The Warrior staff would like to express appreciation to Myrna Weaver for work of editing and typing, and to Doug Rhodes who took pictures for use in the Warrior.

We would like to thank with all sincerity our advisor, Mr. Hickcox. Hickcox has been annual advisor since 1937 and has always put out the best in yearbooks. He has put unending hours of work in this year's book and credit to him is inestimable.

We would like to thank everyone who cooperated in the make-up of the Warrior and especially those who spent time writing various articles.

Senior Class History

By Dorothy Duering

Just think, another class of seniors will soon take the lead. We, the Class of '53, will be able to look back on our four years of high school and have many pleasant memories.

During our freshman year we were led under the direction of President Wayne Norman, Vice-President Don Chamberlain, Secretary Roxy Brownlee, and Treasurer Janet Humphreys.

I believe the thing we shall remember best is the day we became members of Lebanon High School, which was rook initiation.

The girls were dressed in gunny-sack dresses and thirteen pigtailed with green clothespins on the ends; on their feet they wore one high-heeled shoe and one man's boot.

The boys were garbed in pants cut off at the knees which were held up by rope suspenders.

Do you remember when we were sophomores?

Our class officers were President Burl Lott, Vice-President Kirby Avrit, Secretary Shirley Jamieson, Treasurer Treva Kennedy.

J. C. Thorpe brought recognition to the class by winning the 96-pound wrestling championship for the state.

We sponsored an assembly this year which proved to be lots of fun for the people involved. The theme of the assembly was "Old Yukon Territory," complete with gold diggers, a sheriff, wanted criminals, and a chorus of can-can girls.

In May we had a class picnic held at Colorado Lake. We spent the evening swimming, boating, playing games, and dancing.

The following September the enthusiastic junior class came back to school with the hope of making this their biggest year.

The following officers were selected to guide us this year: President Jack Ward, Vice-President Keith Richards, Secretary Lois Wing, Treasurer Sharon Trottier.

The junior class marked off the first date on the calendar by presenting the class play, "Family Circle." This play greatly increased our treasury, for we needed the money badly.

Why? This was the year we were to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom, which was a great success. The prom honored Queen Neva Seems and her court. The prom was carried out in Hawaiian style with the theme "Blue Hawaii."

We, the Class of '53 entered the halls of Lebanon High School, proud to claim the title of seniors, but perhaps just a little sad that this was our last year.

The officers who led the way were President Shirley Jamieson, Vice President David Blacketer, Secretary Dorothy Duering, Treasurer Dee O'Hara.

The senior class presented its annual play, "M'liss, My Western Miss," with leads going to Katy Davis and Jack Ward.

Another honor came to the class when Dee O'Hara won the D. A. R. award for good citizenship in the state.

We have had lots of fun in this, our last, year with May Day, School Carnival, Senior Class Picnic, and the Prom.

All these activities were made possible by our advisors, Mrs. Wilshire and Mr. Van Pelt. We wish to say a big thank you for all the time they have spent working for the class.

I feel the seniors have added a great deal to the history of L. H. S. I know there will always be a place in our hearts in which we may remember the good times and friends we have made.

A lost feeling will descend upon us as we leave our Lebanon High School. With a definite desire in each senior's eyes to reach the top of the ladder of "success" I hope that "success" may be their final goal.

To the underclassmen we would like to ask that you remember the Class of 1953 and that you keep up the traditions, school spirit, and to respect the position which you will someday enter as the "mighty seniors."

Juniors

Junior Class History

JOE SPRAGUE
President

We started out the year under the leadership of Joe Sprague as president, who was ably assisted in his duties by Joe Canaga, vice-president; Joyce Anderson, secretary, and Helen Felton, treasurer, who upon leaving school was replaced by Darlene Gravelle. Barbara Elmer and Joe Canaga represented the Junior Class on the Student Council. Our class was under the guidance of four advisors: Mrs. Janke, Miss Piluso, Mr. Cain, and Mr. Gerfen.

The Junior Class was active in all school functions. Soon after the beginning of school we showed our unity and spirit by winning a Pep Club yell contest held at a noon rally. The student body yell leaders from the Junior Class were Barbara Elmer, Marilyn Furlong, Dick Johnson, and J. D. Griffith.

The Juniors were well represented in both intramural and varsity sports. Our class furnished these members of the "A" squad football team: Victor Dixon, Henry Erdwins, Kenneth Kirkelie, Murvel Stone, and Jack Williamson. On the basketball team we had Richard Connet, Victor Dixon, Kenneth Kirkelie, Dale Hasenyager, and Murvel Stone. In wrestling we were represented by Melvin Darby, Bob Durham, J. D. Griffith, who became district champion in his class, Carold Lindsey, Don Scheler, and Joe Sprague. Juniors on the baseball team were Kenneth Kirkelie and Paul Kratzke, while on the track team we were represented by Larry Crenshaw, Victor Dixon, Vernon Gentry, Tommy Griffith, Ron Hammer, Debby Nichols, Dick Seine, Norman Vandiver, and Bob Wilson. Our class won second place in the intramural football contest.

As far as scholastic ability is concerned the Juniors did well by themselves. Not only do we have a large representation of students in the National Honor Society — Joe Canaga, Colleen Chilcote, Mary Ann Doughton, J. D. Griffith, Mary Ann Hanson, Joanne Johnson, Paul Kratzke, Patsy Marcks, Larry Syron, Nancy Tanner, Carolyn White, and Jack Williamson — but we also have the distinction of having the largest number of boys on the society's charter.

One of the highlights of our school year was the presentation of the class play, "Meet Corliss Archer." The leading roles were taken by Marilyn Furlong, John Crocker, Vernon Gentry, Joanna Moore and Peggy Sherman. In the all-school play, "I Remember Mama," two junior girls, Sally Guinn and Peggy Sherman, too important parts.

We assisted with making the Associated Student Body Carnival a success by being in charge of the bingo booth. Our candidate for carnival queen was LaVerne Stevahn, and for carnival clown, Bob Guggisberg.

The real climax of our school year was the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was "Arabian Night," and our class members spent many long hours working to make the gymnasium a place of enchantment. The music at the prom was excellently played by Bill de Suza and his band from Salem, assisted by a vocalist who sang many numbers. The prom was a great success and was well attended by students, faculty members, and other adults. Reigning over this gala affair were seven charming princesses: Joyce Anderson, Barbara Elmer, Barbara Galarneau, Joanne Johnson, Mary Rex, Peggy Sherman, and LaVerne Stevahn. Mary Rex was chosen queen.

One of our most enjoyable projects was the class assembly. Our class has always tried hard to make our assembly one that would be enjoyed and long remembered as "the best." Needless to say, both the members of the class and of the audience thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

On the serious side our last duty as a Junior Class is to help make the baccalaureate and commencement exercises for the Senior Class lovely as well as impressive.

We, the Class of '54 wish the class of '53 success. We, as seniors, will strive to carry on all the school's traditions, policies, and are looking forward to making next year our best.

Sophomores

Sophomore Class History

DARRELL FORT
President

year under the supervision of our class advisors: Mrs. Stewart, Miss McLean, Mr. Bishop, and Mr. Parham.

At the first of the year a class meeting was called for the purpose of electing class officers. These were, prexy, Darrell Fort; vice prexy, Malcolm McBride; secretary, Pat Dixon; treasurer, Verla Sims; sergeant-at-arms, Monte Seignor.

The Sophomore Class was well represented in sports. On the track team we have twelve sophomores and leading the pack is Malcolm McBride. These boys are doing very well for not having had much experience. Darrell Fort and David Stitt do the pole vaulting; "Little" Monte Seignor throws the weights; Doug Gatchell, Roger Johnson, Wayne McCrary, Dwight Gilley, Mack Wilcox, Roger Johnson, Lee Malick, participate in the running events.

In wrestling the sophomore boys did very well with Lyie Larson placing third and Jimmy Beaton placing second in

The Sophomore Class of '53 has had a very successful district finals. Others on the team were Raymond Richards, Robert Strange, and Norman Edwards.

The baseball team is well represented by the sophomores. Behind the plate is Wayne Lamphere; on second base we have a hustling little boy by the name of Charles Pless; at shortstop a speed demon called Benny Monroe. On the corner of the diamond, known as third base, we find Donnie Carroll; in the outfield, Eddie Neustel, who also pitched for the Warriors. Other men in the outfield are Jerry Morrow, Larry Hoover, "Nick" Nicholas and Jim Smith. We have a kid that makes a good southpaw pitcher and first baseman by the name of Darryl Bishop.

