LEBANON UNION HIGH SCHOOL

LEBANON, OREGON

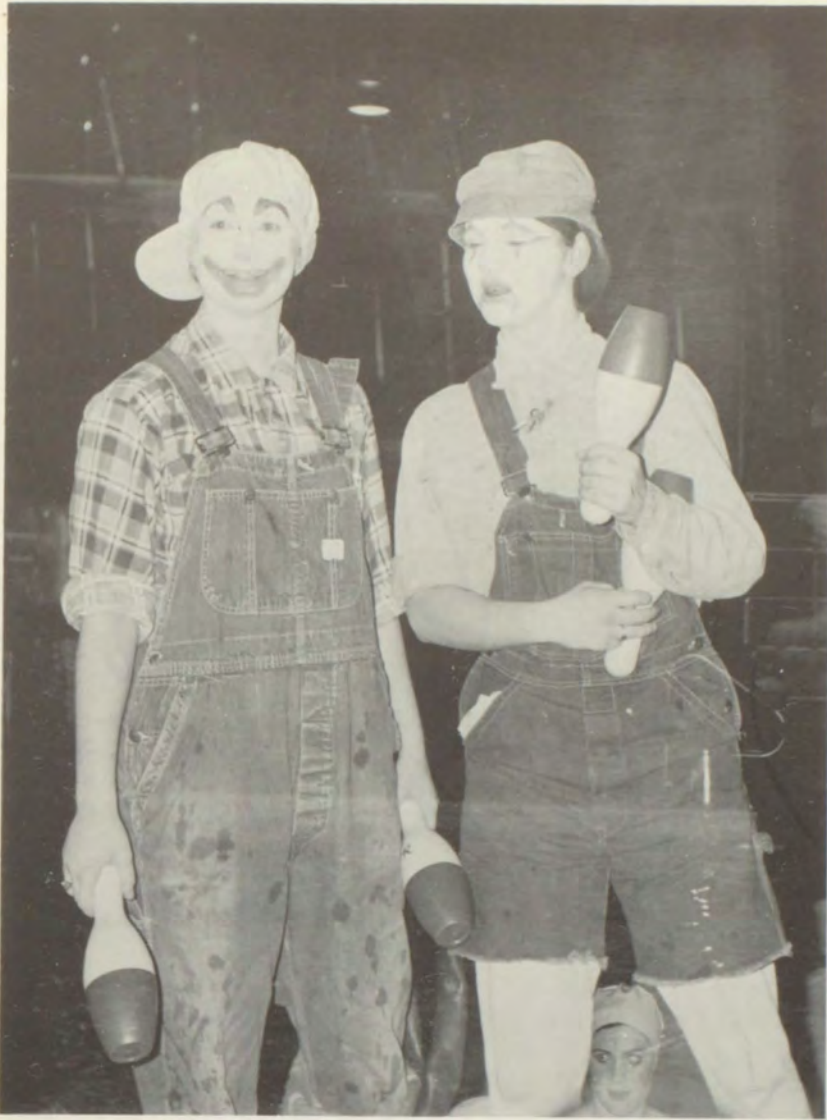

VOLUME XL

WARRIOR 1971

Youth
Destined to create
the future of our country.
Time
Rushing by,
waiting for no one.
Youth
Learning in order to prepare,
for tomorrow comes quickly.
Leaders
Each in his own way,
trying to better lives.
Will we do as well?
Today's Youth — Tomorrow's Leaders

Youth
 Pursuing the truth,
 in ways open only to youth.
 Involvement
 Shouting the awareness of young minds to all who can still listen and learn.
 Youth
 Pleading to be confided in,
 consulted with,
 eager to teach
 and be taught.
 Leaders
 Struggling to erase the existence of the words
 "I don't want to get involved".

Youth

Conversing through actions
when words fail
to enter minds.

Activity

Satisfying, rewarding, when being done for unselfish reasons or a cause worth fighting for.

Youth

Defying anyone to break
an unbendable spirit.

Leaders

Weakening under a burden of countless "major" decisions.

Youth
Determined in their own goals;
driven to individual successes.

Spirit
Pulsating, exhilarating, binding 1,600 Warriors
together.

