With an optimistic grin and boundless enthusiasm, the Warrior staff hopes that your '48 Warrior will be cherished as a true souvenir and an accurate record of school activities during the school year of 1947-48. May it live up to all your expectations.

We wish to give a word of appreciation to the Hi-Light staff, teachers, and those students who have given willingly of their time and talents toward making this, your book, a success.

The officers of the Student Council are composed of the following student body officers: president, Martel Scroggin; vice president, Harry Drapela; secretary, Doris Neustel; treasurer, Irma Crockett.

This year's student council has been exceptionally active, bringing to the student body many new advances toward a better school system. One of the first of these steps was the edition of the student handbook, a new school code and free student body tickets for the faculty.

As the year progressed and the student council became more active, disposal cans were placed on both sides of the street to town for the purpose of eliminating rubbish from lunches. A bulletin board was placed where all important notices could be posted. Noon time dances were provided and a stage crew was organized for the purpose of preparing the stage for assemblies and general repair of the stage.

"MISS JIMMY"

"Good luck!"

"Thanks, same to you."

"Now, get those voices out so they hear everything in the back row!"

"Places for first act! — O.K. — Lights — Curtain!"

That's it — curtain is up on the 1948 Senior play, "Miss Jimmy." A big night for ten hardworking Senior class members and for a capacity audience.

February 26 was the date for this successful three-act comedy centered around a group of college girls attending Brier Mountain College for Women, who discover a proverbial "sofa snake" in their dormitory room one evening — a man! This brave young gentleman, in order not to be discovered in these sacred surroundings into which he was sent by fraternity brothers, takes on the disguise of a girl, hence the title of "Miss Jimmy."

Preparations for this annual event started six weeks before the proposed date of presentation with tryouts and casting. The turnout of girls for tryouts was wonderful, but the fellas must have been a little shy for their representation was comparatively small. After two days of reading this part and that part, the notice of the cast went up on the bulletin board reading as follows: Louise, Anne Swanson; Flo, Elizabeth Waddell; Doris, Irma Crockett; Kitty, Marjorie Kimble; Harriet, Velma Hinman; Droopy, Harry Drapela; Jimmy, J. T. Hamilton; Miss Watkins, Lucille Baertlein, and Professor Frazier, Dean Johnson. Then the real work started — five and a half weeks of nightly rehearsals. Reading, blocking, memorizing, painting, costuming, collecting furniture and hand props, and the many other duties which have to be done was the program in Room 9 and on the stage for six weeks during January and February. One of the rehearsal highlights took place a couple of Sundays before presentation when the cast held a potluck dinner in the Home Ec. building between the afternoon and evening rehearsals. The food which was brought out was fit for the opening night cast of the biggest production on Broadway.

This first dramatic experience for the class of '48 ended with the cries of "well done" and they were well deserved.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

"The glory is not in never failing, but in rising every time you fail."
— Chinese Proverb

September, 1936, the class of '48 began. Of the 150 Seniors, Mary K. Reeves, Elizabeth Waddell, Henriella Preever, Doris Neustel, Dorothy Neustel, Don Pierce, Lester Simons, Joanne Warner, Gib Scott, Pat Pierce, Jean Russell, Peggy Conner, Sid Bartels, Bob Weaver, Cecial Benschopf and Don Hostetler began their first year at Queen Anne school.

Again in September, 1944, we included a total of 180 greenhorns who went through the traditional initiation ceremonies. The class officers for that year were: president, Harold Fritz; vice president, Elizabeth Waddell; secretary, Pat Lutz; treasurer, Doris Neustel; representative, Stan Pesek; sergeant-at-arms, Bob Miles. We right away went forth with several outstanding musicians, leaders, and athletes.

With the officers, president, Bob Miles; vice president, Tom Juza; secretary, Colleen Rappe; treasurer, Martel Scroggin; to lead a class of 178 members, our Sophomore year was very successful. Members were active in music, sports, Girls' League, publications, cheer leading and Hi-Y.

School opened our Junior year under the advisory of Miss MacLean, Miss Dougherty and Mr. Rochester. Class officers were: president, Martel Scroggin; vice president, Bob Henkle; secretary, Doris Neustel; treasurer, Tom Juza; under the protection of sergeant-at-arms Dick Gallagher and Budd Barr.

This year, for the first time, we were represented on the annual staff by Associate Editor Tom Juza and Associate Business Manager Elizabeth Waddell.

The Prom, with its theme "Blue Moon" and Queen Norma Bodtke reigning over her court of six lovely princesses, Jean Russell, Mary K. Reeves, Nancy Trigg, Doris Neustel, Dorothy Neustel and Joanne Warner, was the climaxing event of our Junior year.

Several students, Lester Simons, Elizabeth Waddell, Mary K. Reeves, Jean Russell and Nancy Trigg received "1" ratings at the district music contest entitling them to go to Ellensburg, where Lester Simons received the only "1" rating.

On September 15, 1947, we were on the last lap in our high school education. Officers were: president, J. T. Hamilton; vice president, Bob Henkle; secretary, Orvillis Pepperling; treasurer, Sharlee Leach.

In sports Bob Henkle was chosen for the all-state football team and received a silver football for his selection on the tri-county all-star team.

Lester Simons and Harry Drapela received "1" and "2" ratings respectively at the district contest. Others contributed a large share to the band in helping it achieve a "1" rating at the state contest.

Eileen Norman was elected to represent L. U. H. S. at the annual Strawberry Fair.

Ruling May Day festivities was Queen Velma I and court, Nancy Trigg, Dona Nichols, Doris Neustel, Dorothy Neustel, Joanne Warner and Norma Bodtke.

Elizabeth Waddell, with the highest grade point average for her four high school years, was selected Valedictorian of the class of '48. Salutatorian Joyce Billings was second highest.

Representing the Senior class at the Hi-Y Sweetheart dance were princesses Doris Backman and Eileen Norman.

As the last outing for the class they went on a picnic to Neskowin, which will be remembered by all.

June 2, 1948, the auditorium, decorated in blue and gold iris, captivated the hearts of all of its seniors.

JUNIOR CLASS

GENE TANNER
President

Junior class officers for 1947-48 were: president, Gene Tanner; vice president, Alan Frum; secretary, Pat Cone, and treasurer, Mary Fenner. Faculty advisors: Miss Johnson, Miss Mitchell, Miss Dickens.

As everyone who has ever been a Junior knows, the Junior prom costs a considerable amount, usually taking all of the money in the treasury. This year in an effort to secure enough collateral, the junior class presented a play "June Mad," in which Joe Cox, Faye Bevan, Molly Hewett, Bill Hunt, Jack Haynes, Dick Haughton, Geraldine Fenner, Doris Groves, Dan Seits, Ben Johnson and Betty Frank very capably filled the roles, thus making up the complete cast. Due to a publicity-manager who took his work seriously, everyone in Lebanon was "June Mad" conscious. The play, under the direction of Miss Gloria Johnson was presented December 11, and was very successful.

Scheherazade was the theme chosen by the class for their prom. Molly Hewett, a small girl with a large determination, was named prom chairman. Molly really put in a lot of time and effort on the prom; everyone thought the product well worth the work.

Helen Jo Gilbert and Mary Ann Turner were chosen to represent the class as princesses at the Hi-Y Sweetheart Formal. Helen Jo was selected Hi-Y Sweetheart of the evening. Another member to be singled out for an honor was Jim Fryrear, who was chosen class clown for the G. A. A. carnival.

The Junior class was very fortunate in having such a large number of athletes in its ranks. Jim Fryrear, Don Hebert, Jerry Bartles, Dick Haughton, Wallace Campbell, Alan Frum, Joe Abbott, Claire Cotter, Jack Haynes, Les Wells, Bob Osterman, Jack Evans, Don McGourty and Gene Tanner received letters in football. Two of the group, Dick Haughton and Claire Cotter, were placed on the tri-county all-star team. For this they were presented a small silver football each.

This year's basketball team was composed of ten Juniors and three Seniors. The amount of returning basketball lettermen gives hope of a bright future for Lebanon. These promising lads are Don Hebert, Jim Fryrear, Bob Osterman, Bob Patterson, Jack Evans, Gene Tanner, Joe Abbott, Les Wells, Alan Frum and Jerry Bartles. A co-captainship was captured by a Junior, Gene Tanner, who filled this position very well.

Juniors Les Wells, Jack Evans, Stan Porter, Don Hebert, Harold Bates, Jerry Bartles, Monte Bean and Wallace Campbell comprise this year's baseball lettermen as far as the Junior class is concerned.

Lettermen of the track team are Joe Abbott, Jack Haynes, Jim Sollenburger and Don McGourty. Joe shows the most promise in pole vaulting, Jack's specialty being the "mile." Sollenburger's preference is the broad jump and McGourty throws the javelin.

Most prominent in the sport's world are those fellas who earn letters in two or more sports in one year. The whole school as well as the class is extremely proud of all their lettermen.

Another phase of sports in which the Juniors took an active part were the "B" squads. Due to this many more students received training that will help them next year.

Continual backing for these popular sports and the players was furnished by the Warriorettes, the high school Pep Club. All of the Warriorettes enjoyed cheering their teams on to victory after victory. Elizabeth Blazer, Jean Carlson, Joan Carlson, Pat Christian, Sally Davis, Dixie Fitzwater, Helen Jo Gilbert, Barbara Pearce, Barbara Olson, Jackie Simi, Ina Claire Wilson and Pat Cone are the 12 Junior Warriorettes. Pat Cone and Pat Christian, both Juniors, were yell leaders, both serving their first year.

