County All-Star team, David Powell and Lynn Hamilton. David Powell also place on the football all-star team.

Four juniors competed in the State Speech League contest held at Oregon State College. They were Zata Sinclair, Joan Voegelein, Dennis Marvin and Norman Weekly. Dennis and Norman won third place in their division, and Zata placed in the finals.

The Junior Class felt the influence of war this year by losing nine of their class members in the graduating class. They are: Arthur Cobb, Margaret Champlin, Larry Christian, Paul McCracken, Duane Pierce, David Powell, Kenneth Shores, Quindella Taylor, and Norman Weekly.

The main event for the Junior Class is the Junior-Senior Prom. Zata Sinclair was chosen as prom chairman.

During the year the class sponsored three dances and one skating party in Albany.

Sophomore Class

The enrollment of the Sophomore Class was approximately one hundred twenty-five.

CHARLES GRAM
President

The activities of this class throughout the year have been a doughnut sale during the noon hour which was profitable for the treasury. The entire class took a trip to Albany for a skating party which also included free beverages for everyone. It was discovered that there were two outstanding skaters among us, Joe Baca and Duane Smith. Later in the spring our annual class party was held. The St. Patrick's theme was carried out. There were dancing, games, and delicious refreshments. Specialty numbers of the evening were given by Eloise Groves and Fayne Blackburn. This occasion was very much enjoyed by all.

The outstanding athletes of the Sophomore Class in football were Ron Cox, Bud Goold, Bob Downing and Dick Hobbs. Ron Cox also played on the "A" squad in Basketball; an the "B" squad were Dick Hobbs, Bud Goold, Elmer Fields, Bob Ackeret,

Warrior

Paul Alley, and Eugene Simi; Paul Alley, Bud Goold, and Elmer Fields also play baseball.

Pat Canaga and Fayne Blackburn are the class representatives in Girl's League. Dick Hobbs and Ron Cox are members of the Hi-Y Club.

The sophomores working on the Hi-Light staff are Pat Worland, Fayne Blackburn, Arden Keebler, Liela Barry, and Judy Swanson.

Charles Gram, the solo cornetist, and Jean Burns, Corabelle Edes, Diana Edes, Mary Gene Gregory, Dick Hobbs, Joan Humphreys, Arden Keebler, Norman Schmidt, and Elva Thomas are members of the band. Those who belong to the Glee Club are Patty Caughren, Shirley Clendenen, Barbara Devine, Vernetta Joy, Linda Mae Kroker, Dorothy Starnes, Eldon Shanks, Pat Wagy, Jean Sledge, Joyce Shell, Judy Swanson, Maxine Rowton, Delores White, and Dorothy Reed. Judy Swanson and Ramona Edwards are members of the sextette. The artists of the class are Marlys Sinclair, Alice Hansell and Rimmel Nivens.

The following members of the class were elected our officers: President, Charles Gram; vice-president, Ron Cox; secretary, Mary Gene Gregory; treasurer, Bob Downing; sergeant-at-arms, Paul Alley; representative, Judy Swanson. The class advisors are Mrs. Christine Smith and Mrs. Jean Parham. We wish to thank them for all the help they have given us.

Freshman Class

GEORGE MOORE
 President

At the beginning of this year one hundred and sixty Freshmen entered Lebanon High School. At the first class meeting officers were chosen. These were as follows: President, George Moore; vice-president, Elizabeth Waddell; secretary, Pat Lutz; treasurer, Reed Slater; class representative, Stanley Pesek; and sergeant-at-arms, Bob Miles. During the year George Moore and Reed Slater moved away, and Harold Fritz and Doris Neustal were elected in their places. These officers were very capable and the class had a very successful year under their leadership.

The class also owes much of its success to the very good advisorship of Miss Barnum and Mrs. Stewart who organized the class at the first meeting, and gave much valuable advice to the officers and class on class problems which arose during the course of the year.

Warrior

The Freshman class, also, took an active part in the music department, and in sports activities. In all three major sports numerous freshman boys turned out. Although there were no freshmen who made letters this year, there were several who looked very promising and will doubtlessly make athletes in future years.

There were several very nice parties held by the class this year. These included two mixers and a St. Patrick's Day party. All were exceedingly successful.

Junior High---Upper Division

On September 25, 1944, approximately ninety-seven Eighth Grade students entered Lebanon High School. Having had contact with the high school last year, these students knew their way around the buildings.

When the first class meeting was held, the following officers were elected: Gene Tanner, president; Robert Osterman, vice-president; Raye Bevan, secretary; Claire Caldwell, treasurer; James Fryrear, student council representative. Under the leadership of these officers and the class advisor, Mrs. Faller, the class had a very good year.

