A Time For Students

Student Body Officers

In a school year of identity struggles, the duty of the school leaders, to maintain a smooth student government, became a challenge. To satisfy the 1600 students yet compromise with the administration, communication became the key.

We conducted an all-student assembly without the faculty present. The dress code and student involvement were the controversial subjects discussed. Few opinions were changed, yet communication was achieved. After many years of planning the student lounge was completed. An outdoor patio was also constructed. Class council was formed to promote representation and provide a direct channel to student council. In an attempt to encourage awareness of the pollution problem, L. H. S. created an environmental awareness week.

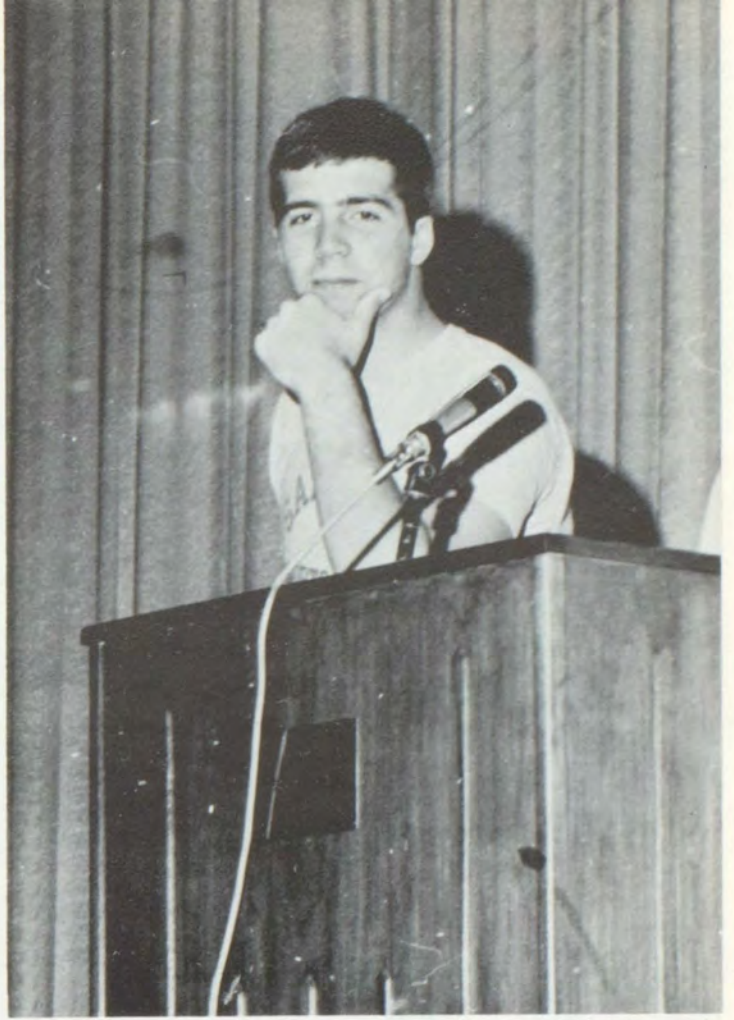

Without the help of the other student body officers this year could not have been as fruitfull. I have really enjoyed serving with Doug Robbins and his pet turtle who he would race to student council, Carol Johnson (whom I personally taught how to spell), and Vicki McCallie who won first place for the highest bouncing checks in the district.

A. F. S.

To all my friends at LUHS:

Parting is such a sweet sorrow. My friends, I hate to say good-bye because it is so sorrowful to leave all the friends I have made in this land. I hope I did not make friends for myself alone but for both my family at home and my "Dear Rhodesia".

I will probably never meet some of you again in life, but nonetheless the mark you put on my life this particular year will never be erased until death doth part me with this earth.

As you and I venture in life, I hope memories of this year will bring back smiles on our faces. Good luck to all as you will strive to achieve your goals.

I would like to leave you with this poem.

YOUR FRIENDSHIP

There has been something in your friendship
 Very sweet for rainy days--
 'Tis been your thoughtfulness in finding
 What I liked in little ways
 And of doing one by one,
 Things that others leave undone.

There has been something in your friendship
 Sane and strong and glad and true,
 Which made better worth the doing
 Everything I have done
 And your friendly words and smiles
 Somehow helped make life worthwhile.

There has been something in your friendship
 Very rare to find, my friends.
 'Tis been unselfishness in giving
 Without stint and without end;
 So there was—at least I learned.
 Love that asks for no return.

There has been something in your friendship
 That has stood through many a test,
 Giving me a sense of safety,
 Of security and rest—
 Friends of mine, my whole life through
 I'll be glad that I met you.

Homecoming

Queen Mary I is crowned by Senior Class President Gary Livesay.

Chas Holt leads the Warriors onto the field.

Lower Left: The exuberant crowd welcomes the Warriors.

The 1969 Homecoming began with spontaneous bursts of energetic spirit as a collage of students wound their way along the mains of Lebanon, chanting of victories for their undefeated Warriors. A record crowd was taken in for a game that was rated "The game of the season" as the Warriors met the Albany Bulldogs.

The senior class was presented a trophy for their talented efforts in designing a trio of floats following a theme of "Here, There, and Everywhere". Halftime was enhanced by the memorable coronation of Queen Mary I and her royal court consisting of: Maid of Honor LaVerne Suter; Honorary Princess Nyepu Hodzi; Junior Princess Carol Kenagy; Sophomore Princess Becky Cray; and Freshman Princess Ann Daugherty.