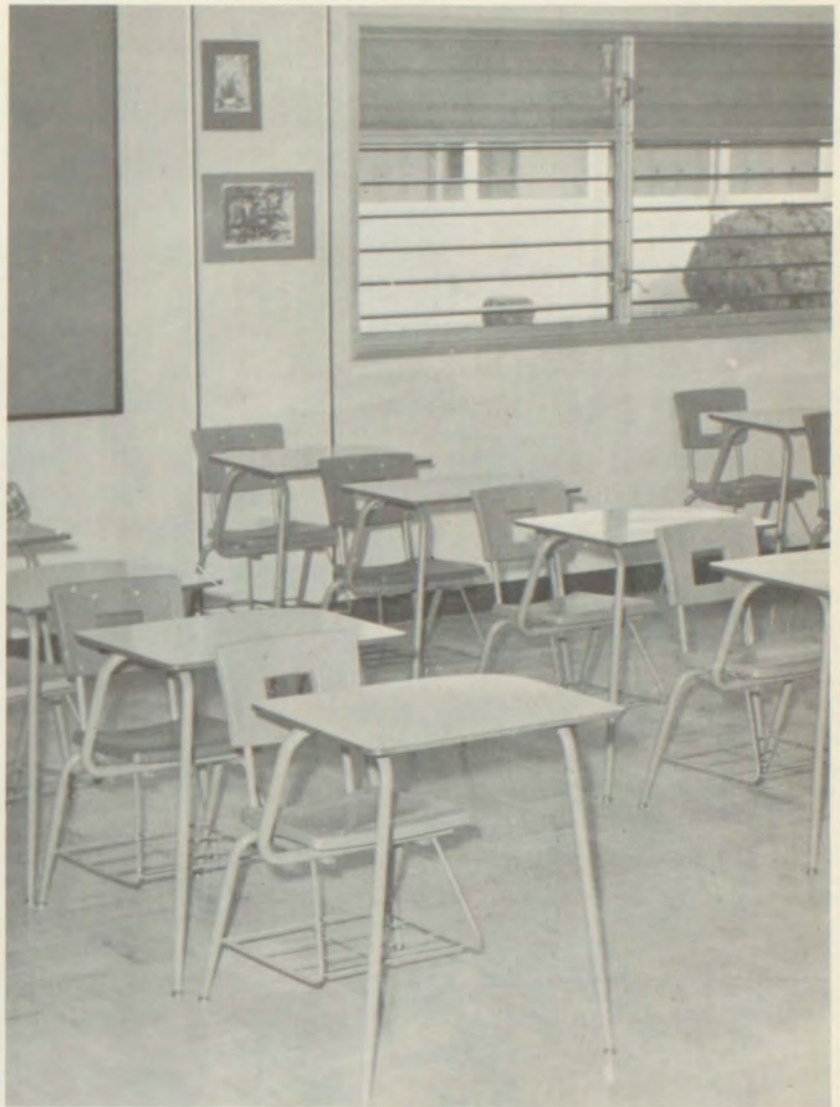

Youth
Achieving because of a pleading need or a binding obligation.

Youth
Bewildered,
confused at a sometimes
cold, harsh world.
Establishments
Firm, upstanding,
but shaken by a "Modern" World
which sometimes forgets
even the oldest commandments.
Youth
Reaching for a steady grasp and finding a war they don't understand and did not create.
Leaders
Placing pieces of a puzzle together, trying to unite a chaotic world.

Youth
Here,
only for an instant,
gone as quickly as the seasons
in which they play.

Novices
Looking only to the future,
realizing the past is only a haunting spirit.

Youth
Moving onward to fill vacancies,
not complaining,
just accepting facts.

Leaders
Hoping the paths they've cleared,
will be wide enough,
merely guessing at the problems
yet to come.

Student Life and Leadership

Youth

Searching for elusive words that say what is important and must be heard.

Communication

Causing endless gaps
between countries,
between generations.

Youth

Silently screaming
the urgency of the present and all that it holds.

Leaders

Listening, but not hearing,
though straining to understand.

Student Body Officers

Fellow Students;

Along with this new decade comes a new role for the student. Young people are now being given the opportunity for new responsibilities which they are accepting with enthusiasm. We feel that the students at LUHS are not only included in this movement, but its real leaders. As we, the officers, attended Legion VI and other meetings, visiting and talking to officers from other schools, we found our school to be in the upper ten per cent. Our students are becoming aware of the fact that the students make the school. With this increasing awareness, we feel that Lebanon Union High students will strive harder and harder every year to achieve the ideals their school stands for. Because of this effort toward achievement, LUHS will produce leaders in our community, county, and state levels.

As I look upon my experiences this year, I would like to thank my officers for the tremendous job they have done. They have not only done capable work, but have set an example that would make any school proud. And, finally, to you, the students of LUHS, a special thanks for being the support you were this year, a support that I will remember with pride and dignity.

A. S. B. President

John Adams

Upper Right: Yell Queen Peggy Wells, flower of Lebanon Union High School.

Upper Left: Terry Bresler displays the technique of "One for you, two for me".

To all my friends at L. U. H. S.,

My year's stay in Lebanon has been an enriching one. Not only have I come to understand Americans but have also learned to appreciate them. I have broadened my life with new experiences and cleared all misconceptions, I only wish that you could come to Singapore and see what life is like there. You are quite right to think that life goes on very much the same way and we do have our problems too! After all, we do live on this universal planet - Earth.

Olivia Ong Siew Geok

Lower Right: Confucius say, "Clap three times".

Last summer in Germany I met many new ideas and attitudes, I found myself changing where it made sense, and learned to appreciate the ideas I didn't want to change. The most valuable lesson of life I learned is that people are universal. So what if a man looks or speaks different than I? He still has ambitions and opinions the same as I do, and he has also known loneliness, happiness, and friendship whether he is German, African, or American.

Mike Burrelle

Upper: Mike Burrelle, poses for the camera in his American-made suit.

Lower Left: Oli anxiously awaits the results of the "Miss Original Outfit" contest.

Lower Middle: Oli uses two pumpkin candles to make her way through the long, dark corridors of L.U.H.S.

Lower Right: Homecoming Honorary princess, Oli Ong, and escort Bob May watch their float self-destruct.