Many of the students were very interested in the music department of our school. Not only do they take part in events planned for the group to which they belong; but also they often assist in putting on programs for various clubs and civic organizations.

MEMORABLE EVENTS...

SOPHOMORE CLASS

GENE BECK
President

One of L. U. H. S.'s most energetic classes, the Sophomore class, entered school in the fall with an enrollment of approximately 168 students. The class officers were elected as follows: president, Gene Beck; vice-president, Douglas Wilson; secretary, Elaine Guggisburg; treasurer, Mary Waddell, and Student Council representative, Dick Duncan. The very cooperative and helpful class advisors were Mrs. Stewart, Miss MacLean and Mr. Neuman.

A winter activity entered into by the largest percentage of the class with much gusto was a skating party at the Lebanon Roller Rink. Refreshments were provided, and everyone had a wonderful time.

A gay and joyous occasion, which helped to initiate the new cafeteria occurred when the Sophomores held a party there in April. Entertainment was provided in the form of dancing and games. The refreshments were coke and cookies. This party was one of the main attractions of the year, not only for the Sophomores, but for the guests they invited.

Funds were secured for the class throughout the year by the sale of hotdogs and coke in the halls during various noon hours. Also, sales were held at a few games and one after-game-dance was sponsored by the Sophomores which was one of the most successful of the year.

Members of the class participated in almost all of the various activities offered by the school. Six boys composed a hillbilly sextette and performed at several school activities. They were Dick Duncan, Leon Drapela, Ralph Miller, Jack Powell, Dick Brannon and Royce Howard. The class boasts other musicians also, including Mary Waddell, who played for the Freshman Glee Club, and Dolph Lundholm, cornetist. Another noted cornetist is Donna Lee Plymale, and class clarinetist is Effie York.

Several track stars were originated from the class this year. They are Mearyle Christensen, Lloyd Glaus, Dale Pracht, Dick Duncan and Ralph Miller. Dick Duncan also won second in the district for the discus throw. This victory entitled him to go to the state meet. All of the aforementioned fellows earned their letters this year by collecting ten points for the school at the various track meets held throughout the state.

Outstanding in the field of football were Dick Duncan and Don Anthony, who obtained letters this year. Dick will be a four year football letterman. Both saw a lot of gridiron action in this season's competition.

David Young and Robert Thompson have also come into possession of a coveted "L," but only after dispensing with the hard job of manager of the basketball team.

Last but not least in any means we come to baseball where we find one lone Sophomore letterman, Glenn Spence. Glenn played first base as a sub and also worked very hard coaching the base runners.

The Sophomore Class Assembly was a big event, with president Gene Beck as Master of Ceremonies. The Hill Billy Sextette rendered two numbers, and a solo was sung by Dreme Watkins. A skit presented by Jack Powell and Glenn Spence was another of the humorous attractions on the program.

A large number of the students were in the Advanced Chorus, with Leon Drapela as outstanding soloist. Other musical proteges were Elaine Guggisburg and Faye Parks, piano; Bonita Johnson, soloist; and three of the girls in the Junior Sextette. They were Eileen Postle, Elaine Guggisburg and Bonita Johnson.

The energetic newspaper writers of the class this year were Dee Miller and Dolores Hammett. Dee was Business Manager on the Hi-Light first term; and Dolores, through hard work, obtained her own column.

Many Sophomores participated in the local 4-H activities, and there won great honor and acclaim from their classmates.

FRESHMEN CLASS

WALLY DE KUYPER
President

As the freshman year of the class of '51 draws to a close, each member can look back on a happy year full of entertaining and varied activities throughout the whole nine months.

At the beginning of the first semester the class chose as their officers and representatives the following students: president, Wally De Kuyper; secretary, Beverly Canoy; treasurer, Sammy Gilbert; Student Council representative, Dick Chamberlain, and sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Ted Jaross.

To help make decisions and to give sound advice to a few more than a hundred and seventy young, eager people, were Miss Schifferer, Mrs. Greenough and Mr. Jaross.

To begin the social part of the year, and to get each student to feel at home and as if he belonged, a mixer party was put underway a few weeks after school opened. A class meeting was held a little while later, and the whole class decided on a skating party. It was held in the Lebanon Skating Rink, and everyone had a time that will be looked back upon as one of the outstanding events of the past year.

Each class, from Seniors to Eighth Graders, was given the responsibility of sponsoring and planning for an assembly. The Freshmen had as their theme "Club '51,'" a night club so called in honor of the year they will graduate from our beloved school.

A program of teaching dancing to all freshmen interested was established in the early part of the spring, and a semi-formal dance was held in the auditorium soon afterwards.

To bring the year to a happy conclusion a free-will picnic was held a day before school closed. The picnic was located at Avery Park in the vicinity of Corvallis, Oregon.

In the field of sports there was active participation from both the boys and girls. In basketball three boys, Rodney Bean, Bob Hinman and Wayne Holzfuss succeeded in belonging to the "B" squad, a privilege for any freshman. Also, many of the boys took part in the intramural basketball and baseball games.

The girls did well playing in Girls' intramural basketball, baseball and participating in the tumbling squad. The freshman girls in this were as follows: Phyllis Sprague, Rose Marie Durst and Phyllis Simmons.

The girls who were noted for their pep and energy, and who were chosen to help the Pep Club to represent our school at all football and basketball games and to give cheer to the fellows out there playing and fighting hard to win, were: Earletta Saxton, Ardith Benz, Mary Ann Herron, Marlene Shartel, Edris Lanning and Betty Ann Lindley.

In the band music field there were only two who mastered the art of some instrument playing. These two were Phyllis Sprague and Robert Christensen.

There were many girls and boys of the Freshman class who joined the Glee Clubs. They have done exceedingly well this year. The Freshman Sextet has really made themselves known, for they have sung publicly at several occasions. The girls in this group are: Kay Linn Ross, Arlene Conner, Peggy Graham, Dawn Neuschander, Jeanette Mingo and Johanna Smith. The advanced Glee Club, that has done so well in the past year, has several Freshmen members. They are: Darrell Carlson, Wally De Kuyper, Gene Keen, Bud Weaver and Bob Hinman.

The Girls' Glee Club, also under the capable guidance of Mrs. Price, has achieved much this past year. The freshmen in this group were: Kay Breeden, Margaret Perry, Ardeth Benz, Johanna Smith, Marlene Shartel, Earletta Saxton, Patty Jo Ruth and Rose Marie Durst. Each Glee Club has done very well, and each of these underclassmen, as time goes by, will keep this splendid tradition.

ROOKS

JIMMY JACOBSON
President

The Eighth Grade has had a successful year with the first class meeting being held for the election of officers. They were elected as follows: president, Jimmie Jacobson; vice president, Dean Beck; secretary, Johnny Stolsig; treasurer, May Louise McTimmonds; representative, Bob McCracken; and sergeant-at-arms, Wallace Mitchell.

Dues were collected and Christmas presents were bought for Mrs. Faller, Mr. Clark and Mr. Simons, the class advisors. They were presented in their classes by the purchasing committee.

At the G. A. A. Carnival the Eighth Grade sponsored a Fun House. A clown was selected from each class, and the one with the highest votes was to be crowned king. Howard Christensen of the eighth grade topped the votes and was presented with a gay tie and suspenders.

Yell leaders were chosen for the Basketball Tournament in which the Eighth Grade boys were to play. They were as follows: Carrel Byerley, Dorothy Frank, Virginia Godsy, Larry Moynihan and Dennis Olson. We would like to congratulate the yell leaders for their fine work and also the basketball team for the work they put out.

The Eighth Grade is very noticeable in the glee department as there are a large number in the glee class; they can also boast of a fine sextet.

Already we see members of the Eighth Grade in the band which were a great help to the band in receiving their fine rating at the contest.

The Eighth Grade put on an assembly with Jimmie Jacobson acting as master of ceremonies. The program began with the eighth grade sextet singing "Now Is the Hour" and then a humorous play by Bob McCracken was presented by Larry Moynihan as Grandma Murray and Jerry Hamilton, Dean Beck and Wayne Klavano as announcers. Barbara Gamberg played a piano solo, "Jealousy," followed by Richard Osburn singing "That's My Desire." The band then offered a couple of numbers and then a quiz show followed with Dean Beck and Ernie Kirkelie and Bob McCracken as master of ceremonies with jolly little lollypops as prizes. Last but not least that girl straight from Hawaii, Johnnie Stolsig, dashed through chased by Roy Wilber with a lawn mower.

At the Eighth Grade assembly we found that the Eighth Grade is hiding a lot of talent. We're hoping to see more of it in the future years.

The first two parties were skating parties, which were enjoyed by everyone.

The big event of the year was the class party held in April. A king and queen were chosen with the lucky winners being Virginia Godsy and Jerry Hamilton. They were crowned by master of ceremonies Bob McCracken. A box of candy was awarded to Dorothy Frank and Jimmy Whitmore as being the best dancers. Also Mrs. Faller was presented with a farewell gift.

The Eighth Graders are looking forward to more years as successful as this one.

BAND

Lebanon's high school band, which has been under the direction of Vinton Snyder for the past two years, has now grown to the present concert group of 58 members. Pictured above is the regular group along with several preparatory band members who will take regular chairs in next year's band.

The band has played at football and basketball games, and combination concerts with the vocal choruses have been given, during the past year.

The band was given favorable comment at the festival program in Corvallis, which was held March 5, and took part in the sub-district contest at Springfield April 24.