Although the eighth grade could not participate in athletics, the whole class enthusiastically attended all the games that they were able to, and many of the boys are looking forward to turning out for football, basketball and baseball next year.

Warrior

The eighth grade is housed in the gym annex of the main school building, although some of the eighth grade classes are held in other rooms of the building. This gives the class a good idea of the arrangement of the building that will stand them in hand for their years to come in the school system.

There are many students of the eighth grade who have taken an active part in the music department of the school. These students are well represented in both the band and glee club.

The participation in the bond drives by the eighth grade students has been excellent. They ranked second in the school in their purchases. They have played their part on the home front that our men might have better protection on the battle front.

The one big event in the life of every eighth grade student is the annual class party. This was held March 23, in the gym, and was a huge success according to the comments of the students.

Junior High---Lower Division

The Seventh Grade, with an enrollment of eighty-five, entered the Lebanon High School the fall of 1944. They held their first class meeting the second week of school and elected the following officers: President, Bruce Howe; vice-president, Rudy Kellison; secretary, Mary Waddell; treasurer, Betty Schackman; sergeant-at-arms, Don Baker, and class representative, Dewanda Hamilton.

This class was formally presented to Supt. King and Principal A. B. Cash at their second class meeting in October.

Bruce Howe, as president, made the presentation speech, introducing the class. Both Supt. King and Mr. Cash responded, welcoming them into the high school, and encouraging them to do their best to be a credit to their school.

The band members enjoyed learning to march and are particularly proud of the number of lower division members in the band.

The seventh grade has been very enthusiastic about buying stamps and bonds this year. So far they have the highest record of sales. During the Sixth War Loan their sales exceeded $6,000.

The big event of the year was the class party in the gym on April 25th. All plans for this party were made in a class meeting. Committees were appointed that took charge of everything. The evening was a success in every way.

The Seventh Grade was 100% in the purchase of student body tickets. A large percentage has been in attendance at all games to boost for "Our Team."

This class has so much pep and enthusiasm that they give promise of being an outstanding class for Lebanon High.

Mrs. Binshadler and Mrs. Rasmussen are the advisors.

Lebanon High School Band

The Lebanon High School Band, under the direction of Miss Julia Barnum, has been very active this year. The band made numerous public appearances throughout the school year, playing at all football and basketball home games. One trip was made during the athletic season to play for the Albany football game.

The officers of the band this year are: Norman Weekly, president and student director, and Joan Voegelein, librarian and treasurer.

The band gave two fine concerts this year, a Christmas program and the annual spring concert in April.

There were 50 members in the band, 22 being new. The seniors to graduate this year are: Rodney Cox, Margaret Champlin, Bob Johnson, Beverly Keebler, Paul McCracken, Duane Netland, Kenneth Shores, Quindella Taylor, and Norman Weekly.

Junior Band

The Junior Band is made up of exceptionally well balanced variety of instruments this year. The members have worked especially hard to get into the advanced band. Three former members of this group have been promoted to advanced band during the year. The band is made up of twenty-three members including seven cornets, five clarinets, a saxophone, two French horns, two baritones, a trombone, a sousaphone, and four drums.

The band members enjoyed learning to march and are particularly proud of the red and white uniforms they have worn for the first time this spring.

The two events of this year in which the Junior Band took part were the Christmas program and the spring concert at which they played with the beginner's band and also played a group of marches.

JUNIOR CHORUS

The Junior High Glee is a new organization of the music department this year. Its twenty-two members compose an enthusiastic chorus. The group has appeared at Parent-Teacher meetings, various churches and school functions during the year.

Eloise Groves is the accompanist and the chorus is directed by Mrs. Ferris Kirkpatrick.

The Junior Chorus is a new organization of the music department this year. The group is composed of twenty-two members made up for the most part of girls. At the start of the year there were several boys in the group but none of them seemed able to stand up under the class. That is, none of them except one. This one boy, Rocky Gill, stayed with the chorus the entire year.

Next year it is hoped that the Junior Chorus will be composed of a more nearly balanced group of boys and girls.

The Junior Chorus participated in many doings this year. They performed in the Christmas program, the spring concert, and the May Day program here at school, and in the Presbyterian and the Christian churches, and for a P.T.A. meeting outside of school.

The Junior Chorus was directed this year by Mrs. Kirkpatrick and their piano accompanist was Eloise Groves.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus and Glee Club have had quite an eventful year. They have enjoyed many successful performances.

Miss Barnum, director; Nancy Gleason, accompanist for the mixed chorus, and Joan Voegelein, accompanist for the girl's glee club, all deserve much praise for their hard work in the development of these two groups' musical abilities.