The second half of the game continued as the Warriors lost to the Bulldogs marking their first defeat of the season. Following the game students relaxed to the music of the "Grains of Sand" at a rally dance, thus ending the evening of pride and enthusiasm.

Lebanon's annual Spirit Week, which continued into the Jamboree games, began boisterously with each class setting out to prove its abundance of spirit. As custom at LHS each class competed in trying to create the most spirit, with posters, buttons and programs, in specific class colors. The senior class chose red to express their efforts in spirit, the juniors adopted blue, traditionally leaving the sophomores with green and the freshmen, orange. The yearly Spirit Week trophy was awarded to the senior class for their outstanding leadership in spirit and patriotism.

Highlighting Spirit Week was the annual basketball jamboree which marked the beginning of the 1969-70 season. There the LHS Pep Club and cheerleaders presented a rally routine to a combined version of "Hyawatha" and "Synchopated Clock" under the theme of "Time to Fight". As the Warriors finished the opening tournament with a 3-0-1 record, enthusiastic fans looked forward to a very promising season

Twirp Week

ATTENTION: The Woman Is Responsible For Paying.

"Romeo! Oh Romeo! Where for art thou Romeo?" These were the words of Lebanon girls as the annual Girls' League sponsored twirp week began November third. Under the theme of "A Time for Us", the Juliets began using their talents by writing poems, making cookies and presenting boutonnieres to their Romeos. A twirp rally dance followed the last football game of the season, a 26-0 defeat of Sweet Home. Music was provided by the "Ingredients Unknown" and as girls fumbled for tickets and boys blushed in embarrassment, both agreed that the former tradition of "boy treats girl" is much more effective.

Chivalrous Dave Munsey greets his twirp date completely decked out with candy and flowers.

"Why, I twirped little ol' Danny Speas!" beams bashful Sharon Daugherty.

Winter Formal

"A Groovy Kind of Love" was the theme for the 1970 Winter Formal traditionally sponsored by the senior class. Reigning over the festivities were Queen Rhonda McAuliffe and escort Lloyd Johnson. Junior princess Terry Bresler, escorted by Dave Copley, sophomore Vickie Gerig escorted by Dalton Johnson and freshman princess Barb Hanen escorted by Malcolm Ross.

Decorated in an assortment of geometric designs and shapes in hot pink and black, the effect was extremely unique. Music for the occasion was provided by "The Sound Experience".

Left: "Rain drops keep falling on my head," notes Terry Sharp, while Joel Morgan waits joyfully hoping he'll get to dance with Belinda Duffield next.

Warrior Staff

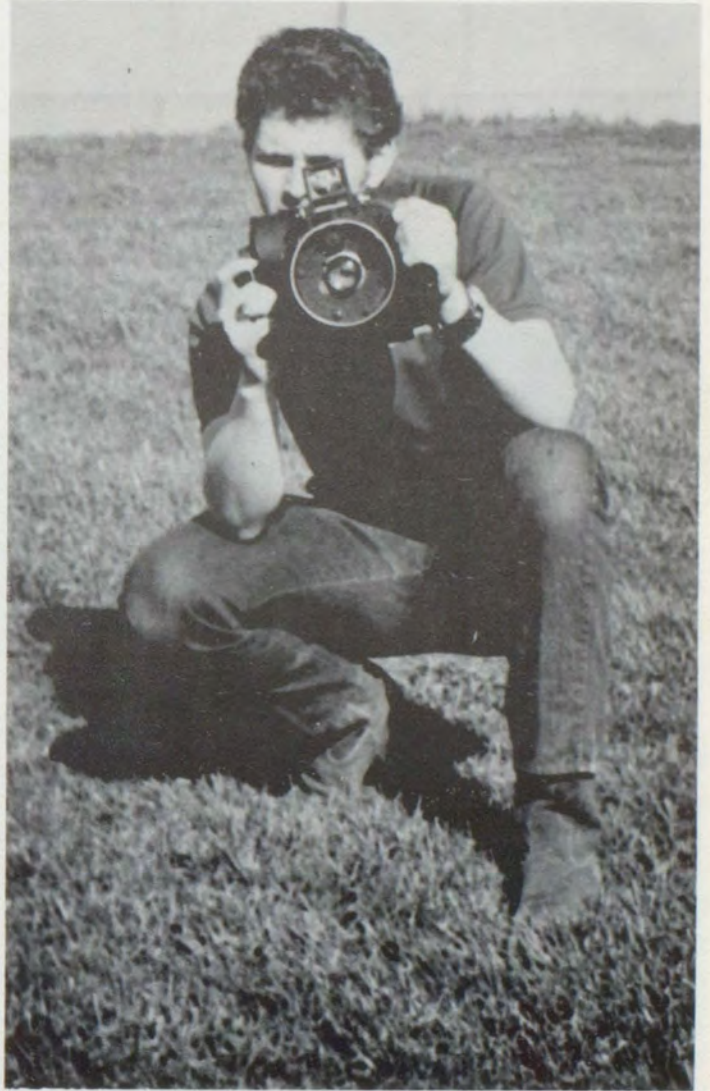

In trying to produce an annual for you, the annual staff has completely lost their heads. Front Row: Co-Business Manager-Carol Johnson, Co-Business Manager-Vicki McCallie, Editor-in-Chief-LaVerne Suter, Copy Editor-Cindy Fischer, Head Photographer-

John Bailey, Photographer-Larry White. Row Two: Mike Cowgill, Photographer-Chuck Ulm, Assistant Editor-Jan Rowell, Terry Bresler, Carol Kenagy, Peggy Barnhart, Photographer-Garo Wright.