Officers for the year were: President, Lester Simons, and student director, Harry Drapela.

The band appeared in full new uniforms for both the Spring Concert and the Strawberry Fair.

SENIOR SEXTET

Lebanon High School's Senior Sextet for the year of 1947-1948 was composed of the following students: Peggy Black and Orvillis Pepperling, who were the sopranos; Dorothy Neustel and Anne Swanson, second sopranos; and Doris Neustel and Lorene Rowton who sang the alto parts. Inez Powell served as their pianist. The sextet was under the direction of Mrs. Helen Price, the vocal music director at Lebanon High School.

The sextet was more active this year than ever before and some of their first appearances during the year were at the Lions Club, school assemblies, and the Oregon State Mothers' Club at the Presbyterian Church. They also sang for the "Teen-Canteen" and the Townsend Club. The group participated in all three of the concerts given by the Vocal music department, and also in the combined Band and Chorus concert of April 20, which was one of their final appearances. They were featured entertainers at the Senior Class play "Miss Jimmy."

The highlight of the year for the girls in the Senior Sextet was the State Contest which was held at Dallas April 10. They competed against sextets from other schools in Oregon. The numbers the group sang at the contest were "Ave Maria" and the Negro spiritual "Nobody Knows De Trouble I've Seen." The sextet received a rating of "2," which was classed as "excellent."

MIXED CHORUS

ELIZABETH WADDELL
President

With the pleasure of last spring's contest "1" rating fresh in their minds, the members of the Mixed Chorus started another year of entertaining Lebanon with song.

Officers for the 1947-48 Mixed Chorus were as follows: president, Elizabeth Waddell; vice president, Dave Canaga; secretary, Mary Waddell, and treasurer, Royce Howard.

Composed of approximately eighty students, forty girls and forty boys, this group of carolers was extremely active during the year. The group, directed by hard-working Mrs. Heien Price, has turned out a number of notable performances this year, including three concerts, an operetta, and special programs, besides attending a music festival and several contests. Elizabeth Waddell at the piano has done a fine job of accompanying.

Performing before a large crowd, the Mixed Chorus presented its first concert of the year November 20 in the high school auditorium.

To end a successful year, the chorus gave its annual Spring Concert and sang at graduation with the 26 Senior members joining the ranks for one last sing.

Reeves, Russell, Trigg, E. Waddell.

SENIOR GIRLS' TRIO

The Girls' Trio composed of Nancy Mae Trigg, Mary Kay Reeves and Jean Adell Russell have just completed their fourth year of singing together. The trio was formed at the beginning of their freshman year in 1944. Since that year the girls have sung for nearly every organization in Lebanon, including the Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, P. T. A., Ladies Guild, Eastern Star and many others.

The trio entered the state contest in their Sophomore, Junior and Senior years, receiving a II (excellent) in their sophomore year, a I (superior) in their Junior year, and a II in their Senior year.

They have been very fortunate to have as their accompanist for all four years, Elizabeth Waddell.

We feel the Senior Girls' Trio has had four very successful high school years.

B. Johnson, Erickson, Guggisberg, Postle, Strange, Sommers.

JUNIOR SEXTET

The Junior Sextet was organized the first week in October. After extensive tryouts the following girls were chosen: first sopranos, Bonita Johnson and Carrie Joy Erickson; second sopranos, Elaine Guggisberg and Ilene Postle; altos, Betty Sommers and Norma Strange.

Their first appearance was at the Lions Club where the girls sang "Old Fashioned Garden" and "Softly, As in a Morning Sunrise."

The next performances were at the fall music concert and annual Christmas concert. In February the group entertained the American Legion, singing "Girl of My Dreams" and "Moonglow."

After many months of hard work on their best numbers, the girls went to the State Music Contest in Dallas on April 10. The sextet, accompanied by Elizabeth Waddell, sang "The Dream Seller" by Markham Lee and "Musie When Soft Voices Die" by Kramer. To their great delight the judges awarded them a superior, or I rating. One of these numbers, "The Dream Seller," is a long and difficult piece which the girls sang unaccompanied, showing the results of long months of practice in the purity of tone and pitch they have attained.

Mary Waddell has been the regular accompanist for the group, but because of a broken finger she was not able to accompany them at the state contest.

Three members of this sextet, Carrie Joy Erickson, Bonita Johnson and Norma Strange, also entered the solo division at the state contest, all getting a II, or excellent rating. The judge was very encouraging to these girls and they expect to return to the contest next year and come home with a perfect score of I's.

Neuschwander, Doggett, Lewis, Daily, McTimmonds, Osburn.