GIRL'S GLEE CLUB

The Girl's Glee Club is for the most part made up of freshmen and much is to be expected from this group in the years to come. Officers of the Girl's Glee Club for this year were: Denny Marvin, president, and Joan Voegelein, vice-president and librarian.

The combined chorus and glee club took part in the following programs: Christmas, Easter, spring concert, baccalaureate and commencement. The chorus also sang for May Day.

Warrior

ADVANCED SEXTET

The Advanced Sextet is made up of the following girls: Pauline Bazant, Joan Voegelien, Helen Crockett, Ramona Edwards, Judy Swanson, and Pearl Taber. These girls are all members from the mixed chorus and all are upper class girls except Ramona Edwards and Judy Swanson.

Helen Crockett, Pearl Taber, and Pauline Bazant are all seniors and so will not be able to continue in the sextet after this year.

Ramona Edwards became a member of the sextet in the first semester, filling the place of Maxine Rowton when Maxine had to leave.

The sextet has had the honor of singing on different occasions, including for the American Legion, for the School Masters, in the Christmas program, and in the spring concert. The accompanist for the sextet was Nancy Gleason.

FRESHMEN SEXTET

The Freshman Sextet was formed by members from the Girl's Glee Club. These girls were, Mary Catherine Reeves, Shirley Simons, Jean Russell, Sharlee Leech, Ernestine Fields, Nancy Trigg. These girls have done a grand job. Norma Wood was a regular number of the sextet but was sometimes substituted by Sharlee Leech.

The sextet performed for several outside activities as well as for the Easter, May Day, and Christmas programs at the high school.

Bond and Stamp Committee

With an initial nest egg of $250.00, the Bond and Stamp Committee has sold in excess of $33,678 (issue value) worth of bonds and stamps during the 1944-45 school year.

During the Sixth War Loan $18,378.00 in bonds and stamps were purchased, and the student body voted to buy nine field ambulances for the Pacific area with this money.

The goal set for the Seventh War Loan was $12,000.00, and as this goes to press the amount of purchases is $12,113.00.

The students of Lebanon High School are to be congratulated for their excellent record in stamp and bond purchases. The committee serving the students every Wednesday morning consists of Ruth Ford, Marian Pierce, Betty Irvine, and Mrs. Edith Smith.

Civil Air Patrol

C.A.P., organized December, 1941, has been an auxiliary branch of the United States Army Air Forces since April 1943. This unit of seventy boys and girls in Lebanon High School has been organized by Captain E. N. Brenner since March 1944.

Sergeant John Ball is the flight leader of the pre-flight class. Sergeant Lee Wood is in command of the advanced aeronautics. Sergeant Max Miller has command over the cadets of radio. Sergeant Ruth Kimble is flight leader for the all-girl unit. Sergeant Ball is also the drill master.

These cadets study meteorology, air navigation, air rules and regulations, military drill, and all pre-flight courses.

This squadron maintains a crash crew, communications unit, search and rescue squad, and a ski patrol.

During the year the squadron has enjoyed recreational as well as instructional meetings. Throughout the year they have enjoyed a Hallowe'en dance, Christmas dance, St. Patrick's Day dance, a skating party and a picnic. They also enjoyed a paper chase made by the sergeants in connection with air navigation. The boys enjoyed a week-end ski trip in connection with the Army and Lebanon Ski Patrol.

Fire Squad

The Fire Squad under the supervision of Mr. Brenner and Fire Chief Cedric Wallace has turned in an excellent piece of work handling fire drills. There is a squad member at each main door, fire extinguishers, two members at each hose, and several to check rooms to have windows closed, lights out, and doors closed.

At the beginning of the year all equipment was checked, so worn parts could be replaced. Fire extinguishers were refilled and broken loose for immediate use. Hoses were tried under pressure for breaks and recoiled for easy handling.

Fire drills have been under all kinds of conditions. Drills with no parts of the building blocked took one minute, five seconds. South entrance blocked off the drill was one minute, twenty seconds. One of the best drills was sounded during an assembly when all students and teachers were in the gymnasium. It took one minute, twenty-five seconds.

The state fire inspector and city fire chief praised the smooth co-ordination of the fire squad during a drill given for the inspectors. After the drill talks by both the inspector and chief were given to fire squad members on new equipment, ways of getting out of the building faster, and mainly safety first. Inspection of all the school buildings were made by inspectors to find out the fire hazards around the school.

After much delaying the G.A.A. finally got a start soon after mid-year. Its elected officers were, President Janet Whelan, Vice-President Clarnell Bryant, Secretary Betty Woody, and Treasurer Alma Smith.