Registration

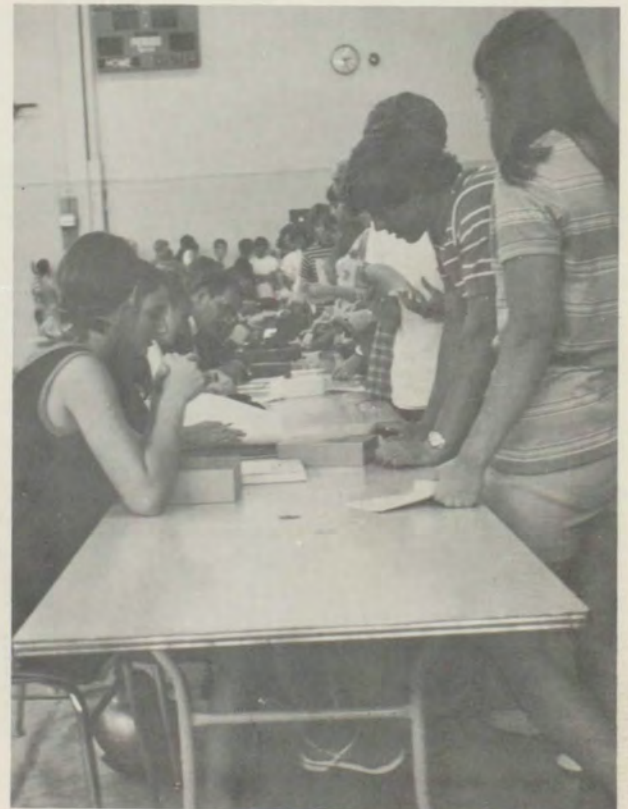

Registration was the beginning of a new and adventurous year. Timid Freshman faces roamed, what seemed to be, the never ending halls of L. U. H. S. Seniors began to experience the feeling of superiority, while the Juniors and Sophomores were getting acquainted with their new titles.

Right: Could you please tell me where Lebanon High School is?

Lower Right: What do you mean I can't take girl's P. E.?

Lower Left: Pegi Barnhart and Carol Kenagy prove the point that girls CAN handle money!

Pep Assemblies

Varsity Football members Ooh and Aah at the sexy cheerleaders.

Middle Right: "Is?"

Lower Right: Momma, Papa and baby Warrior?

*"How
the Warriors . . .*

Mums the word.

Upper Left: Mike Miller leads the charge against Corvallis.

Upper Right: Our enhancing Queen, Cheryl Anderlik takes the breath away from her escort Kurt Fritz.

Lower Right: Our proud chief observes the Warrior spirit.

. . . Won the West"

Upper Left: Escort Tom Harrington's eyes widen as the float comes closer to a telephone pole, Maid of Honor Debbie Tow ignores the situation.

Lower Left: Gina Tennant and Kelly Johnson grin as they experience their first Homecoming.

Upper Right: Escort Bob May thinks up another way to explain to our Honorary Princess Oli Ong just what Homecoming is.

Upper Right: Sophomore Princess Barb Hanen really had to twist Bruce Jones' arm to be her escort.

Top: The stars are falling!

Jamboree

Jamboree is a time of spirited unity between Lebanon, Sweet Home, Albany, and Corvallis. It is a time when the basketball teams are previewed as to their coming performances and a time when the colorful Pep Clubs of each school challenge one another in routines of excellence.

Lebanon's Pep Club was envied as they shouted their theme "Let's Get It All Together" and did just that, winning the coveted trophy for Pep and Rally. Spirit sticks highlighting crimson and blue and moving with precision as the pep band played away engraved memories of a truly spirited night.

Right: Warrioretts whoop it up at Jamboree.

Lower Left: Mr. Page! What are you doing in there?!

Spirit Week

Right: "WARRIORS ARE NO. 1!"

Lower Left: The posters of spirit week fill the halls of LUHS for the district wrestling match.

Lower Right: "Figero, Figero," sings Bill Badeau.

"The Mouse That Roared"

Bottom: Look Out! The lights are falling!

The play "The Mouse That Roared" dealt primarily with the tiny 14th century country of Grand Fenwick and their one and only means of making money- Pinot Grand Fenwick. A victum in California coppied the wine, the lable and was selling it at half their price. At this, Grand Fenwick declared war on the U.S. and captured the world's most powerful bomb, the Q bomb. Therefore Grand Fenwick became the most powerful nation in the world.

Upper Left: Eddie Dahl as Harold Hill, the Music Man and Conni Mangan as Marian Paroo.

Upper Right: Randy Arnold as Mayor Shinn and Elan Daily as Eulalie Mackecknie Shinn.

Middle Right: Ray Hendricks, Joe Dodson, Gordon Burtner, and Eston Way as the School Board.

Lower Right: Cast members show off the excellent choreography.

Under the direction of Lynda Garner and Mel Knight, perhaps one of the largest and best productions ever at LUHS came to be—"Music Man". Over 300 people were involved in the production of Meredith Wilson's two-hour musical comedy. Playing to a full house all three nights, April 15, 16, 17, the play was a success.

Upper Left: Sue Swehosky as Mrs. Paroo.

Top Middle: Sharon Belveal as Amaryllis and Marian sing "Goodnight My Someone."

Bottom Middle: Tim Winters as Charlie Cowell, the anvil salesman.

Upper Right: The people of River City, Iowa got "Trouble."

Center: The ladies of River City size-up the new item of gossip.

Middle Right: John Adams as Tommy and Lynn Hurd as Zannetta.

Middle Right: "What's that spot on your shirt, Marcellus?" queries Harold Hill.

Lower Right: "And he doesn't even know the territory!"

Hi-Q is a new activity for LUHS. It is competition between students with a high I. Q. Lebanon's team, consisting of Bob May, Glenn Daley, Phil Miller, and Wes Reynolds, participated with other Hi-Q teams and were on the Hi-Q television show in Portland, representing Lebanon well. Miss Fowler and Mr. Burrige coached the Warrior team throughout the year.

Upper Left: Stand-in Barb Pearce attempts to find the sum of $2+2$ with the help of Mr. Burrige.

Upper Right: Gadgets of the new age mystify Hi-Q members, Bob May and Glenn Daley.

Junior Miss

Top: Marge Gustine, Debbie Parks, Conni Mangan, Jan Rowell, Cheri Kottke, Terry Bresler, Betty Collin, Judy Van-Epps, and Christine Alexander.

Princess Betty Collin

Princess Pynne Looper

Princess Peggy Wells

Strawberry Fair Court

Princesses: Peggy Wells, Pynne Looper, Betty Collin, Terry Bresler, Debi Bell.