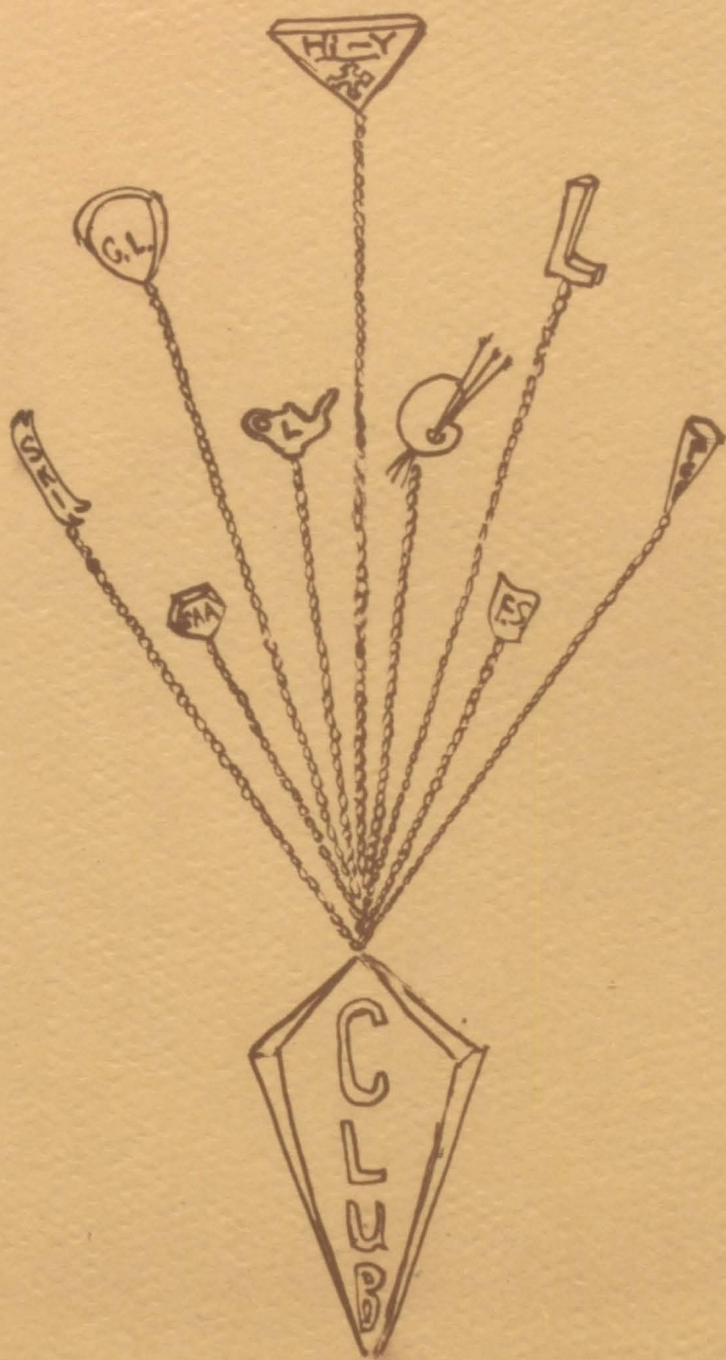

EIGHTH GRADE SEXTET

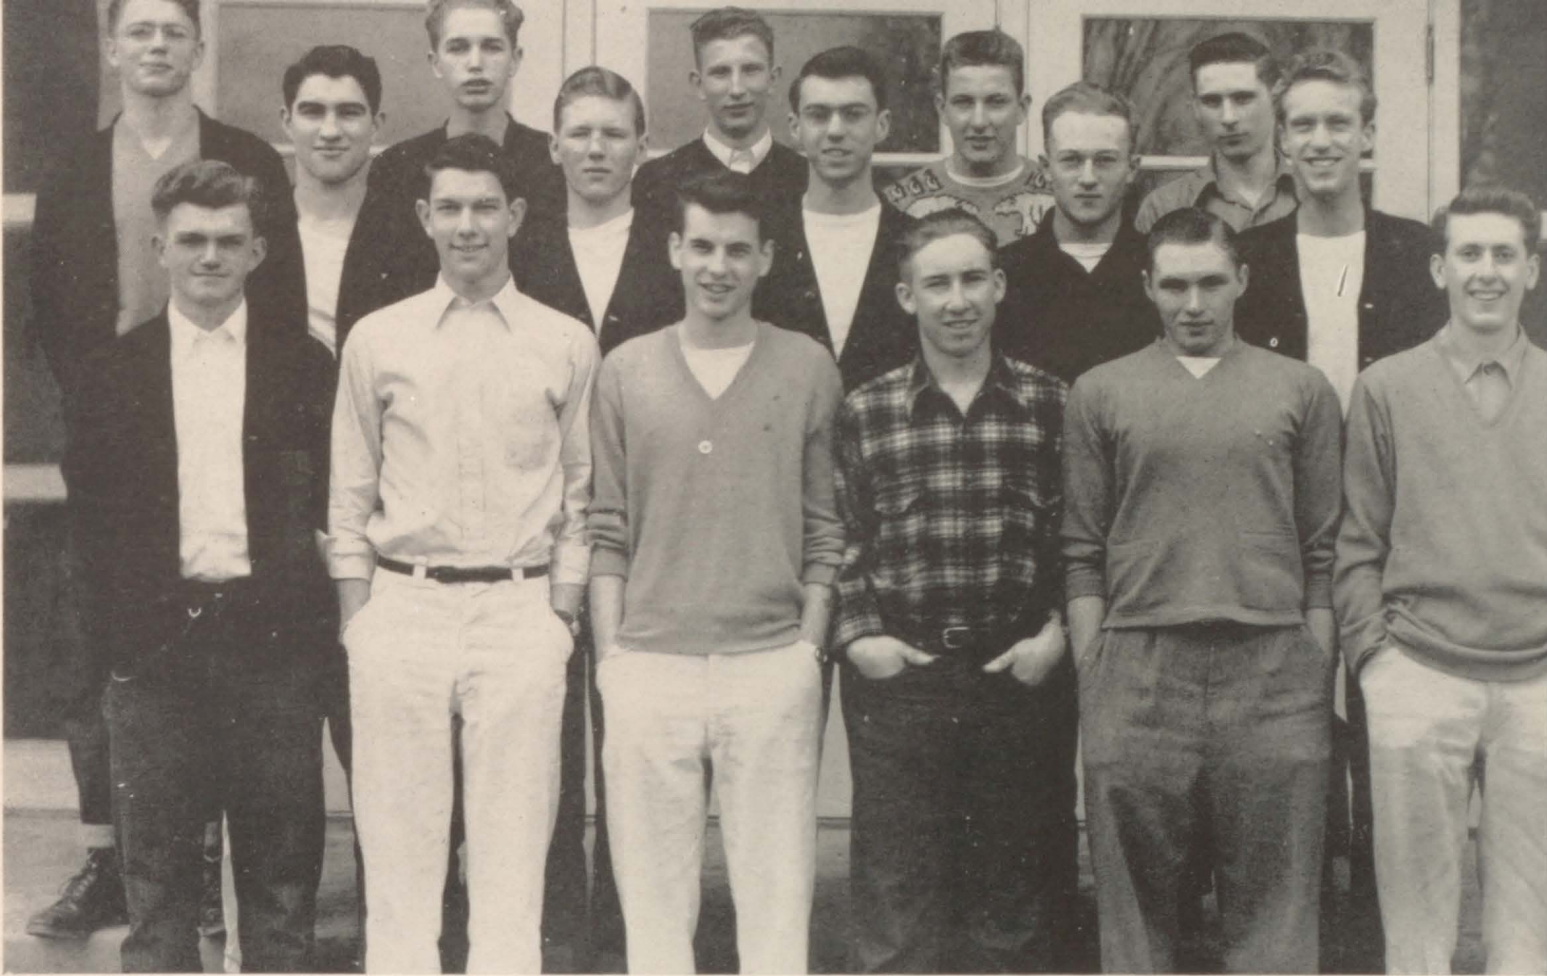

The eighth grade sextet, although newly organized this year, was very active. It is composed of Ilene Daily and Donna Lewis as sopranos, Betty Doggett and Dixon Neuschwander as second sopranos, and Mae Louise McTimmonds and Richie Osburn as altos. They were accompanied by Joella Shields and Elizabeth Waddell, and were under the patient and careful direction of Mrs. Helen Price.

A "1" was received at the state contest in Dallas by the sextet, which made them very happy and turned their faces to smiles. At the contest they sang "Slumber Boat" and "I Hear America Singing." Like the others, they practiced their songs on the bus before arriving and all the bus driver could hear was a noisy bunch of songsters singing their way to Dallas. You can imagine how much fun it was! It was grand experience for all.

Their first performance was at the High School Christmas concert which was at night. The girls wore formals and the boys white shirts and dress slacks. The song they sang was "We Three Kings of Orient Are." Then at the Lions Club they sang "Too Fat Polka" and "The Freedom Train." The selections chosen to sing at the Schuler sisters' home was "Now Is the Hour" and "Four Leaf Clover." As soon as they finished singing Martha gave them a treat of angel food cake, which they enjoyed. "Apple Blossom Wedding" and "The Freedom Train" was sung at the V. F. W. hall between movies. Then at their own Eighth Grade Assembly they once again sang that popular song "Now Is the Hour." The last appearance was at the Spring Concert, where they sang "Slumber Boat."

MARTEL SCROGGIN
 Fire Chief

The Fire Squad of 1947-48 has been very active throughout the year, not only in fire drills, but in school activities as well. Selling cokes and ice cream bars at the games has proved very profitable for the club.

The money received from the sales goes toward getting pins for the Senior members of the squad, and only the Seniors who entered the squad last year as Juniors were qualified for the pins, thus taking two years to earn a pin.

Under the guidance and supervision of faculty advisor, Ted Jaross, the five returning squad members from last year plus new recruits of 14 boys, have manned the drills this year. No member is eligible to hold a position unless he has a grade average of "3" or better.

Martel Scroggin has proved to be a most efficient fire chief with assistant fire chief Harry Drapela assisting whenever necessary.

Fire drills are held monthly throughout the school year. At no time does any fire squad member know when these drills are to be held, with the exception of the fire chief, thus insuring a quick-acting organization. Although the blocking off of the south stairs by construction has hampered fire drills somewhat, they have remained quick and efficient, due to the issuing and following of special instructions to route all students on the second floor down the north stairs.

G. A. A.

LEONA DUNCAN
 President

A very thriving and successful year has past for the 30 girls enrolled in G. A. A. this year.

The end of last year, a meeting was held to elect the new officers for this year. Elected to the presidency was Leona Duncan; vice president, Betty Canoy; secretary, Jean Carlson; treasurer, Betty Frank, and sportsmanager, Lillian Hills. Assistant sportsmanagers were appointed to their office at a meeting the first of this year as follows: volleyball, Henriella Preever; basketball, Jerry Woody; tennis, Doris Groves; ping pong, Barbara Pearce; tumbling, Jo Woody; badminton, Mary Ann Herron; hiking, swimming, horseback riding, Lillian Plagman; and skating, biking and bowling, Barbara Smith. Next year another office will be added to the council, that of Club Reporter.

Ten points were earned from any tournament played throughout the year. Fifty points are required for membership into the club, and when 150 points are earned the G. A. A. sweater and large "L" may be purchased. Also next year the eighth grade girls may work toward earning points and become a member in their Freshman year.

A Tumbling Squad was organized this year from all four grades. About 12 girls participated. During intermissions at the games, the Tumbling Squad entertained the crowds and furnished an exciting fete for a few of the assemblies.

The G. A. A. is under faculty advisor, Mrs. Schaink.

LIBRARY CLUB

NORMA BODTKE
 President

There are 19 members in the library club this year. Officers of the club are Norma Bodtke, president; Dixie Lee Fitzwater, vice-president; Pat Christian, secretary, and Marjorie Smith, treasurer.

Library assistants are chosen by Mrs. Burns at the beginning of the year. They are chosen from girls who have been recommended by two teachers for their dependability, intelligence and efficiency. A pleasing personality is also essential to an assistant. Out of these assistants the Library Club is composed. The purpose of the club is to learn the fundamentals of librarianship.

The efficiency of the library depends upon the library assistants and the way they carry out their various duties, which are assigned at the beginning of the year by the advisor, Mrs. Burns. Helen Canaga and Norma Wood take care of overdue books and fines; Marjorie Smith and Elsie Jean McTimmonds have charge of the mail and periodical files. Rita Brown manages the magazine room, in which all out-of-date magazines are kept for reference. Mary Long keeps all circulation data (the number of books that are checked from the library each day and the classification of each.) Leona Duncan, Florence Shrouder, Betty Alley, Pat Christian, Donna Sturgis and Betty Canoy are the typists. They make catalog cards, accession and prepare books, type orders and letters. Norma Bodtke, Dixie Lee Fitzwater, Mary Smith, Shirley Judd, Joyce Billings, Marjorie Sylvester and Bobbie Ames take care of library housekeeping.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

BOB MILES
 President

Continuing the tradition of good sportsmanship, the Lettermen's Club accomplished the same high ideals in this year of 1947-48 as of the clubs which have proceeded in the past years.

This year's officers consisted of: president, Bob Miles; vice president, Gene Tanner; secretary-treasurer, Bob Osterman, and sergeant-at-arms, Bob Henkle.

Although not participating in the social circles of Lebanon High, the Lettermen's Club proved to be popular. The year proved to be lacking in the stamina that has always prevailed through the Lettermen, but never did the Lettermen lose the spirit that makes better men and better citizens.

Not supporting many new members, the Lettermen welcomed any new athlete who proved himself eligible by earning the coveted "L" of Lebanon High.

Whether active or not, it means a great deal to a boy to be able to say that he is a member of the Lettermen's Club.

Not only does it signify that the boy was a letterman, but also that he has played on a team. Whether a winning or losing team, he has learned to work with other boys as a team — whether it be football, basketball, baseball, or track. Only through co-operation and the will to win as a team, can winning teams be made. When he has learned this, then he has taken the first step into his career, whatever his career may be.

As long as boys play and work together, for the good of all concerned, there shall never be a "bad boy."

TRADE AND INDUSTRY

GORDON HAYNES
 President

The Trades and Industries class, better known as the T & I, has been one of the active clubs of this year. The T & I class is made up of high school students that go to school in the morning and work in the afternoon. In this class you will find many businesses represented.