Their first function was the sponsoring of a dance after the Sweet Home basketball game, which was very successful. Their pot luck supper, held in the home economics building, also turned out to be a sumptuous affair and was attend by a large portion of the G.A.A. members. The entertainment was afforded by couples doing individual performances. After the entertainment all retired to the kitchen and proceeded to clean up the dishes and straighten up the building.

The G.A.A. has ordered the letters and awards for deserving members and are looking forward to their arrival. They held a doughnut sale and earned part of the money to pay for the letters.

A girl has to earn 100 points before she can become a member and due to the inactivity of G.A.A. last year, many of the girls didn't have enough points this year, but they are all looking forward to being members in the coming year, and hoping to earn their awards then.

Hi-Light Staff

A well-organized staff, headed by Editor-in-chief Betty Southwick; assisted by Assistant Editor George Fowler, Business Manager Grace Whiteis, Assistant Business Manager Judy Swanson and an able staff of writers, issued the first copy of the Lebanon Hi-Light February 21, 1945.

Because of difficulty in obtaining an advisor at the beginning of the year, the paper was unable to go to press sooner. As a result, there were only eight issues.

This year the Lebanon Hi-Light has reached a thriving circulation of 1200. Into many parts of the world the Hi-Light has been sent at the request of ex-Lebanon High students now in the service. Our exchange has a far-reaching circulation also.

Many local businessmen are to be thanked for their part in sponsoring the paper. Also Mr. Van Loh, who by special arrangement, printed our paper.

As our advisor, Mr. Hickcox has led us through a very successful year. The entire staff has appreciated his cooperation and able leadership.

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club had a very successful year under the advisorship of Lawrence Page. The officers for the year were: Bob Olds, president; Larry Christian, vice-president; Norman Weekly, secretary; Kenneth Shores, treasurer, and Arthur Cobb, chaplain.

Activities of the year were started by the initiation of new members which raised the membership of the club to twenty-four.

During football season the club gave a dance to help revive depleted treasury funds.

The members either sent representatives or attended four conferences this year. A conference in Eugene, the Twenty-Fourth Conference of the Older Boys in Salem, a Youth Conference in Sweet Home, and a conference in Albany. This last conference supplemented the usual District Conference of Hi-Y which was not held this year.

On May 4 a talent show was presented to the public. This show consisted of a humorous skit "Coming Around the Mountain," a trio, a chorus of hairy-legged members and a small band on the order of Spike Jones with Dick Hobbs soloing on the trombone, Dick Hewett giving out with boogie woogie on the piano and Norman Weekly soloing on the clarinet.

The club took in new members at the end of the year so that it could get off to a faster start next year.

Home Ec. Club

The Home Economics Club enjoyed a very successful year under the able advisorship of our new instructor, Mrs. Parham.

The meetings were held during the noon hour, every two weeks. At the first meeting of the year the following officers were elected: Joan Voegelein, president;
Betty Southwick, vice-president; Wanda Nichols, secretary; Helen Crockett, treasurer;
Marjorie Kimble, historian; Joanne Warner, custodian, and Inez Powell accompanist.

The club had a very colorful style show this year including 81 girls, who made and modeled their clothes. The clothes were play suits, spring frocks, dressy dresses, school dresses and suits. After the show the home economics building had open house for the mothers so they might see the equipment and gain a better understanding of what their daughters are doing.

The annual initiation was held for the new members. There was a large group of new members initiated by effective candlelight. There will be only a few graduating seniors from the club this year.

After the spring concert the club served refreshments to members of the band and glee clubs.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club of Lebanon High School is composed of all those boys who have earned a varsity "L" in one of the three major sports. Although not too active this year, the club was instrumental in seeing that the new rooks learned how to act as first year students and were taught to respect certain traditions of Lebanon High. All new lettermen were initiated into the club at a spring meeting. The new initiates included the boys who earned their first letter during the following sport seasons: Baseball, 1944; football, 1944; basketball, 1944-45; baseball, 1945. A quite entertaining evening was held, at the expense of neophyte members, but the boys feel that they are now true-blue lettermen and are looking forward to next year when they can welcome other new lettermen.

Pep Club

The Pep Club was organized this year under the supervision of the advisor, Mrs. Morrison. At a meeting held at the first of the school year, the club elected the following officers: President, Norma Schliske; vice-president, Nadine Richards; secretary, Beverly Keebler; treasurer Carlyne Sorseth.