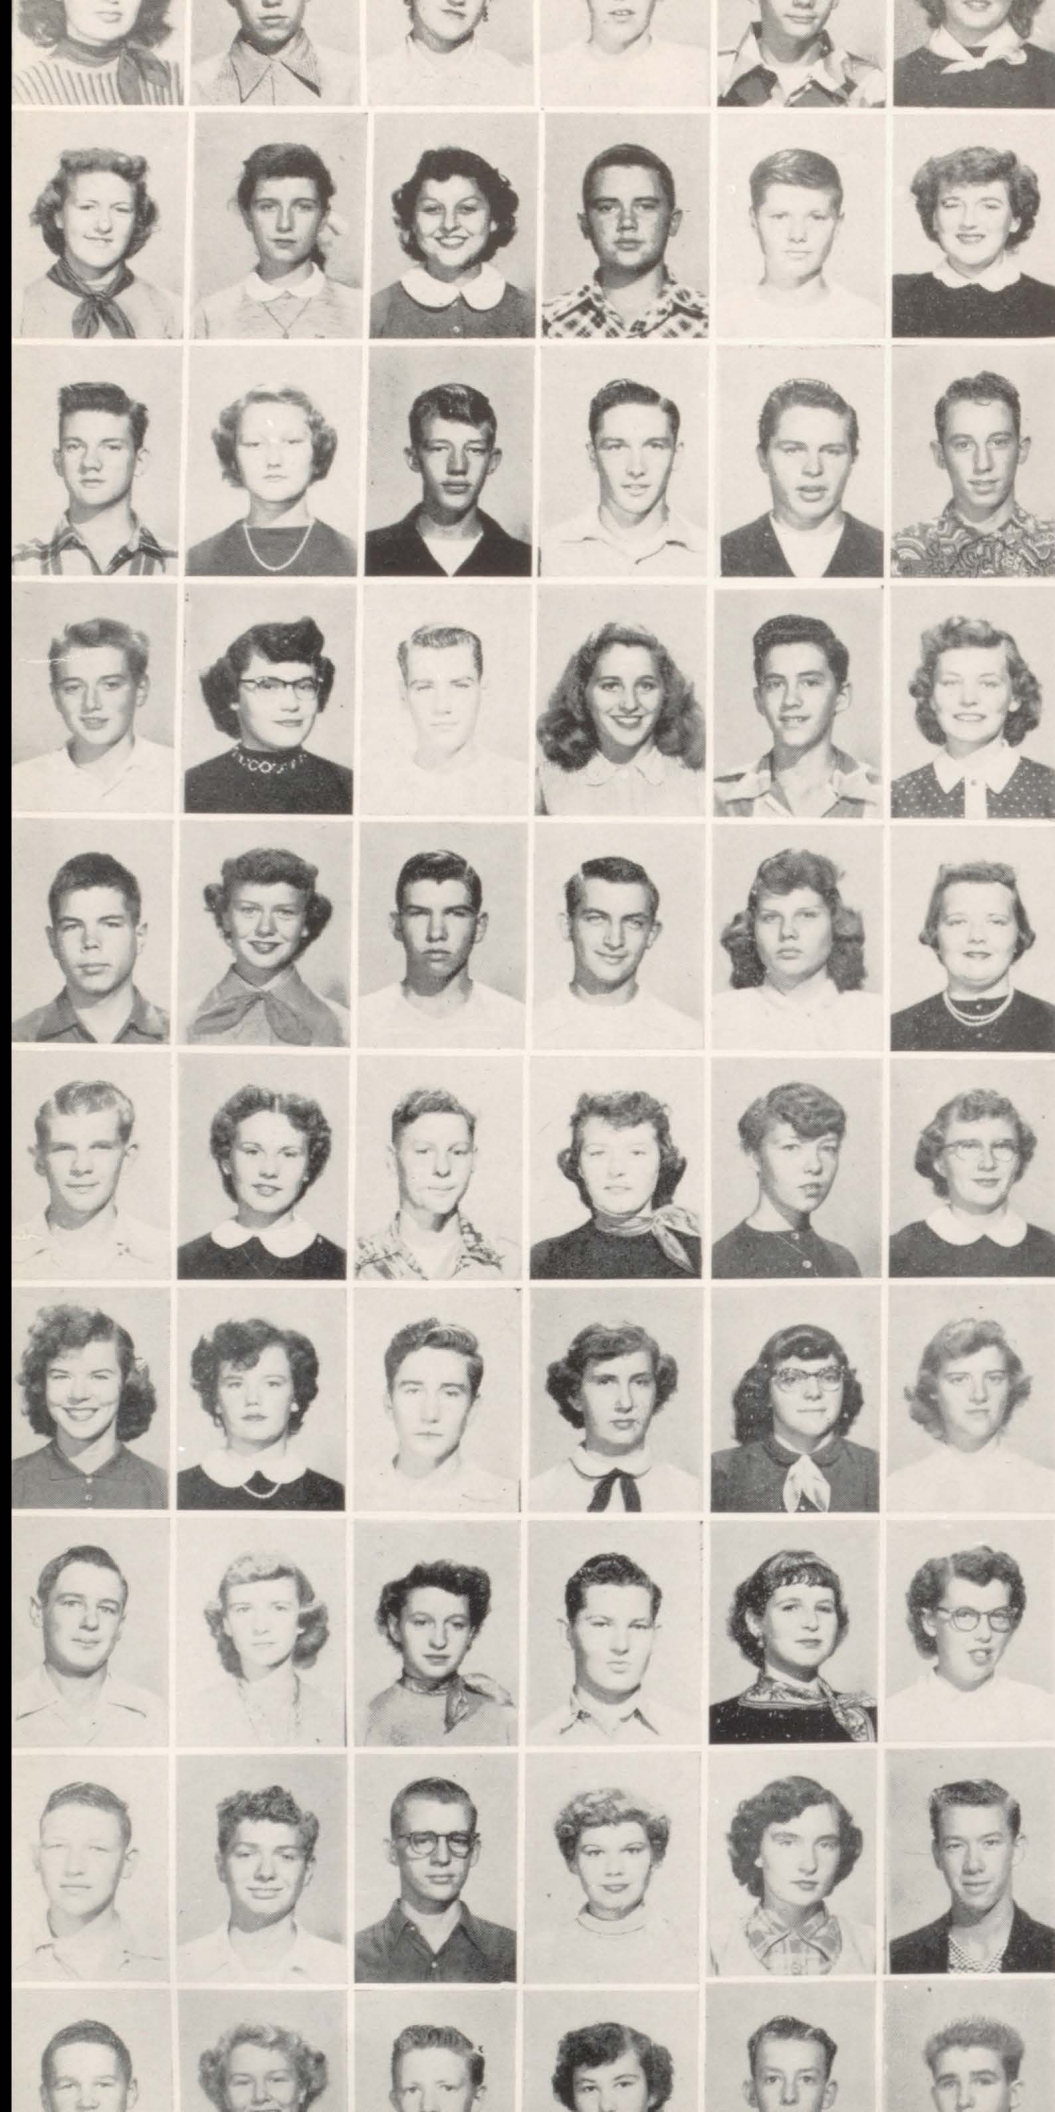

In football the sophomores on the "A" squad were Larry Hoover, Charles Pless, Don Carroll, Darrell Fort, Malcolm McBride, Eddie Neustel, Benny Monroe and Monte Seignor.

On the "A" squad basketball team we had Donnie Carroll, Malcolm McBride, and Monte Seignor.

On February 20th we held our annual class party. There were dancing, games, a movie, and just a plain get-together. A good time was enjoyed by all participating. Carolyn Caswell was chosen class candidate for carnival queen, and there was an unanimous vote for Carlene (Butch) Johnson for class clown.

March 3rd the class put on its assembly. The theme was that of a radio show and the cast nearly collapsed when, 10 minutes before curtain time, the mike went dead. However, the screaming at rehearsals had put everyone in condition (bad condition). Station K-O-R-N started the day with a newscast. After the first act, the audience was in the aisles, but fortunately the doors had been locked at the beginning of the performance. After a commercial about "Hoqwash Soap" came an episode in the life of Fearless Fosdick, starring Sue Gamblin and Darrell Fort and a cast of five. The curtain was closed for 30 minutes to denote the lapse of half an hour. The musical section of the program featured the Sophomore Band; the Nonette, girl singers; and a tap dance by Lynn Stegeman and Mary Frances MacDonald. Dwight "Gravel Voice" Gilly gave his interpretation of "Little Jack Horner." The next two acts were thrown out because nothing much happened. Next on the program came a "slice by slice" account of a delicate operation performed by Phillip D. Coffin, M. D. (Mentally Deficient) He was assisted by the members of the Biology Club, which is all sophomores. Since no finale was planned, none was given.

Freshmen

Freshmen Class History

BOB ADKINS
President

One of Lebanon Union High School's most active classes, the Freshman Class, entered school in the fall with an enrollment of approximately 245 students. The Freshman Class is the largest in school. In an early fall meeting we elected our class officers as follows: president, Bob Adkins; vice-president, Charles Bachman; secretary, Peggy Primasing; treasurer, Ramona Plambeck; student council representative, Dee Collins, and sergeant-at-arms, Dick Jungwirth. The helpful and cooperative class advisors were Miss Swink, Mr. Moynihan, Mr. Thomas, and Mrs. LaRowe.

The Freshman Class was very proud of the assembly they gave for the student body. There were many girls and boys who worked very hard on it. It was of the "gay nineties." It was called "Remember When." It consisted of four scenes which were, "On Moonlight Bay," a soldier scene, the drug store scene, and the "Merry Oldsmobile."

The scenery was excellent and a big percentage of the class participated in the decorating and acting. The active members of our class really worked hard on this assembly with Miss Swink backing us every minute. We all worked hard but had fun doing it.

The A. S. B. Carnival was another big event with the Freshman Class walking away with all honors. When door prizes were awarded many freshmen also got these. Barbara Higgenbottom, our class princess, was chosen carnival queen. Jerry Burr, Class clown, was chosen carnival clown. We were all proud of Barbara and Jerry and we hope to do as well next year. The Freshman Class also won the cup for having most attendance. It makes the second year our class has received the attendance cup.