In class the students work in their prospective fields and learn through books as well as by experience. Some of the girls working, and the places they work, are: Sharlee Leech, Gilson's Hardware; Kathleen Cruise, Lebanon Paint Store; Bonnie Leach, Linn County Telephone Company; Peggy Connor, The Lebanon Express; Doris Neustel, Britton's Department Store; Elva Stone, The Smart Shop. The boys in the class that are learning a trade are: Gordon Haynes and Bob Richards, Safeway; Lowell Preston, Irish & Warner; Bob White, Knowles & Johnson; Charles Arnold, Santiam Foundry; Bill Hobbs, Hobbs Machine Works; Kenneth Schenck, working to be a carpenter with his father; Kenneth Alkio, Lebanon Laundry.

Their employer banquet was held in the school's new cafeteria March 23. T. & I. President Gordon Haynes introduced the club members, who in turn introduced their employers. Then Dr. Maser from O. S. C., the speaker of the evening, talked on students' interests and how they would help a student choose a vocation in later years after graduation. Following Dr. Maser, Mr. Nilsen, state director of apprenticeship, was introduced, and in turn presented certificates of completion to John Speasl, Laddie Pesek, Vernon Bahrke, Forrest Baker, John Gwin up, William Moore and Ralph Myler.

LATIN CLUB

DICK GALLAGHER
 President

This has been the Latin Club's second successful year in Lebanon. It has grown from a membership of 26 to its present enrollment of 42. Until this year Latin I had been taught only on alternate years. It was through the petitioning of the students that permitted both Latin I and Latin II to be taught during this year.

Under the leadership of Mr. Neuman, the club has been as active, if not more so, than any other similar organization in the state. Students sold cokes at the Corvallis and Sweet Home basketball games, handled after-game dances, and have sponsored other school activities. The Bingo concession which the Latin Club sponsored in the G. A. A. Carnival was enjoyed by all.

Officers for 1947-48 were as follows: president, Dick Gallagher; vice president, Joella Shields; secretary-treasurer, Doris Groves; social chairmen, Molly Hewett, Marjorie Kimble, Mary Waddell and Joe Cox; student council representative, Mary Kathryn Reeves.

The charter members of the Club in Latin II received their pins last year. Latin I students will receive their pins at the beginning of their third semester providing that they have a minimum grade point average of a three for the first two semesters of Latin; and-or, that they meet the standards of the Standardized Latin Comprehension Test.

LEBONSKI CLUB

DON PIERCE
 President

The Lebonski Club under the capable leadership of Mr. Clark and Mrs. Stewart, enjoyed a year of entertaining exploits, consisting of making trips weekly to the Hoo-Doo Bowl, and other points of interest, to develop and display their talents. Other exploits of the organization in addition to skiing were sponsoring dances that always follows the season's different sports. All activities happening away from school needing transportation were always cordially aided by the School Bus Line.

Ski Club officers are as follows: president, Don Pierce; vice president, Jim Fryrear; secretary, Jean Russell, and treasurer, Mary K. Reeves.

The club was organized five years ago, and each year has regularly acquired a considerable growth. This year it has grown 16.667 percent over last year's record membership of fifty members.

The Lebonski Club now has an official emblem created, and distributed only recently in the last year. It is on a blue background with a Warrior (in honor of Lebanon High School's nickname) doing very fine on a pair of skis. The emblems are to be worn by all the members on sweaters, which will give a very fine impression, and will aid each member in being recognized as such.

Financially the Lebonski Club has broken about even.

PALETEER'S CLUB

JANE SLOCUM
 President

The Paleteers' Club started an active year under the following officers: president, Jane Slocum; vice president, Ken Gallagher; secretary, Gloria Logan; treasurer, Janice King; business manager, Norma Bodtke, and representative to the student council, Jean Carlson. The club was helped throughout the year by a very able advisor, Miss Lovedy Burkholder.

The first event of the year was an initiation party given for the new members by the old members. The party consisted of games, dancing, and refreshments. This initiation brought the number of club members to 37.

Other winter activities of the club were many profitable ice cream sales and a Valentine Dance after one of the basketball games.

One of the biggest events of the year was the trip to Meier & Frank in Portland to witness the large Scholastic Art Exhibit. Many Lebanon High art students entered the contest and this fact made the exhibit all the more interesting for the members that attended the exhibit. During this trip the members also visited the Portland Art Museum and the State Capitol in Salem. This trip was a lot of fun and very interesting.

The Paleteers' Club sponsored a dart booth in the G. A. A. Carnival which was one of the most popular there. Also, there were many members that not only decorated the Paleteers' Club booth but helped in decorating other booths.

Throughout the year the Paleteers' Club has helped other organizations by making posters and other art work for entertainment purposes. They also have done stage decoration for plays and other stage activities.

VISUAL AIDES

DICK GALLAGHER
 President

The Visual Aides Club has proven to be one of the most active organizations in school. They are charged with the task of presenting movies to various classes and the school as a whole. With the help of their capable advisor, Mr. Dodds, the Visual Aides have proved invaluable in showing pictures for teachers who may order them.

Boys who are elected into the club must realize the responsibility they have in caring for the expensive sound equipment. Members are also under obligation to be on hand whenever it is their turn to operate any of the equipment.

At the beginning of the year three new members were elected into the organization to take the place of graduated members. They were, Kenneth Galagher, Lyle Foltz and Gary Maggee. However it was decided that more operators would be needed so Jerry Bartels, Marshall Swink, Stan Porter and Duane Bovee were accepted as members. This raised the total membership to 13 boys.

Dick Gallagher was elected president by the members at the first of the year. He is assigned with the duty of making noon movie schedules and seeing that new members are taught how to use the machinery.

An average of 12 movies a month have been shown. Health classes, World History and the science classes accounted for the largest number of movies shown.

A schedule of noon movies were arranged for every Wednesday to be shown in the gym, these same movies being shown the preceding Tuesday at Queen Anne School. An admission fee of ten cents was charged. Several full-length movies were shown.

GIRLS' LEAGUE COUNCIL

NANCY TRIGG
 President

The Girls' League is an organization in which the interests and needs of the girls determine its form, its purpose and its activities. It represents the girls as a corporate group.

The basis of membership is quite different from that of the clubs which one may or may not join, depending upon one's personal wish or interest. The league aims to give every girl a sense of "belonging," with a resulting sense of some degree of security.

This year's organization of outstanding girls had one of the most successful years of any club in school. The officers consisted of: president, Nancy Trigg; vice president, Doris Groves; secretary, Betty Schackman; treasurer, Helen Jo Gilbert; big sister chairman, Doris Neustel; and social chairman, Jean Russell. Representatives were as follows: Senior class, Orvillis Pepperling, Doris Backman and Marjorie Kimble; Juniors, Barbara Pearce, Pat Christian and Dorothy Campbell; Sophomores, Gloria Logan, Jane Slocum and Maxine Alley; Freshman, Mary Ann Herron.

The play "Little Women" made it possible for the Girls' League to sponsor a scholarship to a worthy senior who would be self-supporting in college.

November 8, Mrs. Greame and Nancy Trigg attended a conference at Salem, consisting of the presidents and advisors of the Girls' League from a number of schools. They planned a state conference, held on April 17, in which 57 schools took part. The theme of the conference was "Little Women" which Lebanon was responsible for naming. Delegates were Mrs. Greame, Nancy Trigg, Barbara Pearce and Pat Christian.

HI-Y CLUB

HAROLD FRITZ
 President

The Hi-Y has had many outstanding activities this year. Heading the list was their annual Sweetheart Formal, with Queen Helen Jo Gilbert reigning. This annual function is only in its third year and has become an intrinsic part of school.

Another highlight of the year was having a senator, Dick Gallagher, go to the state capitol and help conduct student government in the Hi-Y legislature. Next year the president of the senate will be chosen from our district.

The boy-girl relations group has solved some of the major problems of our school. The group consisted of the Hi-Y members and a chosen group from the Girls' League.

Other features were the noon dances (nickel hop), and a spring picnic held May 23 at Suttle Lake. Their basketball throw was one of the most successful concessions at the G. A. A. Carnival.

Officers of the club were: president, Harold Fritz; vice president, Bob Miles; secretary, Lester Simons; treasurer, Stan Pesek; under competent visorship of "Bud" Page.

In April 19 new members were voted into the club. They were as follows: Bill McKinney, Johnny Jacobson, Jim Fryrear, Dick Duncan, Lyle Foltz, Leon Drapela, Ronnie Frum, Fred McCowan, Ralph Miller, Don Baker, Jack Powell, Ralph Voss, Don Hebert, Jack Haynes, K. Hoseid, Royce Howard, Glenn Starnes, Stan Porter and Monty Horton.

Officers for next year are: president, Alan Frum; vice president, Bob Osterman; secretary, Jack Ayres; treasurer, Joe Abbott.

Hi-Y motto is: To create and maintain high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community.

OFFICE GIRLS

The office force this year is made up of a group of 15 Senior girls. Credit is given for office work which is not so easily acquired as might be expected. The girls are busy with such jobs as collecting the absence slips from each room in the building, answering the telephone, waiting on the public, calling students out of rooms, helping keep the attendance records, distributing the announcements, mimeographing, dittoing, typing, running errands, and doing other odd jobs in aiding Mr. Cash's secretary, Miss Louella Hackett.