The annual staff would like to extend thanks to those people who have helped us through-out the year. To Mr. Martin who gave us new ideas, encouraged us to meet our deadlines, and never hesitated to help us in any way. (Remember the paper-cutter?) To our printer, Dalton Johnson who understood our problems and gave so much of his time when it seemed that we only gave him trouble. To Coach Kilborn and Mr. Page for offering their help whenever it was needed, Mr. Burrige who endured us running in and out of the darkroom, and to the custodians who opened the doors for us in the middle of the night. A special thanks goes to Mr. Cullison for helping us finish out our year. THANK-YOU to all who have helped in any way!

"It's a new style in anklets!" explains Vicki McCallie as she makes it back to school after a two-week spring vacation, just in time to unravel all the red tape of annual sales.

The Warrior tribesmen began a thrilling season with optimism prevailing in their state ratings. Under the leadership of Coach Gleason Eakin, the Warriors experienced the pitfalls of unexpectedness, finishing their season with a 5-4 record.

The Warriors, a well-balanced team, demonstrated to the townspeople the reason for their high rating in the state by crushing the Bend Lava Bears, 33-20, in their first game. Scoring honors went to "crazy-legs" Donn Spady who made three touchdowns the hard way and senior halfback Jerry Gazeley who shagged two scoring aerials, from quarterback Rick Hayes.

For game two, the state ranked Redskins migrated south for their meeting with the Klamath Falls Pelicans. The Warrior machine minus all-district picks Jerry Sinclair and Donn Spady, again proved victorious. Each member of the entire squad did his part, and more, to add points as Jerry Gazeley scored two touchdowns, junior Bob Schackmann intercepted three passes in crucial moments and Bob Chandler and Larry Summers made bone crushing, key, fourth down tackles to squeak by with a 14-13 win.

McNary then came to Lebanon for the first league encounter for the Warriors. To all it appeared that Coach Eakin's team was out to take the District title in spite of the odds, by coasting to an easy 27-15 victory. The tough Warriors defense, lead by Bob Chandler and Chas Holt set up two touchdowns, by recovering a fumble and blocking a punt. Donn Spady sprinted for two touchdowns, while Jerry Gazeley charged up the middle for six points. The combination of Hayes to Robbins completed the final touchdowns.

The sky-high Warriors, out to prove they were number one ripped the Crater Comets 30-6. The Warriors spirit and pride might best be expressed on the first play of the game, as Bob McCrary smashed the frightened ball carrier, causing him to fumble while the alert Warriors recovered the pigskin and marched in for a score. Lebanon scored the first four times they had possession of the ball and substituted freely throughout the second half. Layne Adams received his first taste of glory when he scored from two yards out. The Hayes and Spady duo put 18 points on the board while Doug Robbins converted three of the four extra points and a 34 yard field goal.

The biggest game of the year was to be played on Homecoming which turned out to be dooms day for the tribe. Three times Lebanon failed to score inside the 20 while the Bulldogs' drives passed the goal line for 34 points. Late in the second half the Warriors finally scored as Spady raced for a 33 yard touchdown. The final score was 34-6, Albany.

The next three games proved disastrous for Coach Eakin's Indians. In three outings the tribe was dropped three times by a margin of ten or more points. The first of the three losses were to the South Salem Saxons. A history of Warrior defeats gave the extra incentive needed to penetrate the tough Warrior line twice. Lebanon's fight end, Doug Robbins converted a field goal to end the scoring 13-3, Saxons.

The once confident Warriors, losing what they had strove so hard for, seemingly out of reach for "state", lost their third straight game to North Salem by a 22-13 count. Lebanon called a big rally in the fourth quarter in which Rick Hayes passed for two touchdowns, but it wasn't enough to overcome their Viking opponents.

Once again the Varsity Redskins were on the road playing Corvallis at Parker Stadium. The Spartans, bidding for the District title were up and ready for the hapless Warriors. Corvallis led, 28-0, at the half. Coach Eakin's squad came back under work-horse Donn Spady and scored two successive touchdowns making the score 28-14, Cornvalley. The Spartans put the game out of reach by scoring two quick six pointers in the fourth quarter. The final score was Lebanon 23, Corvallis 42.

The final game of the year was against Sweet Home's Huskies. The second quarter proved disastrous for the Huskies when Lebanon made two touchdowns of 58 and 80 yards to pave the way for the predicted victory. The third and fourth quarters were played by reserves and JV's who moved up for the game, added six more points for the Tribe, blanking the Huskies, 26-0.

Gary Grieve watches as the pigskin he booted crashes through a swimming pool window.

Donn Spady looks for help as Jerry Sinclair zeros in for a block against North Salem.