The Strawberry Fair court has a big responsibility in representing their town and community. Their duties mainly include traveling to various parades across the valley and attending banquets and teas. The girls meet many new faces and their experience as Strawberry princesses will imprint a lasting memory to their high school years.

Girls League Assemblies

Lower Right: John Adams and Karen Smith stop in for a picture before the Prom.

Upper Right: "Oh know! Don't say that Jon!" mumbled Bill Potter as he hits his head in embarrassment.

Wonder Bread helps you grow 12 ways.....Girls League helps you grow 11.

As a member of Girls' League I will strive to be:

Gracious in manner
In all things trust worthy
Respectful of others
Loyal in friendship
Sincere in purpose

Lending a helping hand
Ever courageous
Always dependable
Genuine through & through
Unselfish in service
Ever the best that a girl can be.

Special Assemblies

Upper Left: "Hey Man, I'm here today to rap with you about drugs," says one of the many speakers on drugs.

Upper Right: Mr. John Cartin displays one of the many posters offered by his company for the members of Girls' League to sell magazines.

Lower Right: The AFS students from around the area put on a special assembly during the noon hours and told about their countries.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of Lebanon High School went on their annual visitations on the week on Feb. 22nd. The girls visit elementary schools around the area. Some teachers which the girls work with permit them to actually teach the students. The jobs are mainly observing, correcting papers, helping students with work and reading to the children.

This is enjoyed by the FTA'ers as well as a great experience and educational. The Future Teachers hope they will be able to continue these visitations.

Coach Gleason Eakin heading into his fifth season as Warrior chief, set out to mold a group of young, eager athletes into a single unit fit for fierce varsity competition. With the leadership offered by the returning senior lettermen the 1970 football program at LUHS represented Lebanon in a fine manner.

The Warriors opened the 1970 football season by trekking to Bend to meet the Lava Bears. Under the guidance of junior quarterback Mike Rex and using the efforts of Dave Plagmann's three touchdowns the Warrior offense moved in high gear all evening. A spirited defense led by Duane Ray and Frank Swehosky put the clamp on the Lava Bears and Lebanon came out on top 25-12.

Lebanon entertained the Ashland Grizzlies the following week in the Warriors first home game of the year. Playing inspired football Lebanon scored first but gave up two touchdowns before the half to trail at intermission 14-7. Defense was the key in the early part of the second half but Ashland came to life late in the third period on scoring jaunts of 3 and 35 yards to ice the victory. A Dan Powell to Rob Shimin touchdown pass finished the scoring and left Lebanon on the short end of a 26-14 score.

Defense was the name of the game when the Tribe traveled to Roseburg for a non-league battle with the Roseburg Indians. The Warriors tough defensive secondary led by Ron Wolfe and Gary Solberg intercepted three passes as the Lebanon defense turned back the Roseburg attack. However, a 22 yard scoring run in the second quarter by a swift Roseburg halfback proved to be enough scoring punch as the Warrior offense failed to get untracked. The final score in an excellent ball game was Roseburg 7, Lebanon 0.

Lebanon journeyed south to meet the Crater Comets in their last nonleague test before the Valley League Season. Crater struck early and used a balanced attack to carve out a 20-7 halftime advantage over the favored Warriors. But at halftime a few "words of inspiration" fired the Tribe up and they came to in the second half looking for revenge. Behind the hardnosed running of Dave Plagmann and Rick Hayden Lebanon retaliated for a breathtaking come from behind 21-20 win over the Comets.

Coming off an exciting win over Crater, Lebanon was ready to meet North Salem and begin the always tough Valley League race. Playing on home turf the Warriors put in a sterling all-around performance. The offensive unit was paced by Rex, Hayden, and speedster Dan Hayes. Larry Summers, Pat Campbell, and a host of gang-tackling Tribe defenders held Lebanon in the game all the way. But North came from behind to score in the third period. The all-important conversion was good and the Vikings escaped with a narrow 14-13 win over the Warriors.

The Homecoming spirit prevailed throughout Lebanon as the Corvallis Spartans sporting a fine record and ranked number 2 in the state invaded Warriorville geared for combat. Both teams displayed strong defenses in what proved to be a very rugged, physical battle. Three bad snaps by the punting team were the main breaks of the game and enabled the Spartans to roll on 21-0 over the Tribe. Several weeks later Corvallis lived up to its reputation and won the state title.

Friday, October 30, South Salem came to town to battle the Warriors. The Saxons used a strong passing attack and an equally tough defense to squelch the Lebanon attack and keep alive a 15 year jinx over the Tribe. The final score was South 36, Lebanon 0.