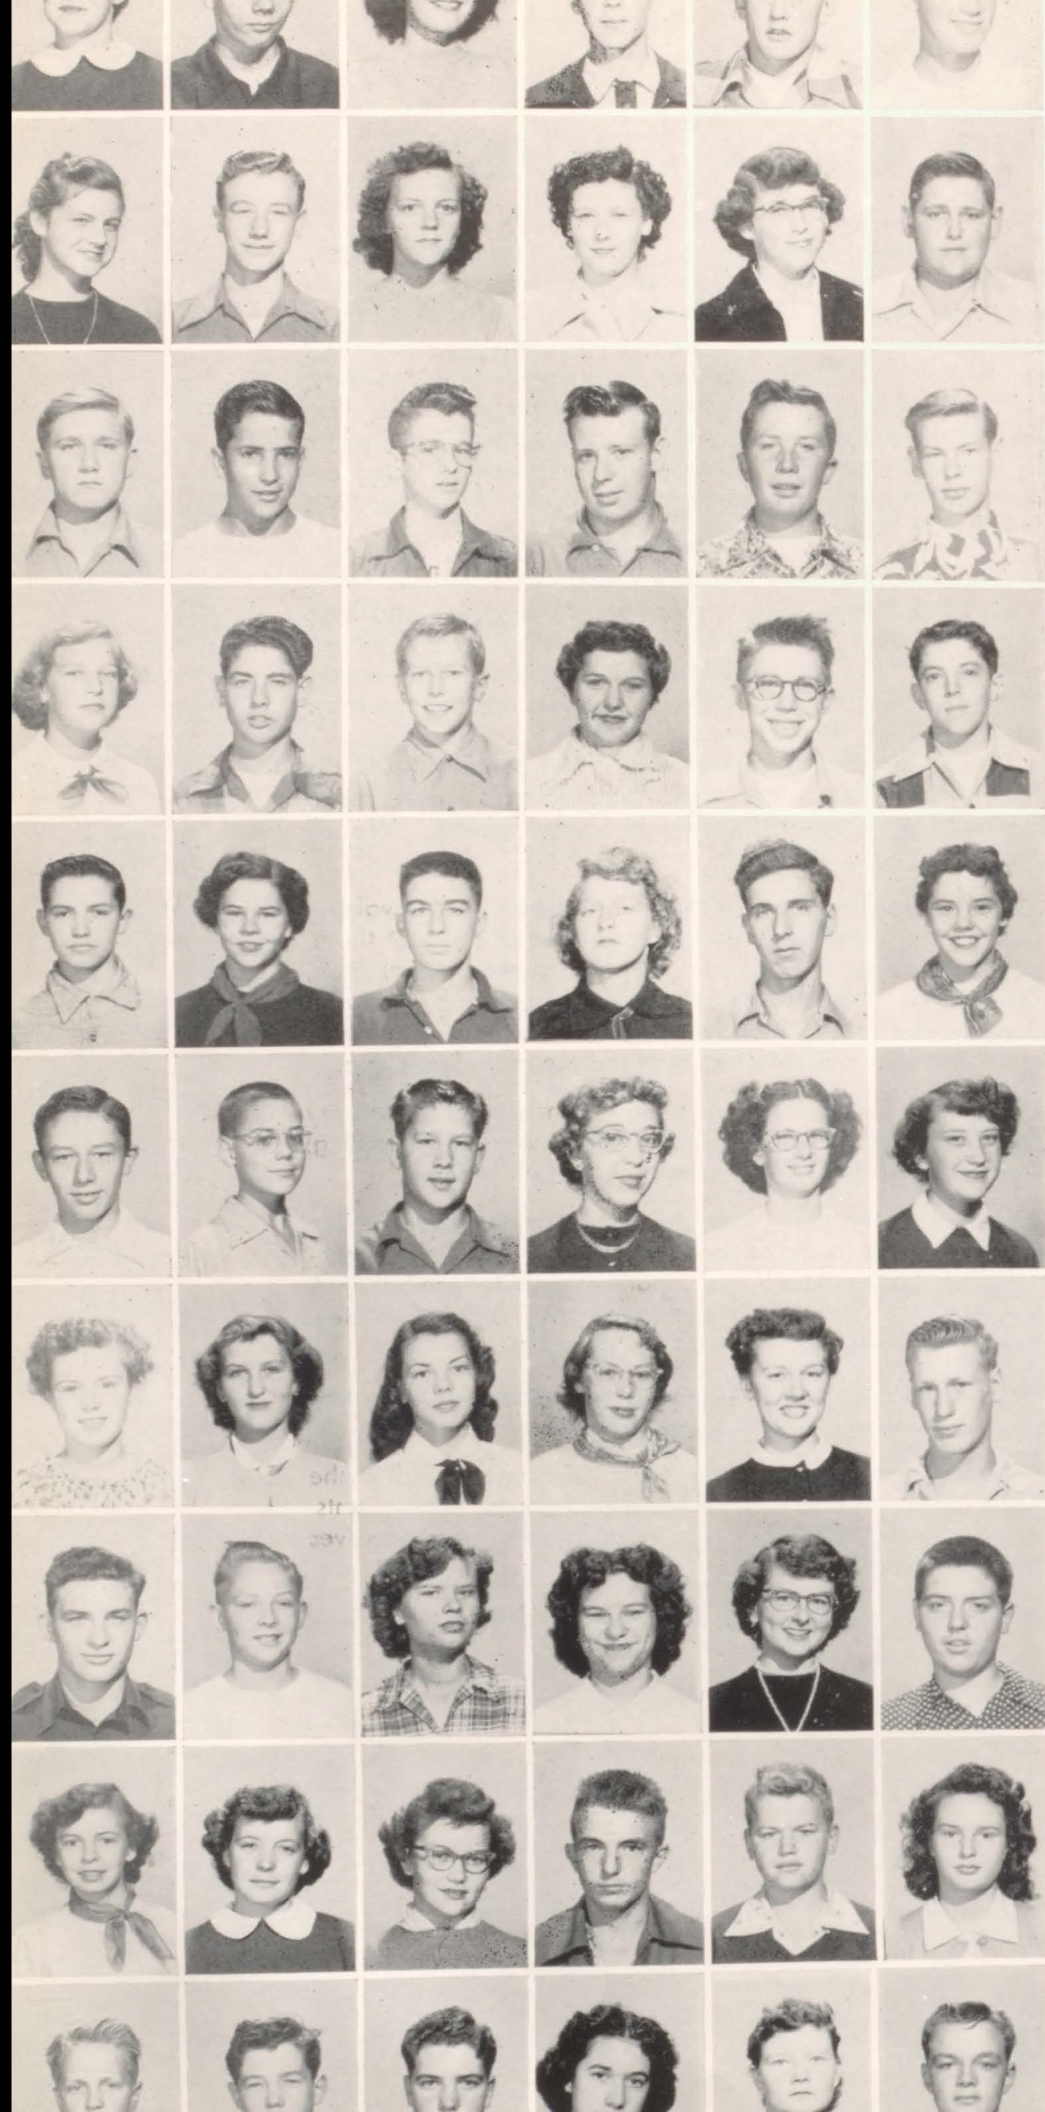

The Freshmen had a party, held in the high school gym, which proved to be very successful. There were many activities such as bowling, ping-pong, volley ball, dancing, a movie, and refreshments for all. It was a big hit with everyone and all had fun.

The class was very cooperative in helping with the May Day activities. The maypole dance was given by some of the freshman boys and girls. Also some freshman girls gave two dances called "Schottische" and another called "Jambalaya." Some freshman girls sang with the Girls' Glee which performed May Day. Our class also won the May Day track meet. We won with a total of 95 points.

The class picnic was held at Colorado Lake. There was swimming and boating for all. Two buses were taken, with most of the class attending.

The Freshman class also took an active part in the music department and in the sports activities. There are many active members in the band and choral departments. The freshman wrestling squad and basketball team won good names for themselves and should prove good material for later years.

All in all, the Freshman Class had an interesting, and well filled year.

Band

GARY SHANKS
 President

The advanced band of forty-six members has been quite active during the present school year. Most recent of appearances was the highly successful concert given before a capacity audience on the evening of April 29, in the high school auditorium. This concert featured modern compositions including those of Romberg and Morrissey, featuring soloists, Workman, Shanks, Grove, Lindsey, Gaskill and Malick. The band also presented an assembly for the students of Lebanon High which was well received.

Earlier in the season the band contributed to the football and basketball games a number of times, and special concerts for the Kiwanis Club and the grade schools. Youngest guest artist was Carla Jean Garrison of the Santiam fifth grade, flutist. Last performances of the year are for May Day and the Strawberry Festival.

In addition to the advanced band, there are classes in beginning and intermediate band. Many of these players eventually participate in the advanced group.

Mr. Snyder has been director of these groups during the past seven years.

 SECOND ROW: Fenner, McNimar, Messal, McBride, Workman, McBride, Tucker, Canoy, Johnson.

Orchestra

WAYNE LAMPHERE
 President

The shocked faces in the picture as if struck by lightning represents the High School Orchestra. These students practiced every day as well as night rehearsals in order to be representative of the high standards set by the members of the student-body.

The members of the orchestra were quick to grasp the fundamentals of fine music and showed their deep appreciation for such music by the concerts given.

The grade schools were the first to weather the outcast of the High School Orchestra programs. Queen Ann, Green Acres, Crowfoot and Santiam were the schools so honored.

The Kiwanians received the orchestra with tremendous enthusiasm. The orchestra played for the senior class play, the junior, and the all school plays.

A treat was given to the community in the form of the winter concert, during which several members gave solos.

The orchestra also played for the Easter Assembly with appropriate music.

The orchestra outdid itself with the fine, stellar performance on the night concert last May 19. The gymnasium was packed as never before. Comments are still being heard about the magnificent performance.

On May Day the orchestra again outdid itself.

The P. T. A. also had a chance to hear the fine organization.

Girls' Glee

GEANINE (Gibson) HODGES
President

The Girls' Glee Club has been one of the most active music organizations in the school this year. Included in its performance schedule were a Girls' League meeting, the Christmas concert, "Christmas in Many Lands," a Green Acres school assembly, the spring concert, May Day, and graduation. On May second the club went to the Western Oregon district contest and received an "Excellent" rating.

The officers for the Girls' Glee were: Geanine Hodges, president; Mary Baca, vice president; Iva Seems, secretary. The accompanist for the first semester was Doris Pomeroy, and for the second semester it was Kay Pierce.

This year there have been about 75 members in the Girls' Glee Club. They have sung all types of songs, from early classics to popular. Some of their favorite songs were: "In the Still of the Night," "Zing Zing — Zoom Zoom," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and "I Wonder."

The class has been promising this year, and is expected to improve next year, since only experienced singers will be admitted to the class.

BACK ROW: Weist, Pittman, Jenkins, Uhing, Huston, Pierce, Trace, Darby, Hoelsing, Waltenberg, Beeman, Piper, Brown, Willard, Worthington, Hawes, Hurst, Swanson, Olson, Hayes, Loughmiller, Fritz, Schmidt.

Choir

KEITH RICHARDS
President

Advanced Chorus elected officers early in the year. They were: president, Keith Richard; vice president, Burl Lott; secretary, Ginger Wilcox, and treasurer, Louise Bishop. These officers conducted the class affairs well throughout the entire year.