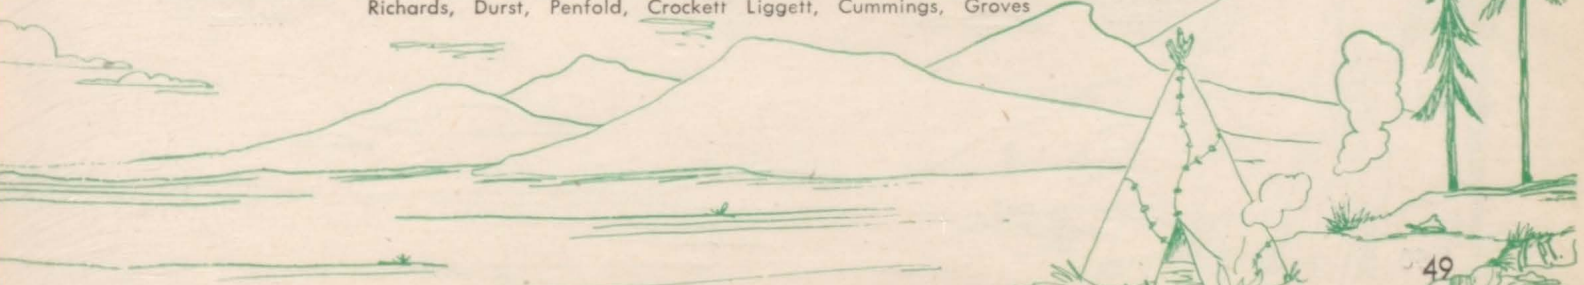

The club has been very active throughout the year. Its members, consisting entirely of girls, have promoted pep at all the athletic events by decorating goal posts, learning new yells, planning pep assemblies, and attending all home games.

The Pep Club was very fortunate to have four very capable yell leaders this year. These girls were present at all the games and did much to promote pep among the students. They also had charge of many of the pep assemblies. The yell leaders for this year were: Betty Irvine, Ruth Schneider, Jean Beach, and Helen Smyth.

Betty is a senior and has been a yell leader since her sophomore year. She was this year's yell queen and will be greatly missed next year. Jean, Helen, and Ruth are all juniors and will be here again next year.

Mayfair

Queen Betty II and her court ruled at the 1945 May Day festivities of Lebanon High held on May 11.

The events of the day began with a general assembly at which community singing and short stunts, presented by different high school classes and organizations, high-lighted the program. To complete the morning, at the close of the assembly there was dancing in the gym lasting until 12:00. This was climaxed with a picnic lunch held on the campus, the several classes providing luncheon items.

Coronation ceremonies were held at 1:30 in the afternoon with vocal and instrumental groups supporting the program.

A sports dance held in the evening was an appropriate end to a pleasant day's activities.

Girls' League Council

The Girl's League has completed many projects this year. Some of the most outstanding of them were:

A kid party at the first of the year, the purpose of which was to get better acquainted with the new girls.

Dances after the Sweet Home football, and Corvallis basketball games.

The Girl's Athletic Association was formed under the Girl's League leadership.

Mirrors were bought for the girl's basement, ten dollars donated to the tuberculosis fund, and thirty-five dollars given to the War Chest drive.

From each class two girls were selected as "Girl of the Month." Out of this group one was selected from each class to be "Girl of the Year."

The last meeting of the year was devoted to Girl's League installation, and the mother-daughter tea.

To sum it all up, the Girl's League was very active under the leadership of Mrs. Gehlert.

Ski Club

The Lebanon High School Ski Club was re-established on an active basis this year, after a lapse of some years. Because of wartime travel restrictions the club's activities were limited. The club did not make any ski trips as a body for the same reason of the travel restrictions. However, virtually every member of the group enjoyed the exhilaration of flying on the "boards" at least once this year. Albeit, everyone enjoyed the "swish" of waxed hickory gliding over soft "powder" as much as possible, the popular forte seemed to be "fireside skiing," born of wartime necessity.

The officers for the year were: President, Norman Weekly; vice-president, Ruth Ford; secretary, Beverly Keebler, and treasurer, Kenneth Shores. Under the capable leadership of these officers the club became one of the leading social organizations on the campus. The ski club sponsored one of the most successful sport dances of the year. They also conducted many popular private meetings to keep alive the "Oley, 'Oley-flop" spirit of the skier. In the face of many difficulties, the club has maintained a very high "esprit de corps."

Football

When the Lebanon grid team put their uniforms away after the last game in late November, they had completed one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school. Recognized as one of the top eight teams in the state, the Warriors piled up the impressive record of seven wins and one loss in the season's play. They scored a total of 106 points while the opponents made only 51. The local boys were victorious in their first seven games and as Northern Division champions in the Tri-County League they lost out to the southern champion, Cottage Grove, in a playoff game.