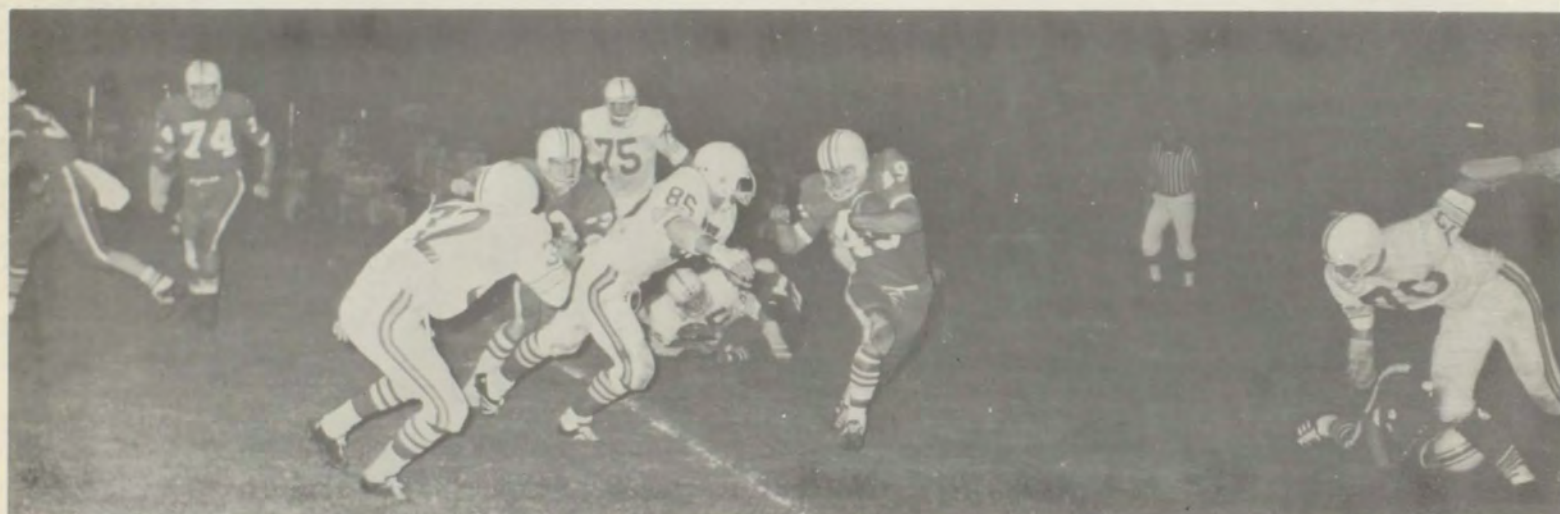

Against McNary early Lebanon miscues opened the door for the Celtics and they hit paydirt twice for a 14-0 first quarter lead. "Power running" halfback Dave Plagmann banged over the goal line in the second stanza to put the Warriors on the board, but that was the only offensive punch and the Celts went on to record a 26-6 league win over the Tribe.

The next week found the Tribe traveling to Albany to continue an ever-growing rivalry with the Bulldogs. Lebanon drew first blood on a nifty 22 yard reverse by junior wingback Dan Powell and took an early 7-0 lead. But with two first half touchdowns and a couple of 2 point conversions Albany took a 16-13 halftime lead.

In the second half fumbles, interceptions, and defensive miscues waylaid the Warriors and Albany went on to score a decisive 29-13 win over Lebanon.

Several Warriors received All-District honors. Ron Wolfe was named a first team All-District defensive back. On the second team were Mark Durlam, Duane Ray, and Mike Miller. Gaining Honorable Mention were Rick Hayden, Larry Summers, Gary Middlestadt, and Dave Plagmann.

The 1970 football season could best be described as a rebuilding year at LUHS. Many juniors and a large number of talented sophomores return as varsity lettermen next fall. The guidance and inspiration offered by this years hard-working seniors will undoubtedly be picked up by the younger Warriors and help make 1971 and future football seasons a huge success in Warriorville.

The Lebanon Warrior Swim Team showed continued improvement this year. The girls' team was a close second in the district and sent five swimmers to the state meet: Sara Sims, Ava Jan Christensen, Terry Bresler, Bobbie Duerr, and Susie Johnson. The boys' team also made a good showing and sent Phil Miller and Mark Smetana to state. Lebanon will lose only two girls and a few boys to graduation.

Intensity. Coach Barry Adams instilled this word into the hearts of 13 young men who formed this year's varsity basketball team. Coach Adams, in his fourth year as Warrior hoop mentor, used the abilities of eight seniors and several key underclassmen to form the nucleus of a winning ball club. Included in the eight seniors were four returning lettermen whose poise and cool manner under pressure held the Warriors together in times of trouble.

Late in February news of Corvallis's forfeiture of seven league games shook the Valley League. Suddenly the Tribe were thrown into a three way scramble with North and South Salem for the second berth to the state basketball tournament. South in picking up two wins via the forfeitures held the inside track with four games remaining with a record of seven wins and four losses. Lebanon and North both picked up one win and improved their records to six wins and five losses, and five wins and six losses respectively. After defeating McNary and South in crucial games the Warriors lost the berth on the final night of the season when they fell to Corvallis 74-69 while South whipped hapless McNary 70-55.

Early in January when the Valley League season began both coaches and players agreed that the race for the tournament would be a dog-fight to the end. In the league opener the Warriors used a tight man-to-man defense and disciplined offense to knock-off the number 2 rated North Salem Vikings 49-45. After losing to Albany the Warriors lost a couple of cliff-hangers to South Salem 47-44 and Corvallis 59-58 while destroying McNary at home 57-33.

In the second round the Tribe had rough going and collected only two wins. They squeaked by host McNary 52-49 and massacred South Salem 67-53. But the cagers league record fell to four wins and six losses after falling to North Salem, Albany in a thriller, and Corvallis. Dave Copley continued on the rampage as he pocketed 27 points against South and 26 against Corvallis.

North Salem again fell prey to Lebanon as the third round began. Wayne Miller, Jeff Edwards and Dale Middlestadt ignited a fourth quarter comeback to earn a 69-65 win. It was at this point in the season when Corvallis was forced to forfeit seven games. Although the Warriors were full of new life it would prove ironic that Corvallis would be the force to keep the Warriors from post season play.

As the season came down to its last week Lebanon trailed South by one game. However they quickly solved that situation by stomping South 61-44. Ed Snook and Mike Cowgill led the second half charge with key buckets on assists from Mike Rex. The tables were set as the Warriors travelled to Corvallis to face a do or die game. The game was a tremendous battle but Corvallis used effective free throw shooting to hold on and win a 74-69 game that destroyed all Lebanon hopes as South defeated McNary to win the second state tournament berth from the Valley League.