The girls with some typing experience or stenographic experience are those who are usually chosen to work in the office. They are as follows: Norma Wood and Joanne Warner, first period; Dorothy Neustel and Coleen Rappe, second period; Inez Powell and Donna Heyne, third period; Luella Baertlein, Nancy Trigg and Mary Kathryn Reeves, fourth period; Shirley Simmons and Jeanette Baird, fifth period; Velma Hinman and Doris Backman, sixth period, and Betty Canoy and Orvillis Pepperling, seventh period.

Such work as filing and typing, and learning to meet the public gives the girls genuine office experience, which will be very valuable to them if they intend to continue to work in offices or be a secretary. The girls strive for efficiency, which will be a great asset as a secretary in somebody's office.

DRAMATIS PERSONAE

ANN SWANSON
 President

First of its kind for Lebanon Union High, this club was organized about the middle of the second semester under the direction of Miss Gloria Johnson. It is an honorary organization rather than social. There were approximately 30 students present at the first meeting when the name was chosen; the constitution, which was drawn up by Miss Johnson, was adopted, and the officers were elected. Officers for the remainder of the year were as follows: director, Anne Swanson; stage manager, Dick Haughton; scribe, Betty Canoy, and business manager, Stan Pesek.

Specific requirements for membership are enumerated in the constitution, some of which are: that you must have appeared in a public presentation, or be in one of the speech and drama classes with a grade average of a two, or worked on the production staff of a public presentation and show a definite interest in the field of drama.

A membership card is issued each member on payment of dues which are one dollar for initiation fee and fifty cents per semester.

Initiation into the club is held twice a year — four weeks following the beginning of the first semester, and two weeks following the beginning of the second semester. Election of officers for the following year is held in May.

The first project of the club was the holding of Open House on May 12 in the Little Theatre. The club is very proud of the new addition and showed it off in fine style. A future project will be a "Drama Night" when a series of one-act plays will be presented by the speech and drama classes and the club.

HI-LIGHT

DICK GALLAGHER
 Editor

Returning to the home of the Warrior after an absence of a year, the Hi-Light once more made its debut in our school.

Published bi-weekly, the day was just not complete without reading the paper. First students would turn to the gossip column. Now how did they ever know you were out with Suzy Jones? Someone must have talked too much. The Hi-Light carried news of all school events and lent a helping hand through its publicity department to the Senior play, Junior play, Operetta and other school activities.

PEGGY BLACK
 Editor

Though the staff was rather green, under the advisorship of Mr. Hickcox we were soon publishing a paper to rival any in the state.

With a staff of hard working students which included, for the first term: editor, Peggy Black; associate editor, Dick Gallagher; business manager, Delores Miller, and associate business manager, Dean Johnson. Second term the staff was: editor, Dick Gallagher; associate editor, Dixie Lee Fitzwater; business manager, Dean Johnson; associate business manager, Pat Cone.

VOCATIONAL MACHINE SHOP

PAUL NOFZIGER
 President

Lebanon Vocational Machine Shop Club was organized December 2, 1947, and now boasts a membership of 18, according to Leonard Gainer, high school instructor and advisor of the club. The club was organized for the purpose of promoting better thinking and more reliability among students so that they may enter any vocational field after graduation.

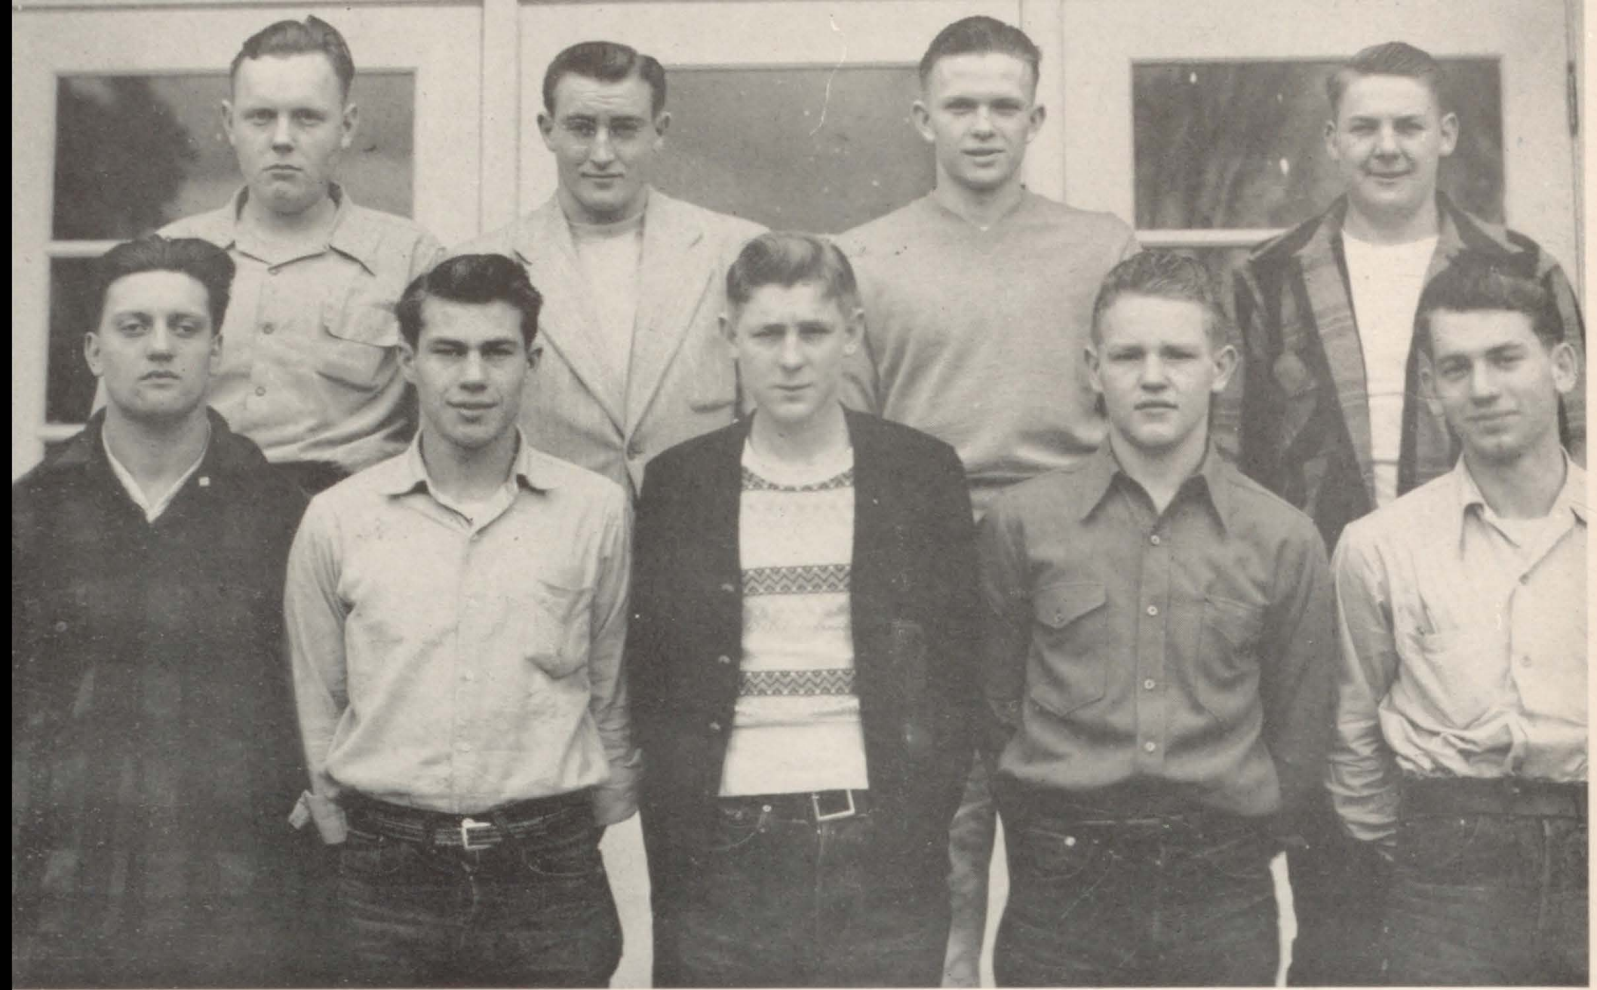

Club officers are as follows: president, Paul Nofziger; vice president, Duane Duren; secretary-treasurer, Stanley Porter, and club advisor, Mr. Gainer.

Financial problems of the club were solved by doing custom work for people, such as making a shuttle cover for a sewing machine; welding drill bits; welding fenders; grinding clutch plates, and building clothes line poles. Some of this money enabled the club to take trips to factories and schools for further study of their work. Field trips to local machine shops were taken and proved to be very interesting.

The students have learned to design, repair, and improve the methods in applying the use of electric welding, acetylene welding and machine shop practice.

A two-day fishing trip to Fish Lake was enjoyed by all.

Some of the students have shown their ability as machinists by building various items. Delbert Glasser built a model steam engine; Duane Bovee completed a surface gauge; Gordon McPherson made a small screw-jack and three brass ballpeen hammers; Duane Duren welded a steel top on his car. Other boys made some very attractive knives.

STAGECRAFT

WALLY CAMPBELL
 President

Since drama has begun to play an important part in Lebanon Union High School activities, the stage has taken on a new aspect. It must be kept cleared at all times and ready for use. To take care of this new duty a group of students decided to form a club for this purpose. Wally Campbell was elected president of the group; Ken Middlestadt, vice president, and Richard Fiola secretary-treasurer. Miss Burkholder and Miss Johnson are the advisors.