Led by a quartet of backs who could block, tackle and run, all with equal ability, and helped along by a heavy, powerful line, the Warriors just had too much power for opponents to overcome. The Lebanon gridsters used a power type of offense, with just enough trickery to keep the other team guessing. The biggest share of ball carrying was handled by Captain Bill Peden at fullback and Dave Powell at halfback. Bill was by far one of the outstanding fullbacks in the state and his ability to hit the line with the power of a locomotive, made him a very consistent ground gainer. Most of Bill's yardage was gained through center or inside tackle while Dave made his yardage outside tackle and on end runs. Dave proved to be a workhorse and he never knew when to stop driving. Both of these boys, by the way, were selected on the Tri-County All-Star team and were truly deserving of this award.

The two other backs for Lebanon included Jess Ingram at quarterback and Dean Ward at halfback. Jess proved to be an outstanding field general on the gridiron and this ability coupled with his savage blocking labeled him as an important cog in this grid machine. Jess has been selected as captain of the 1945 team and great things are expected from him next year. The other back, Dean Ward, carried the ball very little, but his consistent blocking cleared the way for many of Lebanon's touchdowns.

In the line, George Fowler, a mere lad of 235 pounds, held down the center position in great style and with the improvement he showed this year, he should prove to be an outstanding lineman next year.

The guard spots were filled by Art Cobb and Denny Marvin two boys who made the center of the Lebanon line as formidable as a stone wall. Art was after the fifth man in the opponents' backfield and if they got by Art, they were met by Denny who backed up the right side of the line and tackled for keeps.

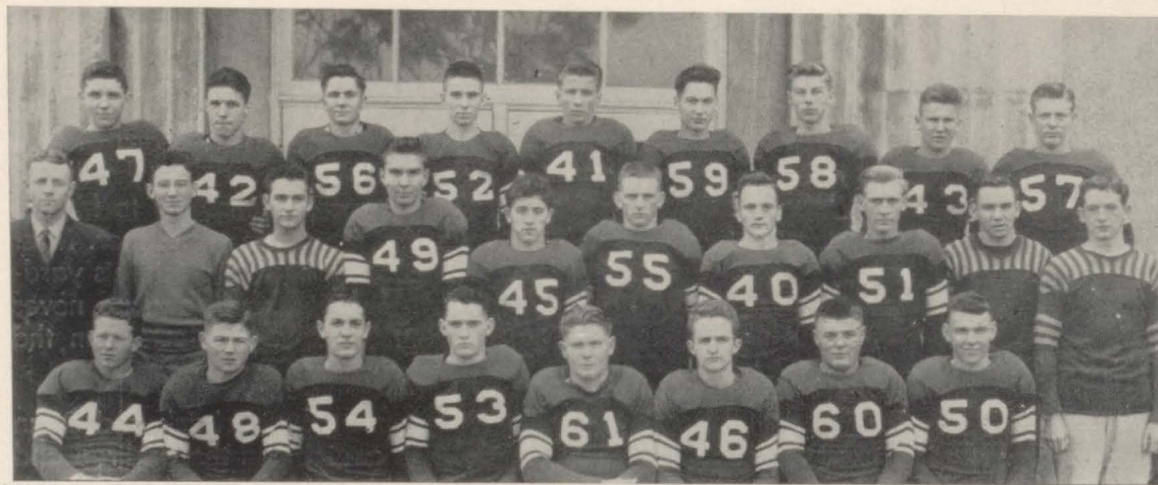

Tony Solberg and Paul McCracken held down the tackle positions and they were two of the best tackles in the league. Tony was playing his second year at tackle and very little yardage was made through his side of the line. Paul was playing his first year at tackle but he learned quickly and always made it tough for his opponents. The end positions were filled by Lynn Hamilton and Kenny Haughton. Both of these boys were tops, Lynn for his great defensive work and pass snaring ability and Kenny for his wonderful blocking and ability to clear the way for the backs to follow him. These two boys will be back again next year to heckle opposing teams.

The reserves came in for a great deal of attention too, and without them the success of the team would not have been so great. The following boys, besides the ones named above, earned the Lebanon "L": Don Brown, quarterback; Joe Elkins, halfback; Ron Cox, halfback; Don Ellis, fullback; Gay Baldwin, center; Bud Goold and Denny Canny, guards; Ross McCormick and Larry Christian, tackles; Stan Worland and Dick Hobbs, ends. Honorary letters were awarded to Dick Clarke, Richard Michelson and Ced Wallace who suffered injuries during the season and were unable to play. Manager's awards were given to Doug Smith and Bob Johnson.

The scores of the games for the 1944 season were as follows:

Lebanon 7 — Toledo 0
 Lebanon 13 — Springfield 6
 Lebanon 21 — Sweet Home 13
 Lebanon 13 — Dallas 6

Lebanon 27 — Junction City 0
 Lebanon 12 — Albany 0
 Lebanon 13 — University High 0
 Lebanon 0 — Cottage Grove 26

Baseball

The 1945 edition of the Lebanon High baseball team is one of the best that has been seen around here in recent years. At the time of this writing, although the Warriors still have five scheduled games to play, the team is undefeated, having won seven consecutive games.