The class presented a Christmas concert and had charge of the Christmas assembly, where the same concert was given for the students who had not attended the first performance. "Christmas in Many Lands" was the theme of the concerts, and Christmas songs of various countries were presented by the choir and Girls' Glee.

Presentation of the operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," was the big event of the year. This operetta involved an apprentice pirate's end of duty to the crew and what happens when he falls in love with one of the daughters of General Standley, a retired general with a large family of daughters. After a skirmish with the local police, all ends happily when the pirates who were really noblemen, choose wives from the General's daughters. Taking the lead parts were, Ginger Wilcox, Marilyn Gilliam, Jerriane Winstead, Miriam Brown, Nancy Caldwell, Dwight Gilley, Joe Canaga, C. E. Spence David Diercoff, and Charles Bachman.

The choir also presented a spring concert, sang at P. T. A. meetings, at a Schoolmaster's meeting, visited the various grade schools where a variety of folk songs were given, took charge of the Easter assembly, singing appropriate songs, and performed at Senior Baccalaureate.

The choir is looking forward to another successful year under the capable leadership of Mr. Sjolund.

BACK ROW: Hartle, Elmer, Whitten, Pressley, Spence, Canaga, Berrey, Williamson, Scott, Adkins, Stalcup, Britton, Gilley, Anderson, Baker, Arehart.

THIRD ROW: Rowten, Smith, Wilcox, Seems, Greer, Brown, Winstead, Gamblin, Groves, Caldwell, Sherman, Rowell, Johnson, Michols, Miesner, Howell.

STANDING: Brown, Gamblin, Hinman, Smith, Seems, Lucas, Wilcox, Groves, Rowton, Elmer, Whitten, Nofziger, Hartle, Gilliam, Gilley, Winstead, Johnson, Smith, Johnson, Sherman.
SEATED: Mr. Sjolund — Williams.

Operetta

A Gilbert and Sullivan operetta was chosen this year as the high school choir's big project for the year. After long hours of practice and hard work on costumes and sets, the cast, under the direction of Mr. Sjolund, presented "The Pirates of Penzance."

Those who took lead parts were: Joe Canaga, Major-General Stanley; Ginger Wilcox, his ward Mabel; Dwight Gilley, Frederick; C. E. Spence, the Pirate King; Nancy Caldwell, Ruth; David Diercoff, Samuel; Marilyn Gilliam, Edith; Jerriane Winstead, Kate; Miriam Brown, Isabel; Charles Backman, Sergeant of the Police.

The plot follows the usual Gilbert and Sullivan manner of hilarious contradiction, but as usual it manages to end happily. Through a mistake on the part of Ruth, Frederick was apprenticed to a Pirate instead of a Pilot. Frederick, though he loved the pirates, had come to feel that he must destroy them after his twenty-first birthday when he was out of his indentures.

Ruth in the meantime is making one last try at getting her middle-aged self a man, and has Frederick, who has never seen a woman, believing she is beautiful. After leaving the pirates, Frederick, with the begging Ruth, came upon the young and pretty wards of Major-General Stanley. Mabel, one of the wards, and Frederick fall in love and plan to marry after the extermination of the pirates.

The pirates watching unnoticed, seize the girls and threaten immediate marriage, but the Major-General saves the day by telling a sad tall tale of his being an orphan boy, at which the pirates who are the famous orphans, release his wards, and leave. The story, however, bothers the Major-General and therefore he is very anxious and pleased when Frederick and the police start their march against the pirates. The Pirate King and Ruth find Frederick alone shortly before and introduce a startling paradox. This being that Frederick has had only five birthdays since he was born on February 29th. But as this can only happen in a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta it was discovered that the pirates were noblemen and the Major-General gladly gave his daughters in marriage to them and all ended well.

The sets were designed and executed by the Art Department with the help of the stagecraft class. The first scene was a rocky coast of England, and the second scene was a ruined castle which belonged to the Major-General.

Besides the leads, the entire choir sang and acted out various parts. The boys played the parts of the pirates and the police, and the girls were the wards of Major-General Stanley.

STANDING: Brown, Spence, Gilliam, Nofziger, Canaga, Diercoff, Rowton, Winstead, Hartle, Michaels, Meisner, Wilcox, Rowell, Brown, Smith.
SEATED: Mr. Sjolund — Williams.

Drama

 THIRD ROW: Hevlin, Guinn, Sherman, Furlong, Powell, Galarneau, Neuman, Connet.
 SECOND ROW: Mr. Wood, Whitten, McBride, Burr, Albæ, Fenner, Phelps, Miss Burkholder.

Thespians

JUDY SCHMELE
 President

The National Thespians Society Troupe No. 1021 started the year off by electing officers which were: Judy Schmele, president; Jack Ward, vice president; Delores O'Hara, secretary; Luan Chandler, treasurer; and Mary Gunderson, clerk.

The first meeting of the year was held at the home of Louese Kimes.

A project for raising funds was a series of home-made candy sales carried out by the members of the club.

"M'liss," the first Thespians production this year, brought in new members which were: Katherine Davis, Arline Mayes, Billy Fenner, Dean Malick, Gerald Pierce, Norman Phelps, Gary Young, and Mary Gunderson.

Another eventful meeting was a taffy pull at Judy Schmele's house which was very successful.

"Corliss Archer," the second Thespians production, helped several more people to earn enough points to join the club.

They were: De Loris Powell, Joyce Larvik, Vernon Gentry, John Crocker, and Peggy Sherman.

The club took an active part in the Associated Student Body carnival by sponsoring the dart booth.

Another function was a basket social which was held at the school. All who attended found it enjoyable.

The third and most successful production was "I Remember Mama." Carlene Johnson, Sheri MacDonald, Marilyn Swanson, Claudine Lankins, Carol Hevlin, Dorothy Hinman, Carl Schmele, and C. E. Spence were admitted to the club.

Miss Lovedy D. Burkholder was initiated into our order as an honorary member for all the time spent on stage settings for all Thespians productions.

BACK ROW: - Guinn, Fort, Gentry, Larvik, Neuman, Hinman, Galarneau.

Junior Play

This year's selection for the Junior Class play was "Meet Corliss Archer." The play was given March 13 at 8 p.m. It was well presented and the cast deserves credit in the work that they did.

The leading role was played by Marilyn Furlong, who played Corliss Archer. She adores Dexter Franklin, played by John Crocker. Corliss' father, Mr. Archer, played by Vernon Gentry, is a man in his early forties. Mrs. Archer, played by Joanna Moore, is about the same age as her husband and is well poised.

Everything goes fine at the Archer residence until Cousin Agnes, comically played by Peggy Sherman, appears. She is an old maid who gives the Archers quite a time and the audience a lot of laughs.

The next door neighbors are the Franklins, Dexter's parents. Mr. Franklin is portrayed by Bordon Newman; his wife, Mrs. Franklin, is played by Joyce Larvik. She is a very jolly and lovable person. The Franklins are at the Archer home every evening playing chess.

Louise, played by Patsy Marcks, is the Archers maid. She is a privileged and outspoken person, who has been with the Archers for twenty years.

Corliss' best friend is Mildred, played by Barbara Galarneau. They get together and really cause an uproar in the Archer home.

Later, Corliss has broken up with Dexter and had to go to the hospital for an operation. When she arrives home a nurse, Sally Guinn, accompanies her. The doctor, Jack Fort, is a small, nervous man. He comes to see the Archers about paying the doctor bill.

Betty, Dorothy Hinman, is an inquisitive little minx with a ready eye for the boys.

Everyone who saw this play enjoyed it very much.

Mr. Wood, the director, has done an excellent job of directing this play. Co-directors were De Loris Powell and Gerald Pierce. They worked long and hard on this play and they did a good job. This was one of the cleverest plays ever presented at Lebanon High.

Senior Play

The Senior Class of 1953 proudly presented a three-act western comedy titled "M'liss." This is one of the immortal Bret Harte's favorite stories.

The production of "M'liss" was presented on November 22, 1952, at eight o'clock. Practice was held each night after school. The cast was well suited to the parts and the members did their parts very well.

The story takes place in a little mining town called "Smith's Pocket." "Bummer Smith," who was played by Gerald Pierce, was the town loafer. He hardly ever did any work because he kept believing that some day he'd strike it rich in his small gold mine. His daughter M'liss, Kathrine Davis, was the only one who had faith in him. She was just a young, unkempt girl. No one cared for her because she had never gone to school and had not been taught manners. Her mother died when M'liss was only three years old.

Two schemers, Norman Phelps and Janet Connet, came and posed as old Smith's relatives. Unknown to Smith, a brother had died and left his entire fortune to "Bummer." The schemers were out to get old Smith's money. "Bummer" Smith is killed and the blame is placed on John Grey, a young schoolteacher, who is played by Jack Ward. M'liss is in love with Grey. How she clears the good name of John Grey and outwits the schemers forms the basis of a thrilling and exciting play.

The scene of the play takes place in the lobby of the "Roarin' Dog Hotel." Mrs. Moffits, Arline Mayes, is the owner of this hotel. Her daughter Clytie, Nancy Whitten, is also in love with John Grey and is M'liss' rival. Bess Starlight, cleverly portrayed by Louese Kimes, is a fascinating, dazzling actress who plays havoc with the heart of Yukon Bill, played by Billy Fenner, a comic cowboy. Judge McNaggly, Dean Malick, is an extremely amusing character who holds an impromptu court in the lobby of the "Roarin' Dog Hotel."

All School Play

"I Remember Mama," a production by John van Druten, was chosen for the all-school play. This was presented April 17, at 8:00 and was responded to by a huge audience. "I Remember Mama" is a new mark in drama at Lebanon High. This was unusually different from the others because of the three stages, one being the original stage, and two additions, being on each the left and right. Actions took place on all three platforms sometime during the performance. Stage setting was changed by a complete blackout, which is a new type of stage setting here in Lebanon.