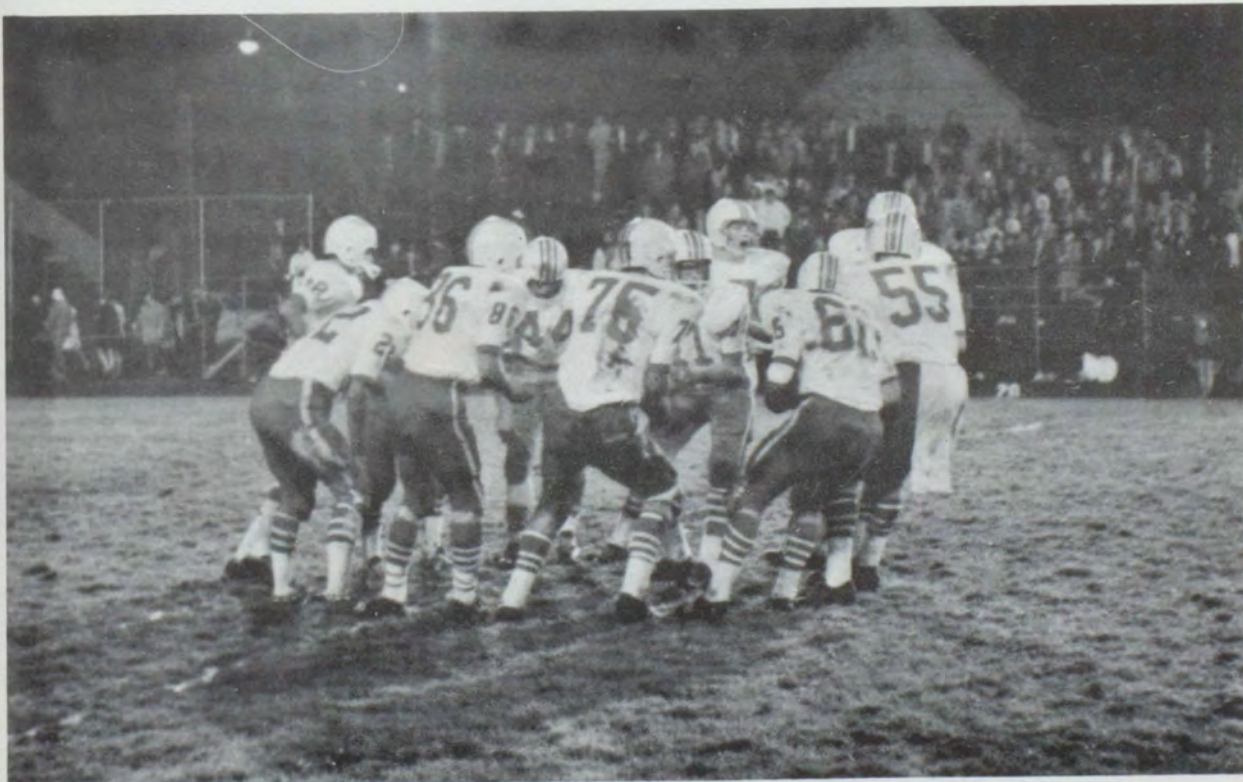

Gary Grieve experiences another block punt.

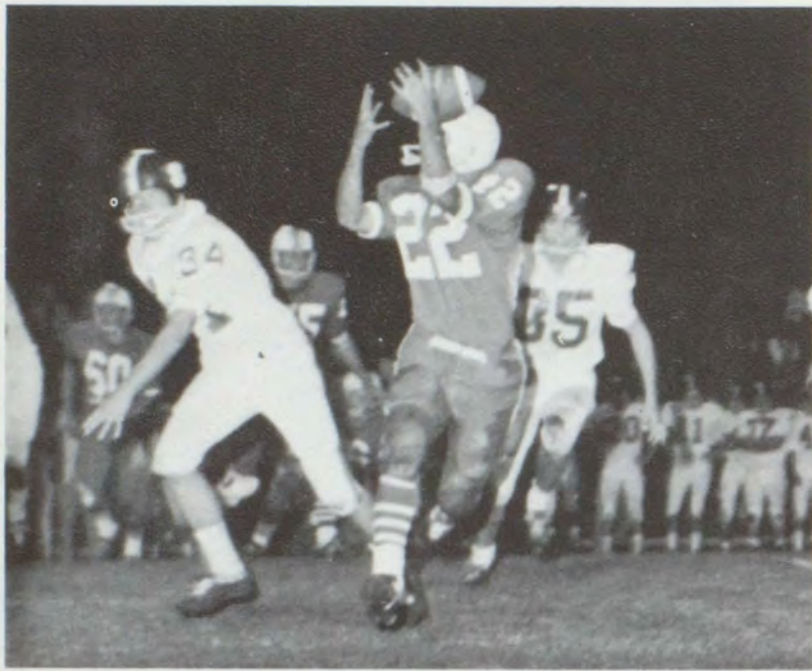

"I am too supposed to be here." exclaims manager, Larry Draper.

"All for one and one for all!"

Lebanon's Varsity cross country team began their 1969 season with returning seniors Dan Speasl, Steve Lawrence and Roger Carlson. The Warrior harriers marked a fine record of five wins and three losses closing their campaign placing fourth in district.

The Warriors got off to a bad start with losses to both McNary and Corvallis but promptly redeemed themselves by defeating South Salem, Albany and North Salem in consecutive meets. They then moved on to a triangular meet with Albany and South Salem placing first once again. After traveling again to Sweet Home and Corvallis the Warriors met a duel defeat, losing to both Huskies and Spartans.

Chris Bates was noted for his outstanding achievement of breaking the River Park course record in 13.48 minutes. The Lebanon Squad continues to show great potential for future years with the active athletic achievements of it's underclassmen.

"Now wait a minute,...." interrupts Coach Barry Adams.

Jerry Sinclair — Forward

"Did you see that?" asks Dennis Dunmeyer to Mike Cowgill as number 50 waves to a UFO. Wayne Miller grasps the beam as he shoots for another basket.