A highlight of the season has been the superlative pitching of veteran Don Ellis, and Joe Elkins, ace Junior chucker. In the seven games played thus far this season, these two boys have permitted the opposing teams to gather only 16 hits. In one game against Junction City, which the locals won 17-0, Don and Joe combined their pitching efforts and hurled a no-hit, no-run game, an achievement rarely accomplished in baseball. A total of 85 opposing batters have gone down swinging at the curves and fast balls of Lebanon's two pitchers and this mark should go well over 100 before the completion of the season. Both boys are also heavy hitters and lead the Warriors in this department of the game. Although Lebanon's pitchers have done an excellent job on the mound, they have received wonderful support from their teammates both in the field and at bat. The snappy, vociferous infield has more than once helped the pitchers out of bad situations and their errorless playing has been largely responsible for the victories registered so far.

The veteran Art Cobb, behind the plate, has proven himself to be one of the best catchers in this district and his skill in handling the pitchers has been an important factor in the team's winning ways.

On first base, tall Lynn Hamilton is working like an old timer although this is his first year at the initial sack. His errorless playing afield and good hitting at bat marks him as a player who will bear watching in the future.

Ced Wallace, the talkative second baseman, is one of the most improved players on the team and his leadership in the infield keeps the boys constantly playing heads-up ball.

The third base duties are shared by two boys. Joe Elkins handles the hot corner while not on the mound, and when Joe makes a throw to first after scooping up a hot grounder, it always gets to Lynn's mitt with plenty of gusto. The other boy playing third is Willis Moody, a transfer from Newport. Willis is coming along nicely and has shown himself to be a capable replacement when Elkins takes the mound.

At short-stop, red-headed Jess Ingram struts his stuff and there is not a faster infielder in this district. Jess covers lots of ground from his position and has robbed many teams of sure hits because of this speed.

In the outfield, sophomore Paul Alley holds down the left field garden spot and due to his promising playing this year both in the field and at bat, he is labeled as a boy to watch in the next two years.

The center field spot is patrolled by Ray Ayers, a fast fielding, hard-hitting senior letterman. Ray has one of the strongest throwing arms seen on any fielder this year and very few teams try to get extra bases when Ray has the ball.

The right field job is handled by three boys—Don Ellis, Tony Solberg, and Dick Hewett. Because of his power at bat, Don plays in right field when not pitching, but when he is on the mound, the right field job is capably take care of by Tony and Joe. Both are equal in playing ability and although this is the first year of varsity baseball for both boys, they are doing a swell job.

Other boys who have seen action but are not necessarily starters as yet are Denny Canny, reserve catcher and outfielder; Ron Cox, reserve outfielder; Don Brown, reserve outfielder, and Elmer Fields, reserve infielder.

The Lebanon Warriors rank as one of the leading teams in the state and at the present time are on top in district play and should they finish the season in this position it will be the third district championship annexed by Coach Bud Page's boys this year.

The scores of games already played and the remaining season's schedule is as follows:

Lebanon 5 — Dallas 0
Lebanon 25 — Junction City 0
Lebanon 8 — Corvallis 2
Lebanon 3 — Corvallis 1
Lebanon 9 — Eugene 1
Lebanon 7 — Sweet Home 2

Lebanon 17 — Junction City 0
May 11 — Albany at Lebanon
May 15 — Dallas at Dallas
May 18 — Sweet Home at Lebanon
May 22 — Albany at Lebanon
May 25 — Eugene at Eugene

Basketball

The Lebanon Warriors carried on in basketball where they left off in football, and the hoopsters enjoyed as successful a season as did the gridsters who preceded them. The Lebanon team put a stop to the domination of the Corvallis Spartans as leaders in District 7, and the completion of district play found the local boys on top with the Spartans in second place. In the playoffs with Newberg, district 8 winners, the Warriors dropped two games 27 to 35 and 25 to 33 and were thus kept out of the state tournament.

Although the Lebanon team did not represent this district in the tournament at Salem, the boys did boast a record comparable to any team at Salem. The Warriors emerged victorious in 17 games out of a tough 24-game schedule, and scored a total of 884 points to 731 for the opponents. The red clad local team employed a fast breaking style of offense which proved to be both interesting and exciting to watch from the spectators' viewpoint, and the local gym was always filled to capacity for the many thrilling games played at home.