Wayne Miller, Richard Wetherell, and Dave Winters. Copley during his career rewrote the record books at Lebanon High, setting many individual records. For the second year he was a first team All-League selection. Also he received Honorable Mention All-State honors. Other Lebanon players gaining recognition were Mike Cowgill a second team All-League guard and Wayne Miller an Honorable Mention choice at guard.

The seniors of this years varsity basketball team are the first group to go through the complete four years of basketball under the program initiated by Coach Adams. In the past four years Lebanon basketball has gone through a transition from a losing program into a highly competitive program. This fact is a tribute to the coaching staff for the immense hours they have spent developing ballplayers. With several key juniors returning from the varsity next year and some good sophomore talent moving up, 1972 may just be the year when the Warriors become winners and clinch a state tournament berth.

Left: "Well now, let's see, who do we need; Alcindor or Maravich?" ponders coach Barry Adams.

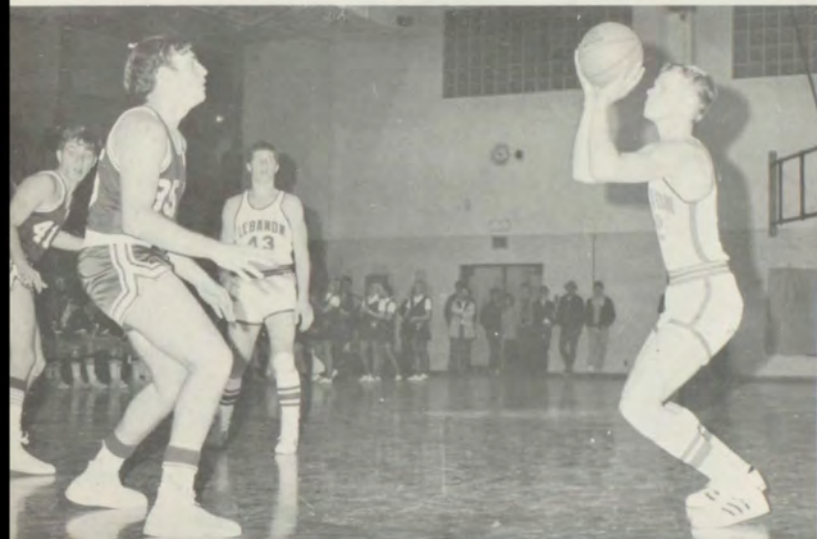

Upper Right: "This is really good exercise," explains Dave Copley. "I think I'm gonna do it again."

Middle Right: Jeff Edwards hauls in a rebound and receives the disgust of a bulldog.

Lower Right: "Come on, this is unfair. Where'd all the Lebanon guys go," wonders Mike Rex.

Lower Left: Up, up, and away, the Wayne Miller way!

Right: "100 to 0, we better take it easy on 'em."

The 1970-71 wrestlers again proved that they are one of Lebanon's most outstanding athletic teams. They finished the dual meet season with a record of 8-3 (4-1 in district), second in the district tournament, and a tie for fourth in the state meet.

The Warriors opened with a comfortable 30-23 win over the defending state champion Newberg Tigers, but then lost to a strong Hillsboro team, 31-24. The sting of the Hillsboro loss didn't last long, though, as Lebanon trounced Sweet Home 34-18.

The Japanese National Champions made their third visit to Lebanon this year, and they again proved too much for anyone in the state to handle. The Warriors failed to win a match although Dalton Johnson earned a tie.

Lebanon opened the Valley League schedule in grand style, picking up wins over Corvallis (37-14), and North Salem (31-18). But the South Salem Saxons did it again, bumping off the Warriors 26-23, for the second straight year, costing Lebanon the district dual meet championship. The Warriors shook it off though, as they dumped McNary 25-19, won the Lebanon Invitational, and trounced Albany's Bulldogs 38-15.

Lebanon hosted the district tournament for the first time in six years, and carried high hopes of breaking a seven-year jinx. For the past seven years they have finished second in district. They were co-favorites with the Saxons this year, but they suffered a disastrous first round and had to perform some pretty fancy wrestling on the last day of the tourney to come off with another second, their eighth straight.

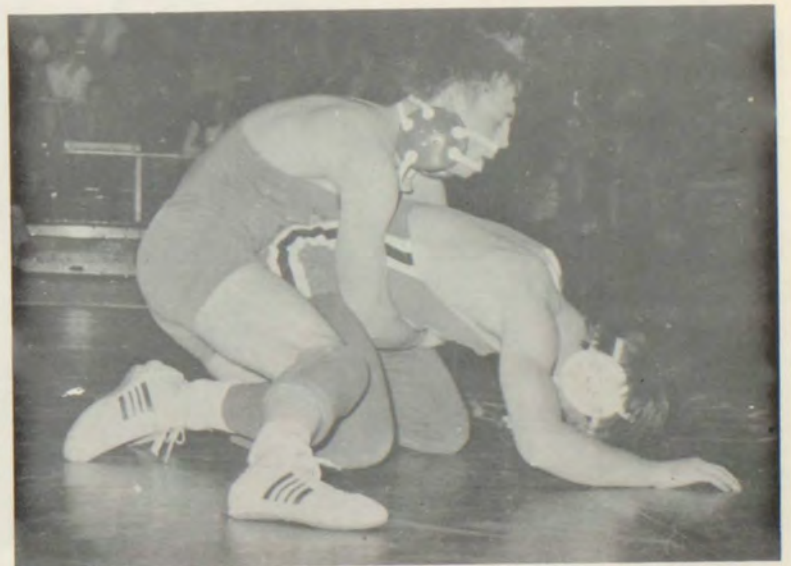

Five wrestlers won district championships, and three took seconds, giving the Warriors eight wrestlers in the state meet. Gary Dahl (130), Kurt Fritz (148), Duane Ray (157), Mark Cox (178), and Dalton Johnson (191) took firsts, and Steve Ditterick (123), Bob May (130), and Howard Otta (141) nabbed seconds. Ward Hanna, Dave Badeau, John Marshall, Gary Howell, Greg Baretto and Chris Otta also placed fifth or better in the tourney.