Before the group was organized several boys made the setting for the Junior play "June Mad." Later some others built the setting for the operetta "Pinafore."

When the time came for Annual pictures, these groups were consolidated and by vote they elected their panel of officers.

The "June Mad" stage set designed by Kenneth Schenck and built by Loy Haws began a new and better type of stage settings for the school. The new stage setting is constructed of cloth stretched over a wooden frame and is painted from time to time when change of color is desired. It may also be put together in a number of different ways and allows for originality and variety. They are called "flats." These flats were also used with minor alterations for "Little Women" and "Miss Jimmy." The "Pinafore" setting was built primarily by Elmer Ferguson, Freddie McCown and Richard Fiola.

The original group, a stage maintenance group, was headed by Kenneth Middlestadt and included Kenneth Schenck, Jody Blount, Wilfred Suing and Wally Campbell.

F. H. A.

MARY WADDELL
 President

The F. H. A. Chapter enjoyed a very successful year under their able advisor Miss Schifferer, Home Economics instructor.

At the first meeting of the club on October 14, 1947, the following officers were elected: Mary Waddell, president; Betty Alley, vice president; La Vonne Connet, secretary; Elaine Guggisberg, treasurer; Betty Lindley, reporter, and Maxine Alley, historian. Charlotte Tampke was nominated for a state office and Jacquie Witmire was elected delegate to Pendleton. Mrs. Alley was the Chapter Mother for the year.

Many activities were participated in during the year. A Christmas party was given December 17 in the Home Economics building. At the party the girls exchanged gifts and went caroling at the hospital. A group of girls served coffee and doughnuts at the Smith Kid's Christmas Party for the Kiwanis Club. Another group of girls decorated the class room doors with holly before the Christmas holidays. The club's chief way of making money was selling hotdogs in the halls one day a week, every other week. The chapter also sponsored a booth at the G. A. A. Carnival in which more hotdogs were sold. The annual picnic at Silver Creek Falls is being planned for sometime in May.

May the Future Homemakers of America carry on next year and be as successful and as useful as this year.

PEP CLUB

ERNESTINE FIELDS
 President

Warriorette officers for the 1947-48 year were: president, Ernestine Fields; vice president, Dorothy Neustel; secretary, Betty Schackman; treasurer, Helen Joe Gilbert, and faculty advisor, Verna Lewis. Yell leaders, headed by Dean Johnson, were Joanne Warner, Dale Netland, Pat Christian, Pat Cone.

Present at every major game of the year, whether football or basketball, were the Warriorettes. This group of girl rooters is composed of 44 members. Fourteen of the girls are Seniors, 12 Juniors, 10 Sophomores and 8 Freshmen. Two of the 14 Seniors are officers, while both the Junior and Sophomore groups each have one member on the executive council. During the year one Senior, four Juniors, one Sophomore and eight Freshmen were admitted to the club.

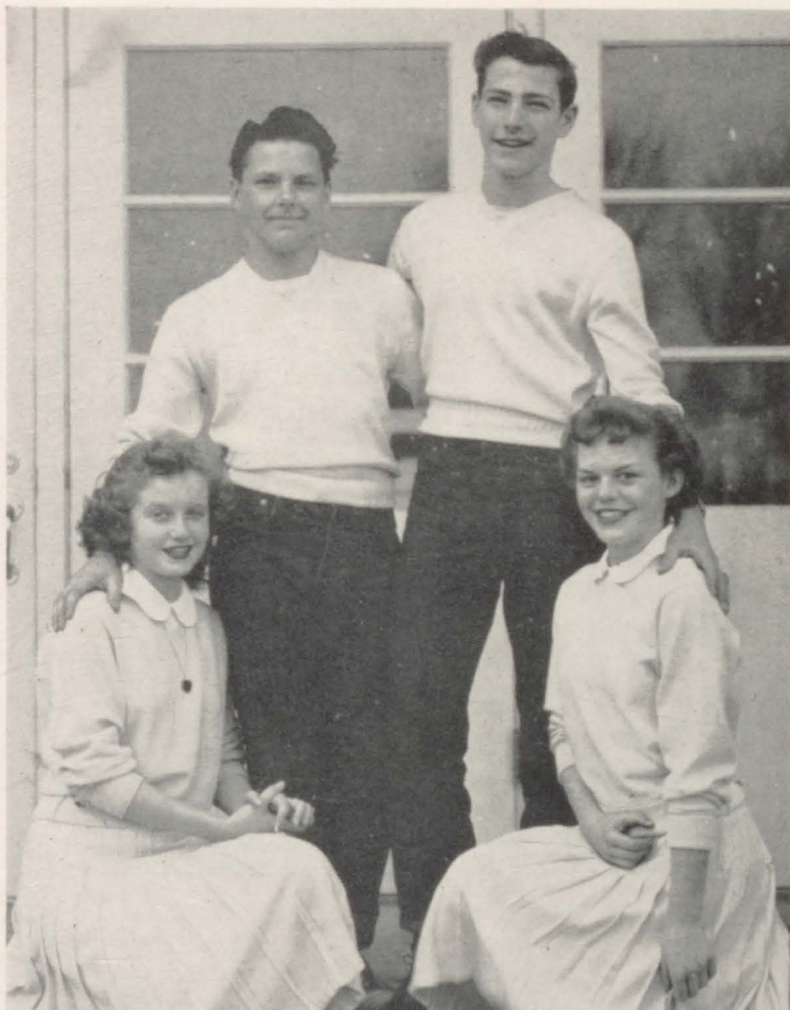

To insure fine turnouts for this year's games, roll was taken at all of the home games. Those members still failing to appear without good reasons were fined 50 cents each time. When the teen-age canteen, sponsored by the VFW, was first opened, the Pep Club gave the first performance.

The annual semi-formal dance was given December 13 for the entire school. It was a girl-ask-boy event, as the girls in the club were required to attend. The price of the ticket to this stupendous affair was $1.00 per couple. "Christmas Dreaming," theme of the dance, was very capably carried out by the decorating committee.

Christian, Johnson, Warner, Netland, Cone.

FOOTBALL

With the game played at Cottage Grove on Nov. 14, the season at last came to an end. It wasn't exactly an outstanding season if you merely take into account the games won and lost, but there is a lot more to a football season than this, for two of our games were lost in the last minute of the contest and it takes a very good team to do this. We also took the northern division of our league, but lost to University High in the play-off.

Lebanon started the season with an 18 to 8 win over Newport. Next we took Molalla 7 to 0. Then came the big week, the game with Albany. The Warriors scored early in the first quarter to put us out in front 7 to 0, but Albany came back at us and made their touchdown but failed to make the extra point. So the game went on into the second half. In fact we led 7 to 6 until the last 45 seconds of the game when Albany made a second touchdown.

Next on our schedule was Corvallis. Riddled with many injuries, it was no surprise that we lost that one. We then journeyed to Toledo for the game that was played in the mudflats. The game ended in a 0 to 0 tie.

Redmond was next and with it was another of those hard to take defeats. They scored in the last minute and 20 seconds of the contest to break a 6 to 6 deadlock and win 13 to 6.

Lettermen for the past season are as follows: Jim Fryrear who will be a four year letterman on the team next year; Bob Osterman who is a promising half for the coming year; Jack Evans, although he suffered many injuries, earned his letter at half; Don McGourty made the traveling squad at half his first year out at Lebanon; Joe Abbott made the squad his first year after being a manager the year before; Gene Tanner did a very good job of calling plays at the position of quarterback; Don Hebert, although very short, made a tough fullback for the opposing teams; Sid Bartels qualified for half towards the end of the season; Stan Porter will be a promising guard for next season; husky Al Frum will be another bulwark in the backfield to help take the penant next year; Clare Cotter, one of the three that made the first team on the Tri-County, will be one of our best backs again next year; Cecial Benshoof, Ken Whitmire and Bob Miles all graduating this year, played wonderful games for their last season to earn their letters deservingly; Jack Haynes, coming out for his first year, made his letter playing the qualifying time; Les Wells made a very good showing as an end this year although he played half last year; Jerry Bartels, a wiry little end, received his letter for the second consecutive time; Dick Duncan, a tackle, will be the other four-year letterman;

Dick Haughton is the second man to be elected on the Tri-County team and if you have seen him play you know why the opponent doesn't get up when he hits him; Lloyd White played a very nice season for being his last, as he is graduating; Don Hostetler was a mean guy at the center post and helped the line quite a bit; Bob Henkle is the third man to be selected on the Tri-County and the only one to be granted the privilege of playing on the Shrine All-Star team along with 32 other hand picked boys from all over the state, which is quite a privilege for any boy; J. T. Hamilton played brilliant ball at the end position, both offensively and defensively; Wally Campbell was another of those hefty guards we had and he will be back next year too; and Dick Gallagher, who made his showing two seasons ago on the B equad as many of the others did, came back this season to dish out some more grief for the opponents.

FOOTBALL "B" SQUAD

The football "B" squad is primarily made up of boys who are training for the "A" squad. Many of the boys who played "B" squad at the first of the year, went on to make their letter on the varsity.

Although the year was not too successful, if success is counted in games won, the year was successful in considering the experience and playing skill developed by these boys. The Papooses played five games, two each with Sweet Home and Albany, and one with Corvallis. All of these games were lost.