At the completion of the season, Coach Bud Page awarded the varsity "L" to 10 members of this championship ball club and each boy was, in his own right, an asset to the basketball team. Cedric Wallace, captain and forward, led his team brilliantly and his steadying influence was an important factor in the team's success. Ced was truly a fine captain and his always consistent type of play will be sorely missed next year. Teaming up with Ced at forward was high scoring Dave Powell. Dave was second high scorer on the team this year with 213 points and he culminated the season by being unanimously chosen on the District 7 All-Star team.

At center was sophomore Ron Cox, third high scorer on the team and an excellent backboard man. Ron made most of his points via his accurate left hand, and in future years Ron is expected to make quite a name for himself on the maple court.

Dean Ward, diminutive guard, played good ball throughout the season and despite his size he was one of the best defensive players in the league. His speed enabled him to check closely and his man found it difficult to get shots away.

At the other guard was Lebanon's high scorer, Lynn Hamilton, who scored a total of 227 points for the season. Lynn, captain-elect for next year, was the second boy to make the District 7 All-Star team and like Dave, his choice was also unanimous. Lynn's height enabled him to be an effective backboard man and great things are expected of Lynn in his senior year.

Kenny Houghton and Dick Hewett, reserve forwards, played outstanding ball throughout the season and both boys will be counted on heavily to carry the load next year.

Bill Peden, reserve center, proved to be a more than capable replacement and his ability to come through when the going was toughest made him a very valuable player on the team. The loss of Bill to the Air Corps at the close of the season crippled the team a great deal and with him in suit the chances for making the tournament at Salem would have been much better.

At the guard spots were two husky young reserves who knew their way around the maple court. Art Cobb and Gay Baldwin were both very effective men on the maple court. Art Cobb and Gay Baldwin were both very effective men on the backboard and their entrance into the game didn't hinder the team's winning ways at all. Two other boys who were on the "A" squad but failed to earn letters were Don Brown and Willis Moody.

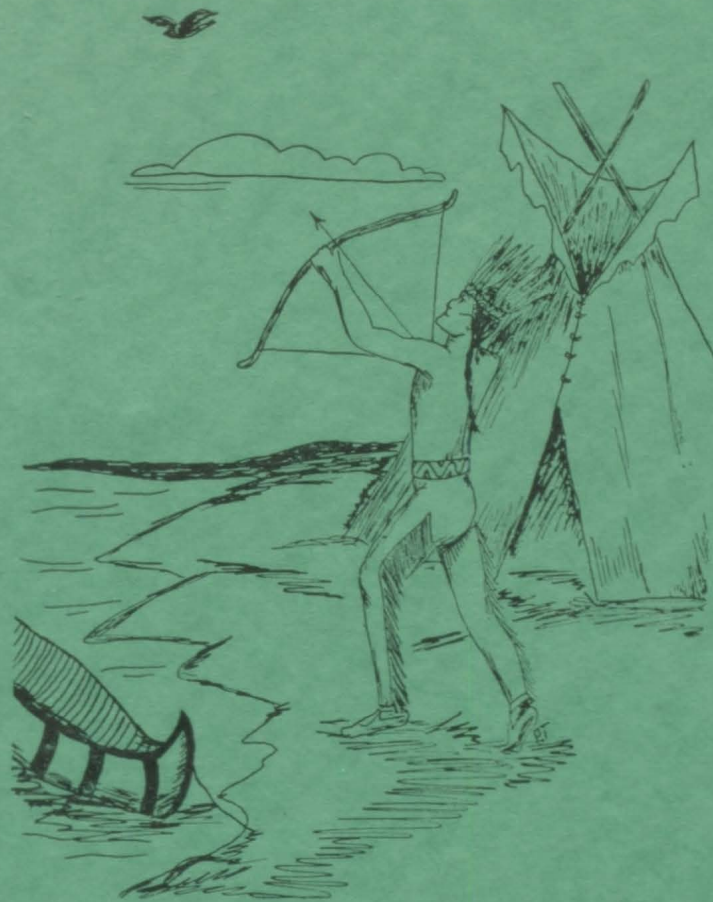

Bob Olds and Denny Marvin were the highly efficient managers and much thanks should go to them for their hard work. Bob was cheated out of a chance to play on the team this year because of a physical handicap, but he liked the game so much that he volunteered to be manager and did this job in a very commendable fashion.

The scores for the season were as follows:

Lebanon 39 — Chemawa 25
Lebanon 31 — Albany 23
Lebanon 19 — Prineville 14
Lebanon 32 — Corvallis 29
Lebanon 29 — Sweet Home 18
Lebanon 37 — University High 37
Lebanon 30 — Sweet Home 33

Lebanon 48 — University High 37
Lebanon 33 — Corvallis 16
Lebanon 37 — Junction City 38
Lebanon 31 — Albany 29
Lebanon 32 — Springfield 25
Lebanon 50 — Toledo 35
Lebanon 54 — Dallas 36