The state tournament saw to be one of Lebanon's best showings of the year. The eight-man Warrior delegation were the surprise leaders after the first two rounds. Unfortunately, a couple of tough breaks hit the Warriors in the semis, as only Ray advanced to the finals to place second. However, four Lebanon matmen took consolation honors. Dahl placed third, Ditterick, Otta, and Johnson took fifths. As a team, Lebanon finished fourth in the state.

Warrior hopes for next year, despite the loss of valuable seniors, again look good. Two state placers, Dahl and Ditterick, head the list of 14 returning lettermen. It should be another great year for the always powerful Warrior wrestling team.

It was a building year for the LUHS Girl's Track Team. Coached by Mrs. Deborah Johnson and Miss Judith Johns, the team placed second in District, just a mere seven points out of first place. As a result however, six girls competed in nine events at the State meet. Inspired by desire plus Black Jelly Bean Awards, the girls won all their District meets.

At District, Carolyn Moore, Robin Moran, Beanie Borotrager, and Madel Wardlaw broke a District record in the 880 medley relay with a time of 1:57.2. Madel also placed first in the 440, Beanie first in the 100 yard dash, Carolyn first in the 220, and Trecia Juhnke first in both the shot and the discus. Robin Moran placed third in the 220 and the 440 relay team, composed of Moore, Moran, Borotrager, and Lois Moody placed second. It was a fine all-around performance by all the girls with fifteen girls bettering their marks in twenty-four events.

Lost to Graduation will be Bonnie Gibbs, Carla Hazen, and Debby Perry, who did outstanding jobs in the field events. But with the large number of Freshman and Sophomore girls who made up the team this year, Coach Johnson is expecting great things next year.

In spite of RAIN, RAIN, RAIN, Coach Bill Croco's 1971 Warriors went out to improve on their 3rd place finish in 1970.

Led by Seniors, Ron Wolfe, Wayne Zurmely, Dave Copley, Terry Loree, Mike Kelly and George Slape (a Prineville transfer) plus two Junior Lettermen, Mike Rex and Rob Shimmin this high spirited team developed its way into becoming a league contender. One of the reasons for this was that positions left open by last years Seniors were more than adequately filled by starters Dan Hayes, Pat Hellberg and Sophomore Malcolm Ross, with back-up help from Juniors Dan Powell, Brad Kanagy, Kim Dorsing and Gary Irving.