The story opened as Katreen, portrayed by Luan Chandler, was telling how she remembered Mama. As she spoke she slowly walked into the scene of her childhood home as the family was seated around the table counting the money that Papa, played by Keith Richards, has brought home. Mama, cleverly played by Carlene Johnson, is chock full of laughs and Norwegian dialect. Christine, played by Sheri MacDonald, is the middle sister and at times seems rather stubborn. The baby of the family is Dagmar, played by Marilyn Swanson. She is a very affectionate child, especially towards her cat, "Uncle Elizabeth." Nels, the only son, quiet and dependable, was aptly played by C. E. Spence. The three aunts, Sigrid, Jenny, and Trina, were portrayed by Peggy Sherman, Sally Guinn, and Claudine Lankins, Sigrid being whinney, Jenny bossy, and Trina pleasant. Some of the expertly played minor parts were that of Mr. Thorkleson, played by Don Gilbert, who was Trina's bashful suitor, Mr. Hyde, a learned gentleman and a star boarder whom Mama stoutly defended, played by David Hatton; Dean Malick as Uncle Cris, a crusty old gent who came to a sad end. The cast was well supported by Dr. Johnson, played by Jack Spencer; Arne, Stephen Paup; nurses, Myra McBride and Bonnie Morris.

Activities

Boys' League Council

KEITH RICHARDS
President

Lebanon Union High School this year has a brand new organization which is composed of every boy in the high school. This organization, known as the "Boys' League," is under the direction of Mr. Merle Wells who is the faculty advisor.

Officers were elected last year to serve as officers of the club this year. The president which the boys elected was Keith Richard; the vice president, Joe Sprague; secretary, Vic Dixon, and treasurer, Wally Slocum. Our president chose Rich Whitmore to serve as reporter and report to the Hi-Light all Boys' League news.

During the year the Boys' League sold at football and basketball games. They also joined with the Girls' League to help sponsor the all-school play, "I Remember Mama."

With the money gained from these different activities the Boys' League will sponsor college scholarships for two boys.

This has been a very successful first year for the Boys' League and the organization will soon make an impression in Lebanon Union High School. The boys have really cooperated in making this a good year.

Driver Education

The driver education class of 52-53 has had a very successful year under the guidance of Mr. Scott. The primary purpose of this class is to teach safety driving. Safety and caution are specifically stressed in the course. The class is made up of a large number of students each semester. It is required of every student to be able to pass the Oregon state drivers license examination. Knowledge is required of the working parts of the automobile and how to fix any minor disabilities. Each day a field trip is taken in which the students take active part in driving the car for the instruction. This class has proven both interesting and educational and very beneficial to the students.

F. H. A.

BEVERLY NICHOLAS
 President

The school year of 1952-1953 has been a very busy and successful one for the Future Homemakers of America of Lebanon High. The officers were: president, Beverly Nicholas; vice president, Artheda Lander; secretary, Sue Gamblin; treasurer, Freddena Morgan; parliamentarian, Barbara Higgenbottom; historian, Betty Seiders; reporter, Deanna Taylor; song and recreational leader, Geraldine Pittman. This year the F. H. A. has been under the successful guidance of Mrs. Violette Olstad. The officers were installed and all new members were initiated at a candlelight service October 14.

To celebrate F. H. A. week, November 2 to 8, the girls cooked their own breakfast and attended the Methodist Church together, presented a radio program over KGAL, held a cooky sale downtown and a candy sale at school, had a bulletin board at school, and had displays both at school and downtown.

Eight Lebanon F. H. A. girls attended the district meeting at Taft. Anne Ayers was Lebanon's candidate for district chairman. Artheda Lander and Karen Kruse presented a clever skit, and Donna Nicholas and Artheda Lander modeled in a style show at the meeting also.

Candy sales to raise money were carried on throughout the school year. The largest money making project the girls undertook was the selling of greeting cards. The F. H. A. also planned and prepared the May Day picnic.

In the spring new officers are elected and installed. These officers are: president, Artheda Lander; vice president, Charlene Coughran; secretary, Carolyn Barnum; treasurer, Anne Ayers; parliamentarian, Patricia Smith; reporter, Jeannette Dolson; historian, Mary Ann Doughton, and song and recreational leader, Kay Hill.

 SECOND ROW: Thorpe, Blacklaw, Kratzke, Knight, Williamson.
 FRONT ROW: Dixon, Richard, Lott, Avrit, Barnes.

Fire Squad

GORDON BARNES
 Fire Chief

The sixteen members of the fire squad this year were: Vernon Gentry, Jack Williamson, Larry Syron, Jack Fort, Joe Alley, Borden Neuman who moved and was later replaced by Gary McKinney, Ron Blacklaw, Vic Dixon, Rollin Knight, Paul Kratzke, Juniors, and Don Chamberlain, Gordon Barnes, J. C. Thorpe, Burl Lott, Kirby Avrit, Keith Richards, Seniors.

This year the fire squad was active in many fire drills. We learned how to use many of the various types of fire fighting equipment, including those types found in our school. We were also responsible for the maintenance of the equipment in the school.

Our main money-raising project this year was selling at the Lebanon-Milwaukie basketball games. We also held a dance after this game and this dance proved highly successful.

This year at the annual Student Body carnival, the Fire Squad had the dart throw booth.

In the spring, on April 24, we held our annual fireman's ball. This function was not too successful, but we hope to do better next year.

We class this year as a succesful year but we also hope to do better in years to come. Our officers this year were Gordon Barnes, president; Larry Syron, secretary-treasurer. Our advisor is Mr. Parham.

G. A. A.

SHIRLEY JAMIESON
President

The Girls' Athletic Association started off the year with a basketball playnite followed by a Halloween party. Officers decided upon at this affair were: president, Shirley Jamieson; vice president, Evelyn Miles; secretary-treasurer, Katy Davis, and historian, Louese Kimes. Faculty advisers were Mrs. Pesek and Miss Swink.

Activities during the year were numerous. Playnites were held the first Wednesday of each month with different sports being played. Hikes and various excursions were taken, tournaments played, and swim meets held. A highlight of the Associated Student Body carnival was the winning of the coveted booth trophy by the G. A. A. A number of novices were taken in as members at an impressive ceremony during February.

Fifty points are required for membership in the club. Points earned by members go toward awards, the highest award being a gold pin attained by 200 points. These points may be earned by participating in G. A. A. activities including basketball, volleyball, horseback riding, swimming, hiking, bowling, skiing and baseball.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to encourage sportsmanship and leadership.

Girls' League Council

MINNIE SWANSON
President

The Girls' League this year, under the capable leadership of President Minnie Swanson, has been very active. The Girls' League purpose, to promote democratic principles, thus constituting civic responsibility, has been well shown this year by numerous projects such as these. The girls have made money to go into their scholarship fund by selling refreshments at football and basketball games, selling cookies and candy at school and downtown, and selling decals. Some of their other projects have been a Big-Little Sister party, an entertaining style show and tea, at which the mothers were special guests, and a Christmas party for our students and students from the Children's Farm Home. The Girls' League, along with the Boys' League, sponsored the all school play, "I Remember Mama."

Members of the council this year were Minnie Swanson, president; Barbara Elmer, vice-president; Ruth Duering, secretary; Nancy Tanner, treasurer; Myra McBride, points chairman; Evelyn Miles, social chairman; Janet Humphreys, big-little-sister chairman; Judy Schmele, Mary Wing, and Roxy Brownlee, senior representatives; Mary Ann Hanson, Lois nedy, and Sharon Perdue, junior representatives; Gloria Hartle, Janet Smith, and Janet Messal freshman representatives. Miss Fran Berger, Dean of Girls, was the advisor.

BETTY BALDWIN
 Editor, First Semester

Hi-Light

The Hi-Light Staff this year consisted mostly of students who gave their time and energy outside of class so that the students of Lebanon High School might have a school paper.

The editor-in-chief for the first semester was Betty Ann Baldwin. Her permanent staff members were: sports editor, Jim Saxton; exchange editor, Richard Baldwin; and business managers, Norma Seiber and Jo Ann Dickson. The other staff positions of feature editor and associate editor changed many times during the semester.

ALTA WEDDLE
 Editor, Second Semester

Beginning the second semester Alta Weddle took over the job of editor. Alta was a new girl at Lebanon High School, moving from Grants Pass in November. She proved to be a very valuable member of the staff. Her staff consisted of: associate editor, Betty Ann Baldwin; editorial writer, Carol Wilshire; sports editor, Jim Saxton; exchange editor, Richard Baldwin; and business managers, Norma Seiber and Jo Ann Dickson.

Mrs. Walsted and Mr. Hickcox were the Hi-Light advisors. Mrs. Walsted was a new member of the teaching staff at Lebanon Union High School this year.

BACK ROW: Blacketer, Avrit, Chamberlain, McBride.
 FOURTH ROW: Dixon, Neustel, Richards, Lott, Morehead, Kratzke, Kirkelie, Siegner, Stitt.
 THIRD ROW: Whitmore Crenshaw, Guggisberg, Connet, Johnson, Anderson, Wise, Stone.
 SECOND ROW: Ward, Slocum, Burian, Hoover, Christensen, Morrow, Gilley.

Hi-Y

BILLY FENNER
 President

The Lebanon Hi-Y is one of the oldest boys' organizations in the high school. The group was organized in 1941 with a total membership of nine boys and today it has a membership of thirty-five boys. Mr. Page has been the Hi-Y advisor since its start in 1941.

The Club has as its motto: "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character." The boys in the club are selected with this ideal in mind and in general, the year's objectives are to help the school and community in any way possible.

Through money raising activities, the Hi-Y Club contributes to the Children's Farm Home, the World Service Organization, and at Christmas time a large food basket is given to some family in need. Any service that can be performed to help the school is always welcomed by the Hi-Y Club.

The officers who carried on their duties so efficiently during the 1952-1953 school year are as follows: president, Billy Fenner; vice president, Doug Rhodes; secretary, Arthur Fuller; treasurer, Christie Messmer; chaplain; Joe Canaga. The group has had a very successful and enjoyable year and the annual Hi-Y picnic in May completes the activities for the year.