"It's all in the wrist," explains Jerry Gazeley as he takes aim on the bucket.

"Hey let go of my foot!" exclaims Jerry Sinclair in a Husky scramble.

"You can do it," urges most inspirational player Mike Cowgill.

"Gottcha" quips Dave Copley, most valuable player, giving the ball a big kiss.

Rick Hayes dashes through without getting caught during a Saxon game of London Bridge.

Dave Robertson, voted best defensive player, steals another ball for a perfect lay in.

Led by pride, spirit, and hustle, eleven varsity Warriors began the season hoping to bring a new tradition of basketball prowess to Lebanon. Coach Barry Adams, in his third season as Lebanon hoop mentor, instilled a deep desire and intensity that produced a hard-earned 9-13 record.

The Warriors suffered the loss of senior starter Rick Hayes early in league play and were constantly plagued by injuries and sickness. Pacing the squad in scoring and rebounding were Doug Robbins, Honorable Mention All-District, and junior Dave Copley, All-District center.

The campaign started off in grand style with the Warriors dumping highly touted Silverton, 49-43.

After losing to Albany, 59-58, in a thrilling league opener, the Warriors came back to destroy South Salem 62-50, and bomb Sweet Home 60-47, before the holiday break.

The hustling Warriors downed the Huskies three times this season. Scoring in the series was led by Dave Copley, Doug Robbins, Dave Robertson, and Dennis Dunmeyer.

South Salem also continued under the Lebanon hex as the Warriors rolled over the Saxons three times increasing the consecutive Indian winning streak to seven over the baffled Saxons.

The highlight of the season came in the final game with Albany. The sky-high ball players, displayed a tough, ball-hawking, zone defense and balanced scoring demolished the Bulldogs 55-33, severely hampered their playoff hopes.

Lost to graduation are seniors Jerry Gazeley, Rick Hayes, Randy Jantzi, Doug Robbins, Dave Robertson and Jerry Sinclair.

The team had an intense desire and common will that formulated a fierce competitive spirit. Inspired by school pride they helped carve the path for future Warrior teams.

Once again Lebanon proved to be one of the toughest wrestling teams in the state. Lead by Coach Dick Weisbrodt and Coach Donn Carroll, the Warrior Grapplers finished the 1969-70 season with an impressive 18-6 overall win-loss record. The Warriors finished the dual meet season with an outstanding 8-1 win-loss record to be Co-District Champions tied with South Salem.

The Warriors started the 69-70 campaign by dropping a young Canby team by a score of 42-13. The Lebanon team traveled to Portland and finished second in the Marshall Tournament behind a strong David Douglas team. Traveling to Newberg to seek revenge from a 30-19 setback dealt to them last year, the Warriors continued their winning streak by coming out on top with a close score of 23-22. Before going on Christmas Vacation, the Warriors once again prepared for action when they traveled to Canby to participate in the Canby Tournament. The Warriors returned home, coming in second.

Returning from vacation, the Warrior went on the warpath by downing the Sweet Home Huskies 45-10. The Warriors ran into trouble at a very tough Rex Putnam tournament and ended up third, behind Rex Putnam and Newberg. Later, Lebanon downed Corvallis, Redmond, North Salem and McNary by scores of 23-22, 24-22, 34-17, and 23-22 respectively. The Warriors next trounced the Albany Bulldogs 34-14 and took their own tournament just edging McNary by a close score of 41-40. The Warriors, faced a possibility of a perfect record for the season when they met a very stout South Salem squad. Unfortunately the Saxons came out on top by a score of 24-20.

After the Saxons win, the Warriors went south to capture a tough Marshfield tournament Championship, upsetting the third place team in the state, North Bend, by a score of 36-35.

The Lebanon team began to prepare for District 8 competition. After two days of tough wrestling, the Warriors placed second sending five wrestlers to the state tournament. The Warriors had four District 8 Champs: Dan Speasl — 115, Robin Belveal — 123, Gary Dahl — 130 (named outstanding wrestler), and heavyweight Dean Courtney. Craig Nelson placed second at 191 lbs.

The Warriors finally set out for the State tournament held at Gill Collisium. Running into rough wrestling, Dan Speasl was the single wrestler left to compete in the second day. Speasl won his Semi-final match and earned a chance at the State Championship. Speasl finished second, leaving no Warriors in the top ten. Though, the Warriors did not place in State, they did beat Newberg twice, North Bend and Redmond who all placed in the top five at State.

The Warriors were hindered all year by injuries which began with Bob Chandler nursing a football injury and Dan Calahan out because of a knee injury early in the season. Duane Ray and Keith Olmstead also with knee injuries returned to the Warrior lineup later in the season. Dalton Johnson suffered a seperated shoulder and was unable to compete in the District Tournament.