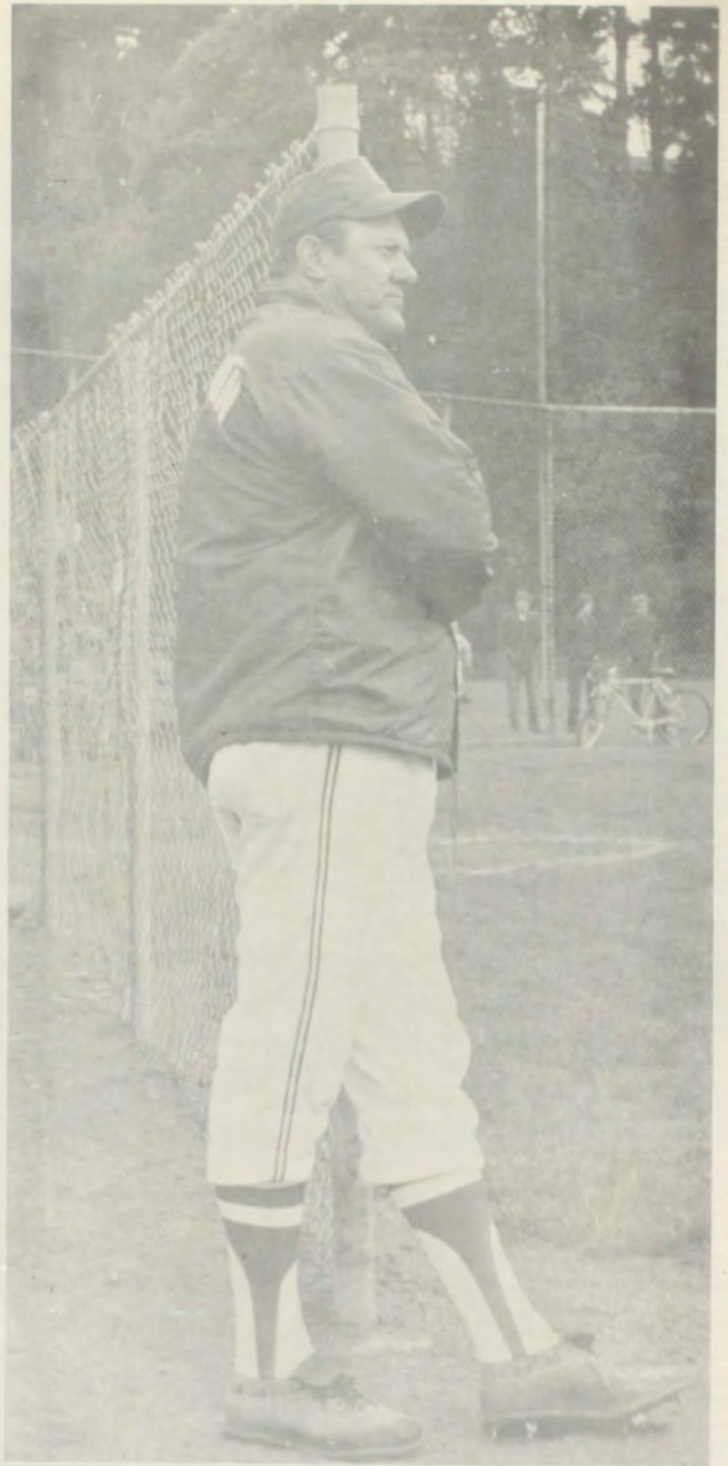

The pitching chores led by Seniors Wayne Zurmely, Dave Copley and Junior Rob Shimmin, with strong help from Seniors Terry Loree, Ron Wolfe and Junior Brad Kanagy combined to make the Warrior pitching staff the strongest in the league. Midway through the season the pitching staff had allowed only 2.33 earned runs per game.

Anchoring this years infield was short-stop Ron Wolfe, third baseman Wayne Zurmely and catcher Mike Rex. Starters up from last years Junior Varsity were first baseman Pat Hellberg and second baseman Malcolm Ross with help from Dan Powell and Gary Irving. Although some were new to their positions they learned their lesson well and soon developed into a strong defensive unit.

The outfield crew led by Mike Kelly, Rob Shimmin and Dan Hayes aided by George Slape and Kim Dorsing stopped many, would be, base hits with their great speed and judgement.

The positions of the graduating Seniors will be difficult to fill; but with nine returning Lettermen and a strong Junior Varsity, Lebanon should be a league contender for many years to come.

Lower Right: Dan Hayes takes his lead in getting ready for an attempted steal.

Senior Class Summary

The Class of 1971 was a class of individuals. Each walked their own path of values and ideals and yet displayed a unique kind of unity.

We began as Rooks back in 1967 and showed everyone up right off by being the first Frosh class to ever win the Homecoming Float Trophy. Our Sophomore year was sort of an inbetween year. We saw definite plans laid down for the construction of the Student Lounge. Our Junior year brought in the Prom. The theme "Dream, Dream, Dream" was carried out in shades of lavender with Betty Collin reigning over the evening. Spring brought the election of Student Body officers from our class. John Adams was chosen as President, Wayne Miller as Vice-President, Lonnie Burt as Secretary, and Terry Bresler as Treasurer.

Leading us into our Senior year was our "Big Pres", Mike Burrelle, backed up by Vice-President Mike Cowgill, Secretary Betty Collin, Treasurer Wendy Krislen, and Representatives Jacquie Duerr, Bob May, Carol Kenagy, and Bill Potter. We started the year off good by again building the winning Homecoming float. Cheryl Anderlik was Queen, Debbie Tow, Maid of Honor, and Oli Ong, Honorary Princess. We kept up our winning streak and collected the Spirit Week Trophy.

In charge of school spirit was Yell Queen Peggy Wells, who along with Debbie Parks and Pegi Barnhart led the Pep Club to their winning of the trophy at the Basketball Jamboree. They also took charge of spirit at the numerous other sports events. Our wrestling team finished 5th in State, our basketball team finished 3rd in District after a series of consequences which narrowly kept us out of the State Tournament, and our baseball team finished 2nd in District.

Winter Formal time came around and the Seniors took charge. Decorations were carried out in the Christmas spirit and Stephanie Stevens ruled for the evening.

By this time all of us were growing attached to a very special person, Olivia (Oli) Ong, our AFS student from Singapore. Maybe it was because of her accent and maybe because of her crazy laugh and fun personality, but anyway, we'll miss her.

Spring came around and with it came many bad attacks of "Senioritis". It made it hard for us to stay in school but realizing that graduation was around the corner added a note of seriousness and made us at least try.

All the sunshine and activities of Spring kept us busy. (1) We chose five girls to represent Lebanon at the Strawberry Festival; Debi Bell, Terry Bresler, Betty Collin, Pynne Looper, and Peggy Wells. (2) We chose our Senior Personalities. (3) Eight princesses were chosen to be on the May Day Court; Lonnie Burt, Carol Kenagy, Conni Mangan, Debbie Parks, Karen Smith, Margee Woods, Peggy Wymore, and Oli Ong.

Then came June and with it our last day of high school and Graduation. We're out on our own in the wide world now but "We've only just begun..."

People need phones wherever they are

(so we put them there)

Nothing quite takes the place of the telephone when you need aid or information fast wherever you are. That's why we've installed bright new Public Telephone Booths in and near town, at the places you're most likely to need them.

When you're away from the house and nothing but a phone call will do, look for the nearest Public Telephone. They're just waiting to help.

Farewell Seniors

Words are a poor way to express thought, feelings and deeds; they hamper and bind and never quite fit...but they are the only way we have.

Dear Reader:

Take a moment and reflect over 1971. It was a year of transition and new trends of thought. It was a year of meeting new ideas and lasting friends. There were times of success and times of failure, times of happiness and times of disappointment, which helped to complete another link in our life's chain.

The 1971 Warrior grew out of the searchings for something different to fit with the changing times. We wanted a book that reflected the happiness, dismay, enthusiasm and pessimism of the year.

Things did not always come out as they were originally envisioned. Countless frustrations were confronted each day. Ideas had to be originated, constructed and reconstructed. Our greatest enemy was time, for a year is full of many short days and now they are gone.

We are finished at last. It is no longer our book alone, although the staff's feelings of "ownership" linger. The memories are yours to keep.