National Honor Society

BETTY BALDWIN
President

A new organization this year is the Santiam Chapter of the National Honor Society. The group received its charter in January from the national headquarters in Washington, D. C.

The society, which was founded by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals, was organized in 1921 and since then has grown steadily. There are chapters in every state of the Union and in Puerto Rico, the Philippines, Panama, Argentina and China, as well as American schools in Europe. A permanent roster of names is on record in Washington, D. C.

The students are chosen by the faculty for their outstanding ability in scholarship, service, leadership and character; the four objectives of the society. The national scope gives it unusual prestige and high significance.

The group held two initiations, one in February and the other in May, where the members received cards and pins.

The society sponsored an indoor picnic on March 27 and assisted with the Student Body carnival. Next year, among the other activities planned, the members will present a talent show in which the neighboring schools will participate.

The officers are as follows:

President	Betty Ann Baldwin
Vice President	Joanne Johnson
Secretary	Ella Mae Swanson
Treasurer	Larry Syron
Advisors	Miss Piluso and Mrs. LaRowe

BACK ROW: Nicholas, Baldwin, Grove, Chilcote, Marcks, Tanner, Davis, Syron.

FOURTH ROW: Lebahn, M. Swanson, E. Swanson, Miles, Kratzke, Griffith, Canaga, Williamson.

THIRD ROW: Doughton, Hanson, White, Schmele, Trottier, Jamieson, Dodds, Kimes.

SECOND ROW: Malick, Barnum, Wilson, Miles, Butters.

I. R. L.

LOUESE KIMES
President

Under the leadership of Earl Gerfen, the I. R. L. has had a very successful and active year.

At a meeting during September, plans were outlined and officers elected for the coming year. They were: Louese Kimes, president; Roxy Brownlee, vice president; Evelyn Miles, secretary; and Carol Wilshire, representative to the student council.

The highlight of the year was the I. R. L. conference held on the University of Oregon campus late in February. About ten members earned the right to attend. Their expenses were paid to the conference by the club.

We have had several cooked food sales, a dance, and have sold small memory books to students to raise money.

Activities during the year included panel discussions put on for various civic organizations, and the foreign speakers, many of them exchange students from Oregon State. One of the most interesting of these was a boy from Germany who spoke about the Berlin Airlift.

To end the year a picnic was given and a speaker engaged who was in the employ of the government.

All in all it has been a successful and busy year for the I. R. L.

BACK ROW: Gerfen, Rhodes, Malick, Kratzke.
THIRD ROW: Baldwin, Gunderson, Guinn, Hinman, Seems.
SECOND ROW: Brown, Weber, Smith, Schrader.
FRONT ROW: Stryker, Ackeret, Wilshire, Kimes, Brownlee.

BACK ROW: Duering, Trottier, Gentner, Jungworth, Burns, Bailey, Chilcote, Dennis, Seiber.
 FRONT ROW: Barber, Johnson, Larvik, Tanner, Smith, Galarneau, Wray.

Library Club

DOROTHY DUERING
 President

The Library Club has had a very active year under the guidance of Mrs. Grace Burns. The officers of the club are: Dorothy Duering, president; Rose Mary Gentner, vice president; Barbara Galarneau, secretary; and Joyce Larvik, treasurer.

This year the club visited the Oregon State College and Monmouth College libraries. These were very educational trips and were enjoyed by all.

The Library Club had the fortune-telling booth at the Student Body carnival. Elaine Jungwirth, fortune-teller, learned the art from Mr. Cash, who is very good at it.

Members are selected by Mrs. Burns after the student has been recommended by two teachers. It is obvious that by this method of selection it is indeed an honor to be a library assistant.

The Library Club has seventeen active members, and each has a definite duty. Typists are: Madeline Bailey, Colleen Chilcote, Dorothy Duering, Elaine Jungwirth, Marciel Smith,, Nancy Tanner and Sharon Trottier. Barbara Galarneau, Rose Mary Gentner, Norma Seiber, Wilma Collier, and Ilene Wray are in charge of the desk. Joyce Larvik is in charge of periodicals, while Dorothy Barber is in charge of statistics. Over-due books and fines were handled by Dorothy Johnson.

Machine Shop

MARVIN GLASER
President

This club was called to order by Mr. Gainer, September 9, 1952, for the purpose of electing officers. The officers elected were: president, Marvin Glaser; vice president, Elbert McCloud; secretary, Joe Alley; treasurer, George Kunders, who later resigned and moved. Donald Roe was elected to take his place.

The club was organized for the purpose of promoting better thinking and more reliability among students, should they enter any vocational field after graduation.

The Machine Shop Club is the distributor of beverages to other clubs and organizations in the school.

This club had the sling-shot booth at the A. S. B. carnival this year and made a gross amount of about $15.00. School services included building tables for the mechanical drawing class, high jump and pole vaulting standards, and repairing school desks by welding. Community services included sawing out two pond saw bars for Linn Plywood, repairing cattle bands, shortening motor mounts, shaving Chevrolet head, shortening drive shaft, welding sawblades, and making a dozer hoist assembly.

The club took a combined field trip and fishing trip to Klamath Falls. They went through the Oregon Technical Institution and then went fishing, and took a much needed rest at Upper Klamath Lake.

Office Girls

The Office Staff is not a club or an organization but an elective course in the high school curriculum offered to junior and senior students. Those who choose to take this course work for one school period in the offices of the high school and in return receive one full academic credit.

They work in groups of two or three at various periods of the day. Mrs. Burgess, our very patient secretary to the high school, is the supervisor of the Office Staff. The most important duty of the Office Staff is that of collecting the attendance slips, recording them accurately, and keeping an accurate record of all absences. Other duties include typing, filing, ditto and mimeograph work, and meeting and working with students and public.

The staff beginning with first period were: Carol Barry and Lucile Woods; second period, Jack Ward, Madeline Bailey; third period, Lois Fisher and Sharon Farmer; fourth period, Neva Seems, Sharon Trottier and Marilyn Gilliam; fifth period, Lora Housen and Betty Ann Baldwin, Barbara Elmer and Bonnie Stryker; sixth period, Pat Dodds and Mildred Grove; seventh period, Ruth Miller and Carol Johnson.

The students enjoy working in the office and the experience is valuable.

Order of "L"

GORDON BARNES
President

The Order of the "L" is a club made up of all the letter winners in sports. The rules are that a freshman and a sophomore must have two letters and a junior must have one, the same as the senior, in order to be recognized as a future member. Each member is voted in by the other members of the club.

We held an initiation in the latter part of April. We had a chili feed and afterwards we had the new members wash the dishes. They also served as waiters. After the kitchen was cleaned up we had some movies.

During the year the lettermen had many duties, the first of which was helping in the kiddies parade and serving ice cream and candy afterwards.

Our president is Gordon Barnes who showed himself very capable of holding the job. The veep was Vic Dixon who helped us tremendously in organizing different things. Secretary-treasurer was Keith Richard who handled the money and minutes very well. Sergeant-at-arms was Joe Sprague but he didn't get much of a work-out as the boys handled themselves pretty well.

We are still planning for the "L" we hope to put on Horse Butte this spring and hope to get it up there before the close of the school year.

Paletteers

ARTHUR FULLER
 President

As second largest club in the school, the Paletteers Club has enjoyed a very successful year.

Several worthwhile projects were undertaken, beginning with the reception given by the club November 5th in honor of American Art Week. At this reception townspeople were invited to exhibit handcrafts of the Americas. In response, Mrs. George Herron, Mrs. Kenneth Mayer, Mrs. Kenneth Wilshire and others had a good showing of Mexican, Indian, and Canadian art pieces. Several local artists exhibited molded ceramics of great beauty. The high school art department also had an interesting showing of hand-made pottery as well as water colors, etc. Local artists had quite a few oil paintings on display. The club served lime sherbet punch and held open house the following night after the Freshman pot-luck dinner.

On February nineteenth, 31 members of the club chartered a Trailways bus and made a field trip to the University of Oregon art department in Eugene. The art education department arranged a tour of the various classrooms. Most interesting was the sculpturing demonstrations and lecture by the instructor, Wayne Tyson. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Curtis of the Curtis Pottery at Elmira had arranged several demonstrations on the pottery wheel.

While on the Eugene trip the club purchased oil paints in tubes, brushes, and white primer for boards, as it was decided to have oil-painting classes during activity period. However, this had to be done at noon instead, during late April and May.

The club's officers were Art Fuller, president; Burl Lott, vice president; recording secretary, Ruth Duering, and treasurer Dolores Morgan.

BACK ROW: Schmidt, Eckert, Grahm, Gunderson Hevlin.
 SECOND ROW: Booker, Haskins, Hosking.
 FRONT ROW: Mr. Bishop, Ayers, McBride, Fritz.

Science Club

MYRA McBRIDE
 President

The Lebanon High School Science Club was organized to foster and maintain interest in modern scientific developments with particular emphasis on biology. The club is a charter member of the National Science Clubs of America, which is the principal science organization in the nation's high schools.

Each member wears a sterling pin and possesses the S. C. A. membership card. The pin insignia is an emblem designed to symbolize science. It consists of a gear background upon which is mounted a test tube in the center filled with a liquid chemical giving off gas which burns at the mouth of the tube. On either side of the tube are symbols of lightning flashes or radio waves arranged in wing-like pattern.

The S. C. A. offers many advantages to its national charter members. Among these are the weekly science news letter which is an up-to-date summary of current science research and developments; back issues of science talent search examinations are available to club members who wish to gain a general idea of the type of examination given to science students in the national scholarship competition; many scientific books are available to club members through the S. C. A.; regular nation-wide broadcasts of scientific information are another function of S. C. A. The club projects for 1952-53 were varied. The membership studied the anatomy and physiology of various lower animals, made blood slides, dissected dead frogs, developed a balanced aquarium, and had a skit in the sophomore assembly.