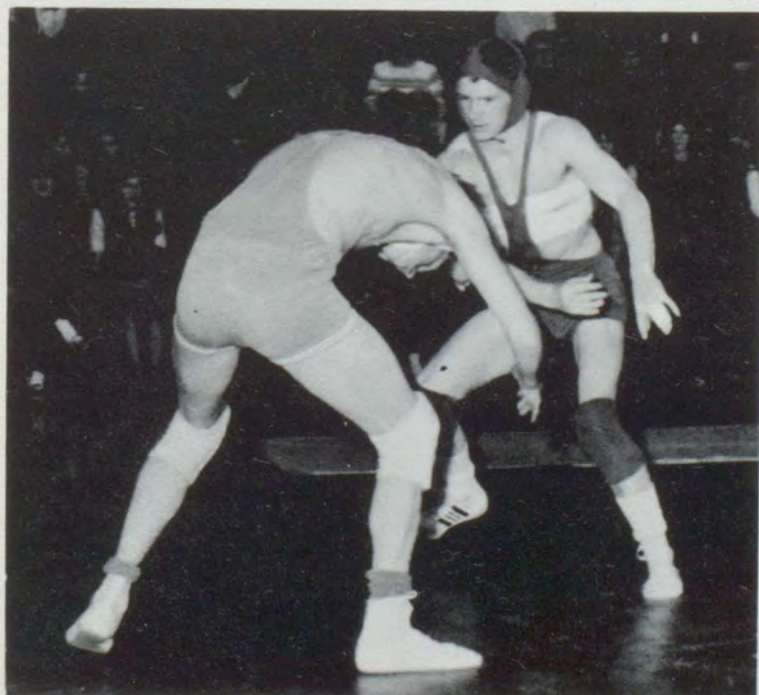

The Warriors look forward to a young team next year for they lose nine seniors. Returning lettermen, however, will be Steve Ditterick, Bob May, Jon Powell, Gary Dahl, Dalton Johnson, Kurt Fritz, Duane Ray, Mark Cox, and Joe Egner pointing to a potentially great future.

Varsity Baseball

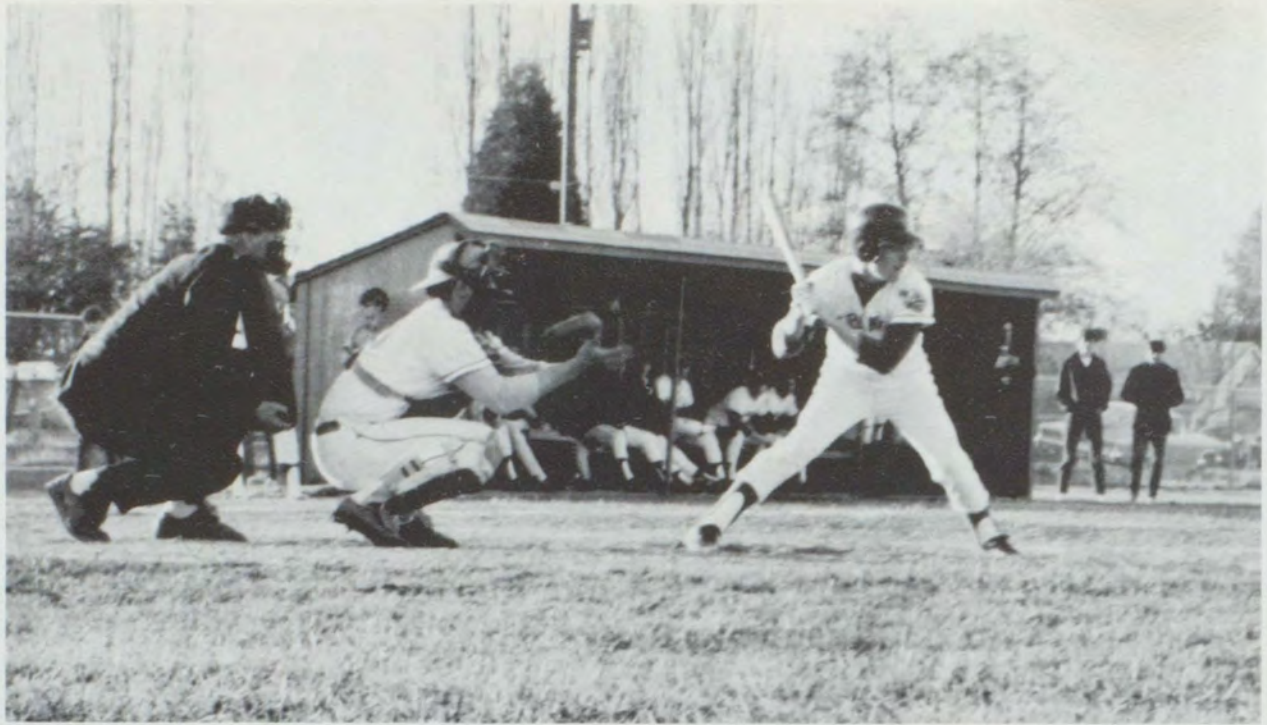

Wayne Zurmely, Dave Copley, Steve Lalley, Rick Hayes, Jim Luoto, and Ron Wolfe.

Coach Bill Croco, in his first year as varsity baseball coach, led a highly spirited group of Warriors to a very successful season. With the experience of nine returning lettermen the diamond crew jelled into a competitive group that became a league contender.

The powerful offensive attack was consistently led by catcher Rick Hayes, first baseman Steve Lalley, third basemen Wayne Zurmely and outfielder Rick George. On the bases Dave Robertson and Ron Wolfe were always a threat with their adept base stealing.

The mound corps was led by ace right-hander and All-District candidate, Jim Luoto, and senior southpaw, Kevin Blanchat. Wolfe, Zurmely, Copley, and Bob Shimmin also got into the rotation with Copley firing a no-hitter against Stayton.

Top returnees off the Varsity next year will be Copley, Shimmin, Mike Kelly, Mike Rex, Zurmely, and Wolfe. With a fine Junior Varsity and Frosh squads on the way up, the future of Warrior baseball appears bright.