Several boys were outstanding and should prove to be assets to Lebanon's future football teams. In the line we have Anthony, playing tackle, who was strong on both defense and offense. Marshall Swink, the other tackle, was a bulwark on all offensive plays. Ken Gallagher was an excellent defensive end. Sammy Gilbert was a very capable end on all offensive plays. Also showing promise at defensive end was Summers. Both of the Bovee twins were looking good in there, one played guard, the other center. Rich Cox was considered a fine backfield man. Playing right half he was our hardest running backfield man. Cox made two of the three touchdowns against opposition this year. Ken Gallagher made the other on an intercepted pass. Norm Pemberton, hard driving fullback, played a very consistent game. Royce Howard and Ronnie Frum played alternating quarterback. At left half were Rodney Bean, a fine passer, and Glen Spence, deceptive runner. Marvin Zurcher, playing defensive halfback, and Jack Michelson at guard also deserve mention.

With the experience gained through tough, bruising play, these boys should do well on the varsity in years to come.

BASKETBALL "A" SQUAD

The season was good this year, 1947-48, as the team won more than half its games. Being defending champions the last three years, Coach Bud Page's pupils were hit by an epidemic of mumps, scarlet fever and considerable bad luck when District 7 games rolled around. This kept the team out of the state tournament. Not to be denied a little glory, they defeated Newport in a close game, thus tying for the northern division Tri-County title and the right to play University High of Eugene for the league title. Big MacArthur Court at Eugene proved a jinx for the Lebanon crew and they lost two out of three games played.

Highlighting the season were wins over Roosevelt of Portland, Lebanon Elks, Newport, Milwaukie, Albany, and running up 65 points against Chemawa.

Everyone remembers J. T. Hamilton putting the Newport game on ice, Gene Tanner's gift tosses in the Albany game, Bob Patterson's high-arching shots as he scored 28 points at Grants Pass, Jack Evans' free throw that thrilled everyone by bouncing through the hoop and winning the game with the Lebanon Elks, Joe Abbott's tricky dribbling and deceptive passing, Don Hebert's speed and beautiful long shots, Alan Frums steady 5 points, Jim Fryrear's well-played game against the OSC Rooks, Les Wells' pranks and loud warwhoops, Tommy Juza being high point man against Corvallis, Bob "Icewater" Osterman and his cool-headed playing, and Don Hostetler's good spirit and long legs.

Much credit goes to the managers, Ken Sims, David Young and Robert Thompson. Even though they had the job of picking up dirty towels, sweeping the gym floor and packing all the stuff and junk necessary for the trips, they will say it was well worth it.

The trips provided a lot of fun for everyone. Who took that towel from Hotel Del Rogue at Grants Pass? Remember the night when Club Sequia, adjoining Hotel Del Rogue, was crowded with celebrities from the Lebanon basketball squad? Then there was the little theater at Toledo which Bud wasn't so happy about. All this and rolling home in a smooth car listening to some sleepy music topped off a successful year.

Lettermen were: Co-Captains J. T. Hamilton and Gene Tanner, Jack Evans, Bob Patterson, Joe Abbott, Don Hebert, Tommy Juza, Alan Frum, Les Wells, Bob Osterman, Don Hostetler and Jim Fryrear. Manager letters were given to Ken Sims, David Young and Robert Thompson.

BASKETBALL "B" SQUAD

At the start of basketball this year, things were rather grim as the "B" squad had only three returning numeral winners from last year's squad, namely Mearle Christensen, Rudy Kellison and Wally Campbell. After several cuts, the squad consisted of Jim Sollenberger, Harold Bates, Sammie Cotter, Percy Nordstrand, Don McGourty, Bob White, Gene Beck, Keith Klavano, Dick Gray, Don Baker, Mearle Christensen, Wayne Holzfuss, Rodney Bean and Bob Hinman, which gave us plenty of height, speed and a tough and rugged backboard strength.

The team played 30 games against such teams as Molalla "B" squad, Shedd, Philomath, Mill City, Monroe, Jefferson and Scio "A" squads, winning 26 games and losing only 4, scoring 1128 points for a 37 point per game average against a 26 point average for our opponents.

Highlights of the season were the defeat of Shedd, a team that was a finalist in district B playoffs, 57 to 40, and Mill City, another district B finalist, 47 to 40, breaking the individual scoring record by Harold Bates who had never played basketball before and was on the first five all year. He collected 21 points against Chemawa and the team score was broken also against Chemawa 69 to 26.

A fine nucleus will be on hand for next year, but gone to the A squad or out of basketball will be Captain Don McGourty, a hard driving, smooth forward, who scored 144 points. Bob White, the dribbling and passing expert, Sammie Cotter, the fast, rough backboard man who scored 106 points before leaving on a trip, Harold Bates, who was a fine defensive player, and Percy Nordstrand who joined the Navy. Mearle Christensen scored 155 points to lead all scorers.

BASEBALL

Even though our baseball team did not have a spectacular year, much experience and playing know-how was gained. With few of this year's lettermen graduating, much is expected of next year's squad. Coach Lewis Clark can be credited for the fine job he has done in molding a fighting ballclub.

Our pitching staff consisted of Jerry Bartels, veteran Junior, Larry Ensley who is a newcomer to the A squad, and Freshman Rodney Bean. Jack Evans, one of last year's moundsmen, was unable to pitch many games because of a bad shoulder. With three of these boys coming back next year the Warrior pitching should really have a future. Third base was covered by Stan Porter, who did a very capable job at this post. Don Hebert did an excellent job at shortstop besides showing great power at bat. Second base was played alternately by Jerry Bartels, who led the team in batting averages, Jack Evans and Rodney Bean. Capable Les Wells covered the first sack. Les is a returning letterman. Monty Bean, hard-hitting Junior, was catcher. Leftfield was played by aggressive Sid Bartels whose power at bat was very much an asset. Harold Bates, one of last year's first nine, handled centerfield. Jack Evans played rightfield and pitched Glen Spence, who served as utility infielder, played both first base and shortstop as Wells' and Hebert's substitute. Other reserves who shall be assets to the team in years to come were Wally Campbell, Charles Peoples, Buel Olson, Cleatis Frederick and Bill Andres.

Team managers were Ralph Voss and Charles Gretchel.

With a little luck and hard work these boys should field a powerful ball club next year, as most of the previous mentioned are to return next year.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPS

During the intramural year 1947-48 the Senior Tigers were fortunate to take the basketball championship of the Student Body. Although the Faculty team lost but one game, they did not count in the final standing. The Tigers played 11 games and lost 2, leaving a total of 9 games won.

Gordon Haynes led the Tigers as well as the rest of the intramural teams as being high point man for the year with 104 points. The Tigers are credited with 256 points for them and 230 points against. Guard Harold Fritz was selected captain at the beginning of the year and he did a good job of leading the Tigers to victory.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL CHAMPS

The top team in the intramural football league was the Senior team that won three and tied one. The next highest team was the Sophomores. They had a final standing of winning three, losing two and tying three. The Freshmen ended up in the third bracket by winning three, losing one and tying three, as did the Sophomores. The luckless Junior team went the whole season without winning a game, but losing three and tying three. Highest score of single points went to Larry Ensley, who had a total of 24 points during the season. Virgil Sturgeon and Dean Beck tied for second place with 19 counters apiece.

The all-star team was chosen by the boys that participated in the intramural games regardless of how many games they played. Virgil Sturgeon was chosen as left end, while at right end Harold Bates was chosen. Left tackle and the captain was David Canaga. His partner was Percy Nordstrand at right tackle. Robert Train and Robert Richards held down the left and right guard spots, respectively. Bud Pulliam was chosen to play the center of the line for the all-stars.

Gene Beck was the best man for the position of quarterback. Behind him is Dale Pracht playing left half and his partner Wally De Kuyper. They made a good pair for the halfbacks. Gordon Haynes was playing the fullback spot for the all-star team.

EIGHTH GRADE BASKETBALL

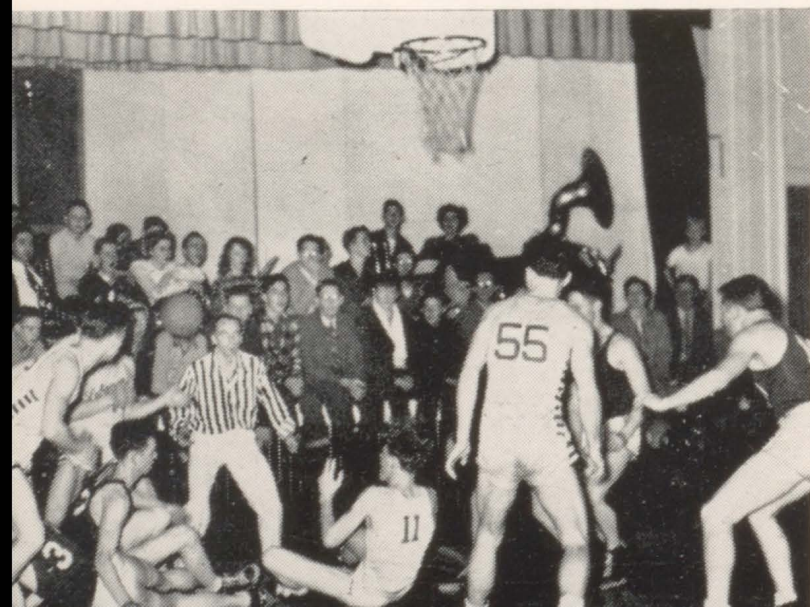

Under the capable management of Earl Gerfen, intramural coach, the Eighth Graders had a very successful basketball season. Although handicapped by lack of height, the small but mighty graders won 3 out of 6 games played.

The Eighth Grade yell leaders supported their small team very faithfully. They were all backed by the Eighth Grade.