The club officers for 1952-53 are: Myra McBride, president; Gerald Pierce, vice president; Joyce Fritz, secretary-treasurer. The club dues are $1.50 annually.

Tri-Y

EVELYN MILES
President

Tri-Y is the teen-age group of the Y. W. C. A. Large cities have Y. W. C. A. headquarters in which to meet, but clubs in smaller communities meet in their high schools as a part of the extra-curricular program.

In L. U. H. S. the club membership comes from the Junior and Senior classes, and is open to girls in these classes who believe the Christian way is the right way. Thirty-one girls were active members. The officers for the year were: president, Evelyn Miles; vice president, Nancy Tanner; secretary, Sharon Perdue; treasurer, Ruth Miller; chaplain, Darlene Gravelle; historian, Barbara Elmer; and student council representative, Dolores O'Hara.

More than one-half the members earned their pins through the following activities: chocolate for Christmas for children in Korea, decorating school Christmas tree, Christmas cheer to a needy family and to the old folks home, donated to the United Fund, gathering and organizing materials for the school talent sheets, attended a Y-Teen midwinter conference in Corvallis, helped decorate and operate the Sno-Cone booth at the A. S. B. carnival, decorated for and served the Career Day luncheon for the visiting speakers, and gave a mother-daughter dinner for our mothers.

We also had several ceremonials for special occasions such as for Christmas, Mother's Day, and for the presentation of pins.

BACK ROW: Lebahn, Seems, O'Hara, Seiber, Dickson, Galarneau, Powell, Schrader, Pearl.
THIRD ROW: Speers, Sherman, Guinn, Gunderson, Pressley, Whitten, Elmer, Larvik.
SECOND ROW: Stryker, Weaver, Ackeret, Johnson, Smith, Hinman, Duering.
FRONT ROW: Trotter, Gravelle, Purdue, Miller, Miles, Tanner.

Warriorettes

NEVA SEEMS
President

The Pep Club is the backbone of the cheering section and do their best to root the athletic teams to victory. The purpose of the club is to foster school spirit and to encourage a high standard of sportsmanship in our relations with other schools.

Miss Swink was chosen as the club's advisor at the beginning of the year and she has helped make the year very successful. The officers for the year were: president, Neva Seems; vice president, Shirley Jamieson; treasurer, JoAnn Johnson; attendance director, Louise Bishop; secretary Miriam Brown.

This year the club was enlarged because of the large number of students attending school. The new plan doubled the membership of the club. Members now include eighteen Seniors, sixteen Juniors, fourteen Sophomores, and twelve freshmen.

A change in eligibility for the club was made this year. Club members were required to have eligibility slips signed by their teachers every week the club was participating in some activity. If the student's work was not satisfactory that person would be ineligible for that particular week and was not allowed to join in the club activities.

The Pep Club helped to sponsor two new activities this year—one was the fall formal and the other was the Easter assembly.

"B" Squad Football

Murle Wells, "B" squad football coach, coached the Braves through the unsuccessful season of 1952-1953.

Even though the Lebanon "B" squad succeeded in winning only one game, much experience was gained to be put to use in the future.

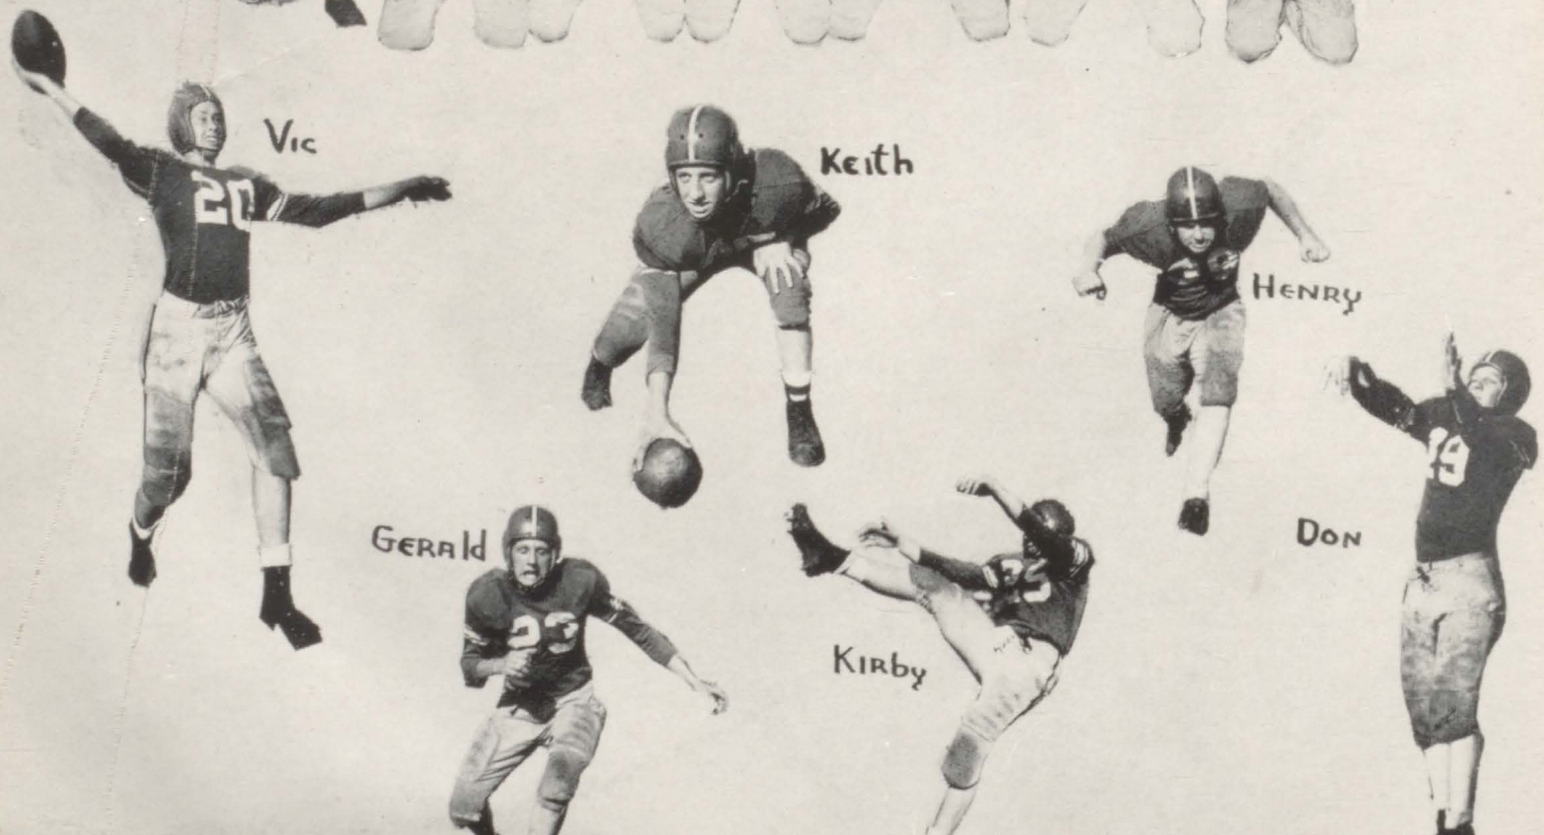

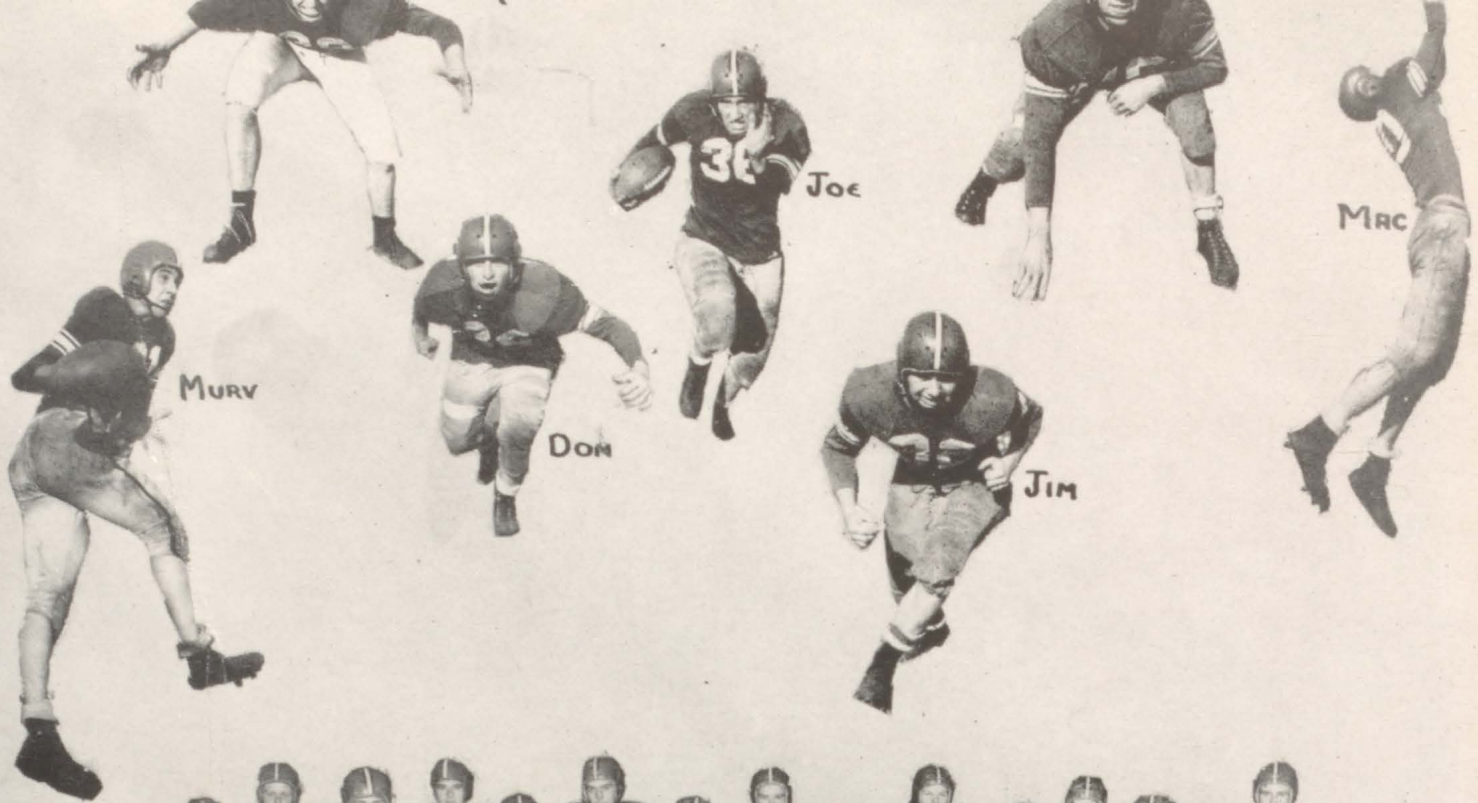

Charles Pless, Larry Hoover, and Tyler Cone worked hard during the season and sometimes played on the "A" squad.