Take me out to the ball game.

The annual staff reserves this page to dedicate our 1970 yearbook to a most worthy advisor, Mr. Arthur Martin. Though his career involved directing the drama department, advising the "Hi-Light" staff, and teaching English, we feel that because of his devotion to pleasing and helping others he has never neglected any of his many departments.

A special thanks to Arthur Martin for the many words of encouragement brought our way throughout the year, by his optimistic and vibrant personality.

ARTHUR MARTIN

A Man of Courage

Brave and Unyielding.

A Man of Patience

Kind and Co-operative.

A Man of Character

Emotional and distinct.

A Man of Council

Solving problems, Helping all.

A Man of Integrity

Honest and above all Sincere.

A Man of Creativity

Ingenious, Talented and Original.

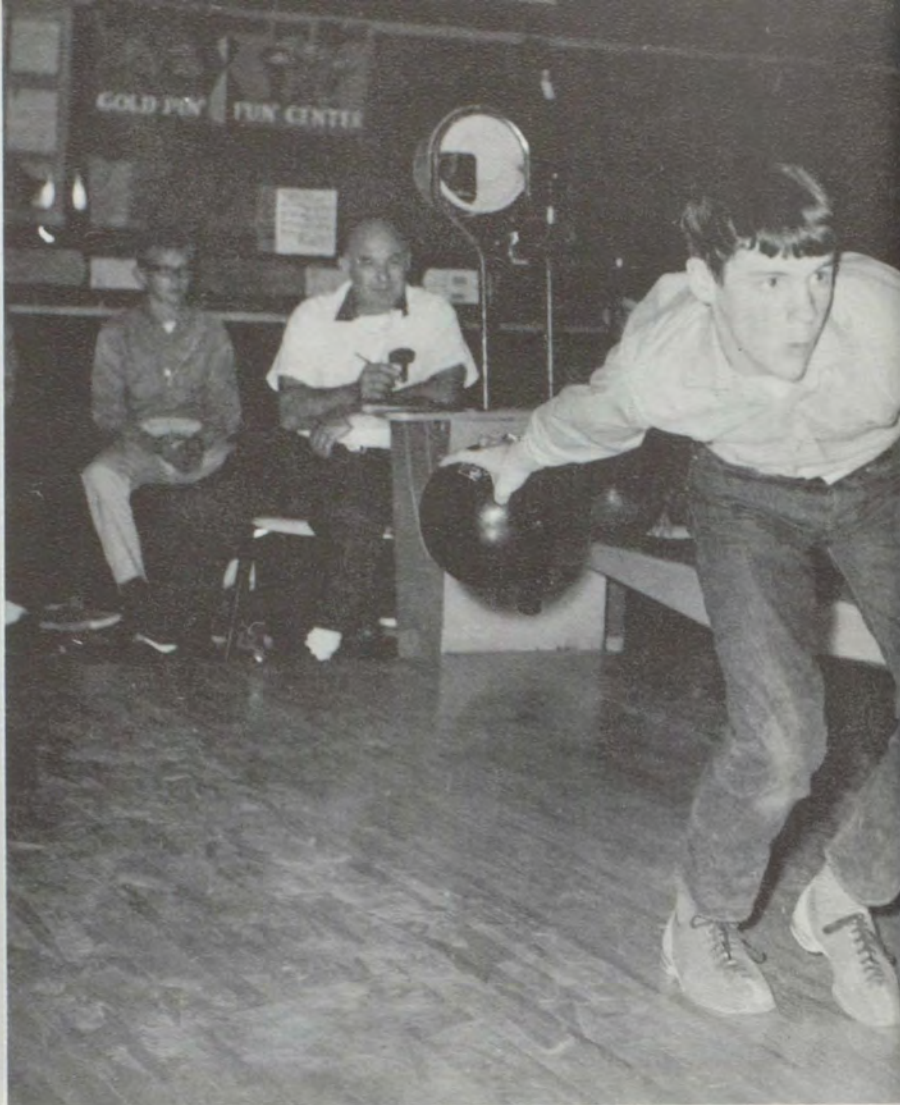

Arthur Martin

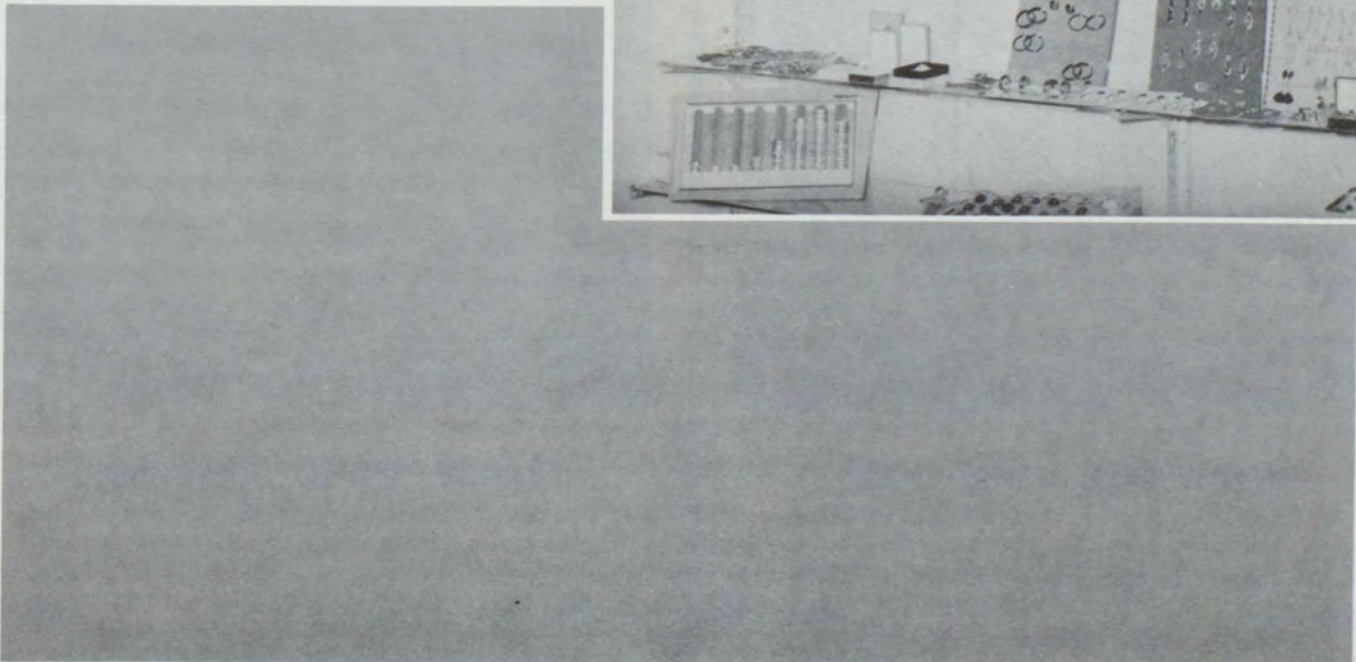