Each game there was a different captain chosen to oversee the plays.

Juniors are: Weldon McKinney, Melvin Darby, Vernon Gentry, Ronald Hammer, Gary McKinney, Doug Rhodes, and Paul Kratzke.

"A" Squad Football

Looking back over the season's record, we find the Warriors on the short end of the win-loss column. But the win-loss column does not tell the whole story of the Warrior's 1952 football season.

For instance, the Warriors battled the Bend Lava Bears, one of the most highly talented teams in the state, to a standstill on the local gridiron. Bend, winner of the district crown and represented in the state tournament, squeaked past Lebanon, 26-25. Actually the Warriors tied the powerful Lava Bears, but a successful conversion was nullified by an off-side penalty.

The Lebanon men upset their ace rival, Sweet Home, 19-13 in enemy territory. The Warriors crushed Monmouth 34-0 while losing heart-breakers to Redmond, Cottage Grove, and Corvallis

In their last home game of the season, Lebanon lost a 19-13 decision to the Salem Vikings. After completing a pass to the Salem two-yard line in the fading seconds of the fourth quarter, the Warriors were unable to push over the winning touchdown.

This season a green Warrior squad with only three returning lettermen surprised football fans all over the valley by their vastly improved showing. The "green" Warriors piled up 139 points against 175 for their opponents—139 points as compared to 19 points last year!

This year sees only seven graduating seniors out of a ball club of 30. The seniors graduating this year are: Len LaFond, right half-back; Gordon Barnes, left half-back; Kirby Avrit, fullback; Burl Lott, left half-back; Keith Richard, center; Jim Saxton, left guard; Gerald Siewell, right guard.

Returning lettermen for next year are: Monte Seigner, Joe Sprague, Don Carroll, Henry Erdwins, Don Scheler, Ken Kirkelie, Murvel Stone, Malcolm McBride, Bob Wilson, Vic Dixon, Ken Cooney, Jack Williamson and Larry Crenshaw.

The names of the players in the center of the previous page are as follows:

Third Row: Joe Sprague, Malcolm McBride, Kenneth Kirkelie, Burl Lott, Ken Cooney, Jacob Stevahn, Robert Wilson, Don Carroll.
Second Row: Jack Williamson, Kirby Avrit, Daryl Fort, Jim Smith, Frank Lindsay, Murvel Stone, Jim Saxton, Dick Anderson.

Wrestling

Wrestling, now four years old in Lebanon High, had its most successful year this year.

Under the highly respected and experienced coaching of Mr. Wells, the Warriors again put out one of the top teams in this district. Out of eleven matches, Lebanon won eight while dropping two to Albany and one to Klamath Falls.

In the district wrestling meet, ten out of twenty qualified for the state tournament. Those placing in district were: Jimmy Beaton, 105 pounds, placed second; Ike Winningham, 105 pounds, placed fourth; J. C. Thorpe, 123 pounds, placed second; J. D. Griffith, 136 pounds, placed first. Carrol Lindsey, 141 pounds, placed fourth. Lyle Larson, 148 pounds, placed fourth; Melvin Darby, 168 pounds, placed second; Lee Evans, 157 pounds, placed third; Joe Sprague, 178 pounds, placed second; Warren Scott, 178 pounds, placed fourth.

The Senior lettermen for this season are J. C. Thorpe, Christie Messmer, Jimmy Ayers, Gordon Barnes, Warren Scott, and Glenn Nofziger.

Returning lettermen to support the team next year will be: Gary Parks, Raymond Richard, Jimmy Beaton, Ike Winningham, J. D. Griffith, Carrol Lindsey, Lyle Larson, Lee Evans, Don Scheler, Melvin Darby, and Joe Sprague.

"A" Squad Basketball

The 1952-1953 basketball season may not be outstanding for the number of games won, but it did produce some of the most spectacular games ever seen by local fans. Our boys gave some of the strongest teams in the state the very keenest of competition.

With only three returning lettermen, Victor Dixon, Don Chamberlain, and Dale Hasenyager, Coach Bud Page had to depend on less experienced players for much of this year's team. Paced by these three lettermen were Kenny Kirkelie, guard, Donnie Carrol, guard, Mervel Stone, guard, Malcolm McBride, forward, Richard Connet, forward, and Keith Richard, forward.

Monte Seigner turned in a commendable performance in the position of reserve center when Dick Cieslak moved away shortly after the season began. Other "B" squad players who showed themselves worthy of mention with the "A" squad were Benny Monroe and Dick Christensen. Outstanding characteristics of the Warrior ball players were: the jumping of "Vic" Dixon, the speedy ball handling of "Merv" Stone, the hook shots of Dale Hasenyager, the beautiful two-hand jump shots of Captain Don Chamberlain, and "Mac" McBride's dead-eye for the basket. The only casualty of the season was Donnie Carrol's broken finger which didn't prevent him from participating in the closest of games.

Following the season's opener with Junction City, the annual Jamboree was held at Sweet Home with Sweet Home and Lebanon representing the East, and Corvallis and Albany representing the West. The game ended in bedlam as the Lebanon Warriors almost narrowed the score to a victory for the East. However, the West maintained their lead to win this classical fracas. Lebanon did prove itself to be the outstanding team at the Jamboree by defeating Albany 22-17, and tying Corvallis 24-24.

The team made two trips to the coast; one ending in defeat, the other in victory. The first trip was to Coos Bay for a two-game weekend in which Marshfield proved itself worthy of being the champions of the state. They gave the Warriors the worst defeat of the season. In the next coast trip, the Warriors brought home better results, as they walked over Newport by a score of 52-42 and scalped Toledo by 17 points.

The season held many thrillers; the most heart-breaking one being with Lebanon's old rival, Albany. The Warriors were leading throughout the game with Albany hot on their heels. With a few seconds left, it seemed like a certain victory for Lebanon. But this seeming victory was turned into unbelievable defeat when Neil Causbie sank a field goal for the Bulldogs just before the whistle blew to give the final score a one point difference of 61-62 in favor of the opponents.

Tradition was upheld in the games with Salem. The Vikings captured the first win, but the Warrior came back in the second bout to score a 53-51 victory.

Captain Don Chamberlain took high scoring honors for his team this year with a total of 290 points. Malcolm McBride followed him with 253 pints, and Dale Hasenyager basketed 227 points.

Track

Four wins and three losses! Coach Earl Gerfen agrees that the 1953 track season wasn't bad at all. This year's team, composed of many underclassmen, shows much promise for the future. With only five returning lettermen, the team proved to be one of the best balanced squads in recent years. McBride, hurdler de luxe, broke school records in the high hurdles and low hurdles; Dixon, another Mathias, threatened school records in the shot put, discus, broad jump, and high jump. Blacketer and Hudlow were good for points in the distance events. Nicholas, a freshman, shows promise in the pole vault. Gentry proved to be a pleasant surprise in the 440. Vandiver held his own in the dashes. Seigner, Richard, and Wilson put the shot. McCrary, Darby, and Standley tossed the javelin. Gatchell, Griffith, Diercoff, and Malick ran the 440. Snyder and Wilcox were milers. Nicholas, Hammer, Fenner, and Garrett ran the dashes and hurdles. Fort and Stitt pole vaulted. Members from Lebanon, in the class "A," District 5, championship in track and field events, held at Spartan Field in Corvallis, on May 8, 1953 are:

Dixon, 2nd place in discus, 3rd place in high jump, 5th place in broad jump.

McBride, 2nd place in low hurdles (180 yards), 4th place in high hurdles (120 yards), 6th place in broad jump.

Gentry, 2nd place in 440; Nicholas, 3rd place in pole vault; Richard, 5th place in shot put; Hudlow, 5th place in 880; Blacketer, 6th place in mile.

The relay team got 5th place in the district. This team was composed of four boys, each running 220 yards, Norman Vandiver, Vernon Gentry, Victor Dixon, and Malcolm McBride.

Only three boys got to go to state. They are Victor Dixon (discus), Malcolm McBride (low hurdles), and Vernon Gentry (440).

Baseball

This year's Warrior baseball team, having only three returning lettermen, did not have a very successful season.

The team this year was very young, consisting of eleven sophomores, one junior, and three seniors. The three seniors graduating this year are: Captain Don Schaefer, pitcher; Jim Saxton, right fielder; and Christie Messmer, third base.

Returning men for next year are: Wayne Lamphere, Eddie Neustel, Paul Kratzke, Benny Monroe, Charlie Pless, Donnie Carroll, Nick Nicholas, Larry Hoover, Jim Smith, Darrell Bishop, Jerry Morrow, and Ken Kirkelie.

The Lebanon High School baseball team was coached by Bob Kane. Mr. Kane is building a team of sophomores, and in the future, the team should do well.

Lebanon started the season by defeating Scio 4-2. After that the Warriors lost the remainder of their games, chiefly through the lack of experience.