A Man of Trust, Friendship, and Devotion.

But most of all,

A Man we Admire.

A Time For Business

Times To Remember

We went on field trips discovering many things . . .

We paid attention . . .

. . . We each "did our own thing," trying everything to find what was right for us.

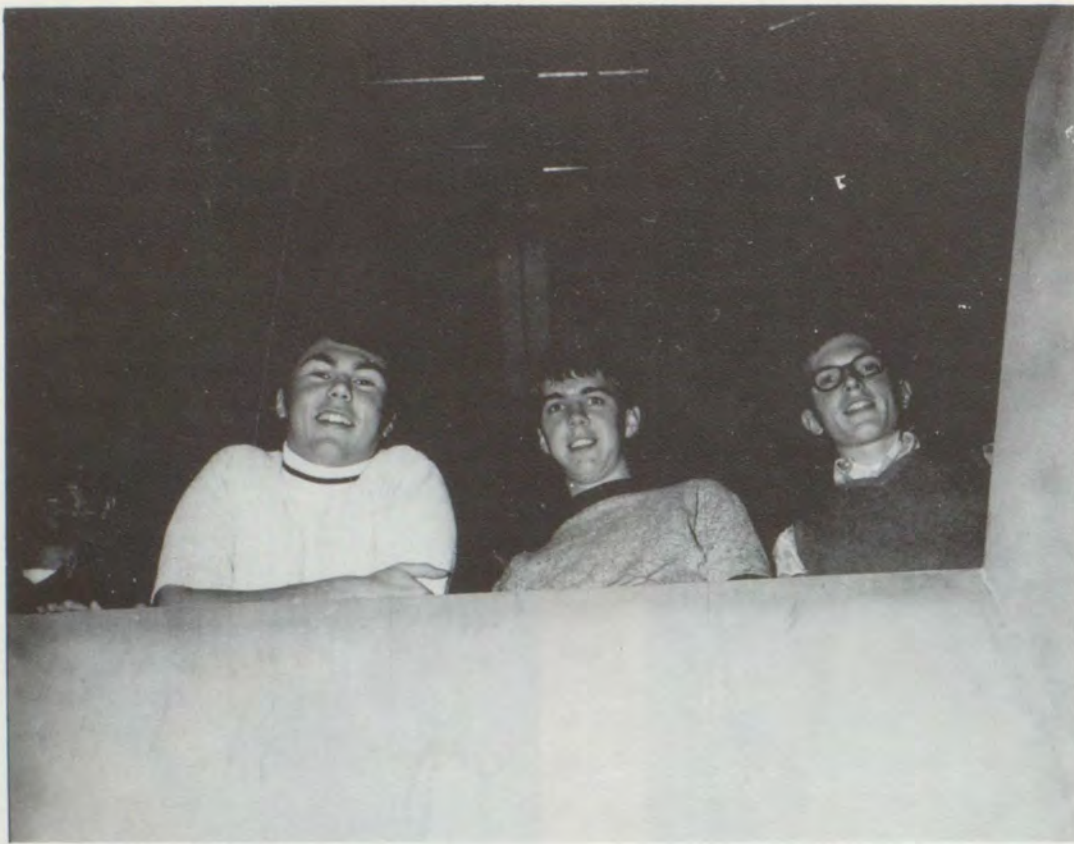

We grooved on Miss Garner, whose enthusiasm made it all fun.

absorbing knowledge . . .

. . . though sometimes our attention was really being held by Mr. Burrige's tree friends, Robert and Joyce.

Seniors finally got to look down on the rooks.

We learned to look at things in a new light and . . .

thought of new ideas.

We found new friends and . . .

kept the old.

We got together in the long-awaited student lounge

and . . .

kept our fingers crossed for the completion of a new wing.

The devotion dedicated by Pep Club girls showed the teams we really cared.
